The Works Of Alain Locke Collected Black Writings:

The Works of Alain Locke Charles Molesworth, 2012-07-10 The Works of Alain Locke provides a definitive collection of writings by a towering figure in African American thought

The New Negro Aesthetic Alain Locke, 2022-01-18 Pulitzer Prize winning biographer edits a collection of Alain Locke's influential essays on the importance of the Black artist and the Black imagination A Penguin Classic For months the philosopher Alain Locke wrestled with the idea of the Negro as America's most vexing problem He asked how shall Negroes think of themselves as he considered the new crop of poets novelists and short story writers who in 1924 wrote about their experiences as Black people in America He did not want to frame Harlem and Black writing as yet another protest against racism nor did he want to focus on the sociological perspective on the Negro problem and Harlem as a site of crime poverty and dysfunction He wanted to find new language and a new way for Black people to think of themselves The essays and articles collected in this volume by Locke's Pulitzer Prize winning biographer are the result of that new attitude and the struggle to instill the New Negro aesthetics as Stewart calls it here into the mind of the twentieth century To be a New Negro poet novelist actor musician dancer or filmmaker was to commit oneself to an arc of self discovery of what and who the Negro was would be without fear that one would disappoint the white or Black bystander In committing to that path Locke asserted one would uncover a being in the world that was rich and bountiful in its creative possibilities if Black people could turn off the noise of racism and see themselves for who they really are a world of creative people who have transformed powerfully and perpetually the culture of wherever history or social forces landed them

The New Negro Alain Locke, 2025-10-14 We have to morrow Bright before us Like a flame The New Negro An Interpretation is a multidisciplinary anthology of poetry fiction essays criticism art and philosophy woven together into a seamless statement of Black agency in the arts and humanities that became upon its publication in 1925 an instant publishing success Edited by Alain Locke a man known as the father of the Harlem Renaissance the text is a powerful provocative and affecting anthology of writers who shaped the Harlem Renaissance movement and who help us to consider the evolution of the African American in society With works by Black voices such as Zora Neale Hurston Countee Cullen and W E B DuBois Locke constructed a vivid look at the changing African American finding their place in the ever shifting sociocultural landscape that was 1920s America With an introduction from Jeffrey C Stewart leading biographer of Locke this collection explores the literary strength as well as the historical context of a monumental and fascinating time in the history of America

Twentieth-Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context Linda De Roche, 2021-06-04 This four volume reference work surveys American literature from the early 20th century to the present day featuring a diverse range of American works and authors and an expansive selection of primary source materials Bringing useful and engaging material into the classroom this four volume set covers more than a century of American literary history from 1900 to the present Twentieth Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context profiles authors and their works and provides overviews of literary movements and genres through which readers will understand the historical cultural and political contexts that have shaped American writing Twentieth Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context provides wide coverage of authors works genres and movements that are emblematic of the diversity of modern America Not only are major literary movements represented such as the Beats but this work also highlights the emergence and development of modern Native American literature African American literature and other representative groups that showcase the diversity of American letters A rich selection of primary documents and background material provides indispensable information for student research The Other Blacklist Mary Helen

Washington, 2014-04-08 Mary Helen Washington recovers the vital role of 1950s leftist politics in the works and lives of modern African American writers and artists While most histories of McCarthyism focus on the devastation of the blacklist and the intersection of leftist politics and American culture few include the activities of radical writers and artists from the Black Popular Front Washington's work incorporates these black intellectuals back into our understanding of mid twentieth century African American literature and art and expands our understanding of the creative ferment energizing all of America during this period Mary Helen Washington reads four representative writers Lloyd Brown Frank London Brown Alice Childress and Gwendolyn Brooks and surveys the work of the visual artist Charles White She traces resonances of leftist ideas and activism in their artistic achievements and follows their balanced critique of the mainstream liberal and conservative political and literary spheres Her study recounts the targeting of African American as well as white writers during the McCarthy era reconstructs the events of the 1959 Black Writers Conference in New York and argues for the ongoing influence of the Black Popular Front decades after it folded Defining the contours of a distinctly black modernism and its far ranging radicalization of American politics and culture Washington fundamentally reorients scholarship on African American and Cold War literature and life

The Routledge Handbook of the New African Diasporic Literature Lokangaka Losambe, Tanure Ojaide, 2024-05-16 The Routledge Handbook of the New African Diasporic Literature introduces world literature readers to the transnational multivocal writings of immigrant African authors Covering works produced in Europe North America and elsewhere in the world this book investigates three major aesthetic paradigms in African diasporic literature the Sankofan wave late 1960s early 1990s the Janusian wave 1990s 2020s and the Offshoots of the New Arrivants those born and growing up outside Africa Written by well established and emerging scholars of African and diasporic literatures from across the world the chapters in the book cover the works of well known and not so well known Anglophone Francophone and Lusophone writers from different theoretical positionalities and critical approaches pointing out the unique innovative artistic qualities of this major subgenre of African literature The focus on the diasporic consciousness of the writers and their works sets this handbook apart from others that solely emphasize migration which is more of a process than the community of settled African people involved in the dynamic acts of living reflected in diasporic writings This book will appeal to researchers and students from across the fields of Literature Diaspora Studies African Studies Migration Studies and Postcolonial Studies

Apropos of Something Elisa Tamarkin, 2022-07-27 A history of the idea of relevance since the nineteenth century in art criticism philosophy logic and social thought Before 1800 nothing was irrelevant So argues Elisa Tamarkin's sweeping meditation on a key shift in consciousness the arrival of relevance as the means to grasp how something that was once disregarded unvalued or lost to us becomes interesting and important When so much makes claims to our attention every day how do we decide what is most valuable right now Relevance Tamarkin shows was an Anglo American concept derived from a word meaning to raise or to lift up again and also to give relief It engaged major intellectual figures including Ralph Waldo Emerson and pragmatists and philosophers William James Alain Locke John Dewey and Alfred North Whitehead as well as a range of critics phenomenologists linguists and sociologists Relevance is a struggle for recognition especially in the worlds of literature art and criticism Poems and paintings in the nineteenth century could now be seen as pragmatic works that make relevance and make interest that reveal versions of events that feel apropos of our lives the moment we turn to them Vividly illustrated with paintings by Winslow Homer Henry Ossawa Tanner and others Apropos of Something is a searching philosophical and poetic study of relevance a concept calling for shifts in both attention and perceptions of importance with enormous social stakes It remains an invitation for the humanities and for all of us who feel tasked every day with finding the point

Christian Matthew Bowman, 2018-04-02 Religious diversity is a defining feature of the United States But more remarkable than the range of faiths is the diversity of political visions embedded in them Matthew Bowman delves into the ongoing struggle over the potent word Christian not merely to settle theological disputes but to discover its centrality to American politics

Writing Jazz Nicholas M. Evans, 2015-12-22 This study examines how early writers of jazz criticism such as Gilbert Seldes and Carl Van Vechten and literature F Scott Fitzgerald and Langston Hughes as well as jazz performers and composers such as Al Jolson Sophie Tucker and George Gershwin associated the music directly with questions about identity racial ethnic national gendered and sexual and with historical developments like industrialization Going beyond the study of melody harmony and rhythm this book's interdisciplinary approach takes seriously the cultural beliefs about jazz that inspired interracial contact moralistic panic bohemian slumming visions of American democracy and much more Detailed textual analysis of fiction nonfiction film and musical performance illustrates the complexity of these cultural beliefs in the 1920s and also shows their survival to the present day In part jazz absorbed the U S cultural imagination due to the nineteenth century artistic search for music that would define the national character To the chagrin of Anglo Saxon nativists jazz ascended as an exemplar of cultural hybridity and pluralism The writers and entertainers studied in this volume most of whom were minorities of Jewish Irish or African heritage hailed the new social possibilities that they heard and felt in jazz Yet most of them also qualified their enthusiasm by remaining wary of both the seductions of jazz's commercialization and the loss of ethnic identity in the melting pot Metropolitan Fetish John Warne Monroe, 2019-09-15 From the 1880s to 1940 French colonial officials businessmen and soldiers returning from overseas postings brought home wooden masks and figures from Africa This imperial and cultural power play is the jumping off point for a story that travels from sub Saharan Africa to Parisian art galleries from the pages of fashion magazines through the doors of the Louvre to world fairs and international auction rooms into the apartments of avant garde critics and poets to the streets of Harlem and then full circle back to colonial museums and schools in Dakar Bamako and Abidjan John Warne Monroe guides us on this journey one that goes far beyond the world of Picasso Matisse and Braque to show how the Modernist avant garde and the European colonial project influenced each other in profound and unexpected ways Metropolitan Fetish reveals the complex trajectory of African material culture in the West and provides a map of that passage tracing the interaction of cultural and imperial power A broad and far reaching history of the French reception of African art it brings to life an era in which the aesthetic category of primitive art was invented African American Literature in Transition, 1930-1940: Volume 10 Eve Dunbar, Ayesha K. Hardison, 2022-04-07 The volume explores 1930s African American writing to examine Black life culture and politics to document the ways Black artists and everyday people managed the Great Depression's economic impact on the creative and the social Essays engage iconic figures such as Sterling Brown Langston Hughes Zora Neale Hurston Dorothy West and Richard Wright as well as understudied writers such as Arna Bontemps and Marita Bonner Henry Lee Moon and Roi Ottley This book demonstrates the significance of the New Deal's Works Progress Administration WPA the Communist Party of the United States CPUSA and Black literary circles in the absence of white patronage By featuring novels poetry short fiction and drama alongside guidebooks photographs and print culture African American Literature in Transition 1930-1940 provides evidence of the literary culture created by Black writers and readers during a period of economic precarity expanded activism for social justice and urgent internationalism The Cambridge History of American Literature: Volume 6, Prose Writing, 1910-1950 Sacvan Bercovitch, Cyrus R. K. Patell, 1994 Volume 6 of The Cambridge History of American Literature explores the emergence and flowering of modernism in the United States David Minter provides a cultural history of the American novel from the lyric years to World War I through post World War I disillusionment to the consolidation of the Left in response to the mire of the Great Depression Rafia Zafar tells the story of the Harlem Renaissance detailing the artistic accomplishments of such diverse figures as Zora Neal Hurston W E B Du Bois Langston Hughes Nella Larsen and Richard Wright Werner Sollors examines canonical texts as well as popular magazines and hitherto unknown immigrant writing from the period Taken together these narratives cover the entire range of literary prose written in the first half of the twentieth century offering a model of literary history for our times focusing as they do on the intricate interplay between text and context

Hot Music, Ragmentation, and the Bluing of American Literature

Steven C. Tracy, 2015-06 Hot Music Ragmentation and the Bluing of American Literature examines the diverse ways in which African American hot music influenced American culture particularly literature in early twentieth century America Steven C Tracy provides a history of the fusion of African and European elements that formed African American hot music and considers how terms like ragtime jazz and blues developed their own particular meanings for American music and society He draws from the fields of literature literary criticism cultural anthropology American studies and folklore to demonstrate how blues as a musical and poetic form has been a critical influence on American literature from dust jacket

Writing the Harlem Renaissance Emily Allen Williams, 2017-04-26 The contributors in this study examine the historical Harlem community during its renaissance period as well as its present day community A cursory investigation of the existent that focus on the Harlem community during its renaissance of the early twentieth century reveals that the compilations are primarily ones that present the subjects life stories through the lens of praise songs This book however presents the Harlem community through a lens that reveals more grounded and researched analyses that bring the influences and contributions of the Harlem Renaissance to a level of relevance in the twenty first century from one or more critical vantage points This study aims to move beyond the more obvious and foregrounded artistic contributions towards analyses of the Harlem Renaissance alongside analyses of a twenty first century Harlem community and its present day contributions

William Carlos Williams and the American Scene, 1920-1940 Dickran Tashjian, 1978 Reader's Guide to Literature in English Mark

Hawkins-Dady, 2012-12-06 Reader's Guide Literature in English provides expert guidance to and critical analysis of the vast number of books available within the subject of English literature from Anglo Saxon times to the current American British and Commonwealth scene. It is designed to help students, teachers, and librarians choose the most appropriate books for research and study.

Africana Studies James L. Conyers, 1997. Known variously as African studies, black studies, African American studies, Afro American studies, and Africology, the academic study of the African diaspora as a holistic discipline is a relatively new phenomenon. University programs have been created with reference to a disciplinary matrix, retarding the development of appropriate theory and methods throughout Africana studies. Fifteen leaders in the field of Africana studies provide the conceptual framework for establishing the field as a mature discipline. The focus is on four basic areas: administration and organizational structure, disciplinary matrix, Africana womanism, and cultural aesthetics. The work examines both the theory and the method of scholars in African and African diaspora studies.
