

The background of the book cover features a collection of green Depression glass items. On the left is a tall, fluted glass tumbler with a wide rim. In the foreground, there is a shallow, wide glass dish with a scalloped edge and a central raised area. To the right, a glass butter dish with a lid is visible, featuring a central knob and radiating lines. Another smaller glass dish is partially visible behind the tumbler. The items are set against a light, neutral background.
