The Worlds Of Hunt Slonem:

The Worlds of Hunt Slonem Dominique Nahas,2011-11-01 Once the enfant terrible of New York's art world Hunt Slonem b 1951 depicts both natural subjects birds and butterflies and portraits voodoo saints and Abraham Lincoln Using multiplicity as a governing principle Slonem has created a wildly colorful and recognizable body of work This in depth monograph which spans Slonem's boyhood in Hawaii to his training at Tulane University and the Skowhegan School of Painting and Sculpture to his life today split between New York and New Orleans features more than 600 vibrant illustrations The author delves deep beneath the decorative surface of Slonem's work to reveal what informs and influences this original and enigmatic artist

The Spirited Homes of Hunt Slonem Brian D. Coleman,2023-09-12 My homes are my life's work making old houses into a new form of my art says Hunt Slonem in his preface Extraordinary photography capsule summaries of each building's history and a sprinkling of anecdotes open the doors to Slonem's personal and creative world from a new perspective This book about his idiosyncratic maximalist interior design style how he employs color arranges an abundance of antique furniture exhibits his personal art and objects mixes antique art with his own contemporary works and displays myriad collections is awe inspiring and inspirational More is more is a fit adage for what this book reveals

Hunt Slonem Ted Vassilev,2021-10-13 This sumptuous new volume is the first in a decade to examine the distinctive creations of Hunt Slonem Best known for his lavish and whimsical paintings of bunnies butterflies and birds Hunt Slonem is a painter sculptor and interior designer with a distinct neo expressionist style This sumptuous new volume is the first in a decade to examine his distinctive creations across genres Scholarly yet accessible texts by leading critics offer new perspectives celebrating Slonem's full artistic vision Combining intimate views of his lovingly restored historic mansions and unique interior furnishings his multi media sculpture iconic paintings and seminal works this book will be essential for all who love the elegant and exotic worlds of Hunt Slonem

Birds Hunt Slonem,2017 Influenced by the exotic lush landscapes of his childhood and youth in Hawaii and Nicaragua Hunt Slonem paints richly colored impressionistic visions that are celebrated worldwide and particularly sought after are his paintings of birds Now for the first time Slonem's bird paintings are collected into a single volume published in a lavish hardcover edition as a follow up to the exquisite Bunnies In Birds the Louisiana born artist pays homage to these remarkable creatures through hundreds of engaging works Dramatic and vivid Slonem's avian subjects seem unconfined to a flat surface as the paintings brim with texture and movement At the same time the painter's unique cross hatching technique unmistakably evokes the bars of a birdcage The compelling nature of these paintings lies in the tension between the birds ability to soar and their often captive state though Slonem's own birds are often spotted flying around his studio Sure to please bird lovers and fine art aficionados alike this is an impressively luxe hardcover volume that features metallic ink and silver gilded edges a ribbon marker and an acetate jacket

Object Lessons and Early Learning Sharon Shaffer,2018-07-11 The twenty first century is a time of change for early learning in museums due in part to society's evolving view of childhood from an age of innocence to understanding the robust learning that defines the first years of life This perspective is a catalyst for international conversation and continues to raise attention and interest across society Object Lessons and Early Learning leverages what is known about the cognitive development of young children to examine the power of learning through objects in museum and heritage settings Exploring the history and modern day practice of object based learning Shaffer outlines the rationale for endorsing this approach in both formal and informal learning spaces She argues that museums as collecting institutions are learning spaces uniquely positioned to allow children to make meaning about their world through personal connections to cultural artifacts natural specimens and works of art A range of descriptive object lessons inspired by objects in museums as well as from the everyday world are presented throughout the text as examples of ways in which children can be encouraged to engage with museum collections Object Lessons and Early Learning offers insights into strategies for engaging young children as learners in museum settings and in their everyday world and as such will be essential reading for museum professionals classroom educators and students It should also be of great interest to academics and researchers engaged in the study of museums and education IFAR Journal ,2001

Arts Magazine ,1990 Cajun Literature and Cajun Collective Memory Mathilde Köstler,2022-12-19 How does Cajun literature emerging in the 1980s represent the dynamic processes of remembering in Cajun culture Known for its hybrid constitution and deeply ingrained oral traditions Cajun culture provides an ideal testing ground for investigating the collective memory of a group In particular francophone and anglophone Cajun texts by such writers as Jean Arceneaux Tim Gautreaux Jeanne Castille Zachary Richard Ron Thibodeaux Darrell Bourque and Kirby Jambon reveal not only a shift from an oral to a written tradition They also show hybrid perspectives on the Cajun collective memory Based on recurring references to place the texts also reflect on the Acadian past and reveal the innate ability of the Cajuns to adapt through repeated intertextual references The Cajun collective memory is thus defined by a transnational outlook a transversality cutting across various ethnic heritages to establish and legitimize a collective identity both amid the linguistic and cultural diversity in Louisiana and in the face of American mainstream culture Cajun Literature and Cajun Collective Memory represents the first analysis of the mnemonic strategies Cajun writers use to explore and sustain the Cajun identity and collective memory

The New Response John Yau,1985-01-01 Introduction to contemporary painters of the Hudson River who both continue and react to the legacy of the nineteenth century Hudson River School of painting Arts Digest ,1989 A Theology of Artistic Sensibilities John Dillenberger,2004-10-19 For most of history argues John Dillenberger the visual arts were for better or worse part of the very fabric of the life and thought of the church But with the Reformation and the Counter Reformation a major change took place Protestant rejection of the visual was matched in Roman Catholicism by the reduction of its formative power While the visual arts dropped out of the lives of Protestant churches they became a memory rather than a source of ennoblement or power in the Roman Catholic Church Thus in different but allied ways Protestants and Catholics lost the power of the visual Part art history part historical theology and part theological reflection this book is both an argument and a program for the recovery of the visual arts in the life of the church for reclaiming seeing as part of religious perception It offers a theological understanding of the visual and provides a basis upon which the visual arts may again be incorporated into Protestantism and reinvigorated in Roman Catholicism The first part is devoted to historical reconstruction exploring those moments in Western history in which the relation between religion and the arts was in ferment Part 2 is given to contemporary delineation and analysis of spiritual perceptions in modern American painting and sculpture of modern church art and architecture and of the changing views of contemporary theologians toward the visual arts Citing David Tracy Karl Rahner Langdon Gilkey and others as examples Dillenberger argues that contemporary theology is moving away from the modern rationalistic understanding of theological analogy to one far closer to the arts Part 3 is constructive developing a theological perspective that demands and includes the visual arts and suggesting ways in which this can be accomplished in pastoral and theological education The world of art says Professor Dillenberger is more aware of the role of religion in the arts than the world of religion is of art Thus it is time for the church to resume its historic association with the visual arts albeit in analogous rather than repristinating ways Hunt Slonem Cybele

DIY on the Lower East Side Andrew Strombeck,2020-08-01 The severe financial austerity imposed on New York City during the 1975 fiscal crisis resulted in a city falling apart Broken windows crumbling walls and piles of bricks were everywhere While for many this physical decay was a sign that the postwar welfare state had failed for others it represented a site of risky opportunity that could stimulate novel forms of creativity and community In this book Andrew Strombeck explores the legacy of this crisis for the city s literature and art focusing on one neighborhood where changes were acutely felt the Lower East Side In what became a paradigmatic example of gentrification the Lower East Side s population shifted from working class people to Wall Street traders and ad agents This transformation occurred in part because of high profile local artists such as Jean Michel Basquiat Keith Haring Jeff Koons and Kiki Smith but Strombeck argues that neighborhood writers also played a role Drawing on archival research and original author interviews he examines the innovative work of Kathy Acker David Wojnarowicz Miguel Pi ero Sylv re Lotringer Lynne Tillman and others and concludes that these writers still have much to teach us about changes in the nature of work and the emergence of a do it yourself ethos DIY on the Lower East Side shows how place and politics shaped literature and how New York City policies adopted at the time continue to shape our world
