The Zen Doctrine of No-mind Daisetz Teitaro Suzuki, 1958 The Zen Doctrine of No-mind Daisetz Teitaro Suzuki, 1958

The Zen Doctrine of No Mind Daisetz Teitaro Suzuki, 1991-08-01 Dedicated largely to the teaching of Hui Neng this volume covers the purpose and technique of Zen training and goes further into the depths of Zen than any other work of modern times Here we find no reliance on scripture or a Savior for the student is shown how to go beyond thought in order to achieve a state of consciousness beyond duality The Zen Doctrine of No-mind Daisetz Teitaro Suzuki, 1949 The Zen

Doctrine of No-mind Daisetz Teitaro Suzuki, 1969 Zen Doctrine of No-mind Daisetz Teitaro Suzuki, 1958 Zen Doctrine of No Mind Daisetz Teitaro Suzuki, 1991-10 The Zen Doctrine of No-Mind Daisetz Teitaro Suzuki

(Religionswissenschaftler), 1969 The Complete Works Daisetz Teitaro Suzuki, 1949 Artistic Detachment in Japan and the West Steve Odin, 2001-04-01 Artistic Detachment in Japan and the West takes up the notion of artistic detachment or psychic distance as an intercultural motif for East West comparative aesthetics The work begins with an overview of aesthetic theory in the West from the eighteenth century empiricists to contemporary aesthetics and concludes with a survey of various critiques of psychic distance Throughout the author takes a highly innovative approach by juxtaposing Western aesthetic theory against Eastern primarily Japanese aesthetic theory Weaving between cultures and time periods the author focuses on a remarkably wide range of theories in the West the Kantian notion of disinterested contemplation Heidegger's Gelassenheit semiotics and pragmatism in Japan Zeami's notion of riken no ken the Kyoto School's interpretation of nothingness D T Suzuki's analysis of the function of no mind and the writings of Kuki Shuzo on Buddhist detachment Portrait of the artist fiction by such writers as Henry James James Joyce Mori Ogai and Natsume Soseki demonstrates how the main theme of detachment is expressed in literary traditions The role of sympathy or pragmatism in relation to disinterest is examined suggesting conflicts within or challenges to the notion of detachment Researchers and students in Eastern and Western areas of study including philosophers and religionists as well as literary and cultural critics will deem this work an invaluable contribution to cross cultural philosophy and literary studies The Philosophy of No-Mind Nishihira

Tadashi, 2024-04-18 Nishihira Tadashi one of Japan's leading philosophers introduces the deeply experiential philosophy of no mind mushin In everyday Japanese mushin is when one loses oneself in the reality of the present and becomes one with it resulting in one's best performance However behind this everyday use is a concept that touches the core of Japanese spirituality This book explores no mind in its dynamic complexity It is both the letting go of the calculations of mind and at the same time the arising of a vibrant consciousness in unity with reality This gives rise to various tensions Is it about negating or affirming self Is stillness or activity How does it relate with social ethics or religious transcendence And what is stopping no mind from descending into mere mindlessness These tensional facets are explored through philosophy and history of thought in Japan from pre Buddhist Japanese thought to Zen Buddhism in D T Suzuki and Toshihiko Izutsu to swordsmanship and Noh theater These historical approaches are brought to the here and now dialoguing with psychology ethics and the experiences of everyday life and ending with two preliminary practical explorations What does it mean to care for another and to educate from the point of view of no mind Black Belt ,1977-03 The oldest and most respected martial arts title in the industry this popular monthly magazine addresses the needs of martial artists of all levels by providing them with information about every style of self defense in the world including techniques and strategies In addition Black Belt produces and markets over 75 martial arts oriented books and videos including many about the works of Bruce Lee the best known marital arts figure in the world The Zen doctrine of no mind Daisetz Teitaro Suzuki,1997 Wordsworth and the Zen Mind John G. Rudy,1996-03-28 This book demonstrates that Zen thought and art provide both a generative and a formative context for understanding the spirituality of the English poet William Wordsworth 1770 1850 Combining methods of modern literary scholarship with the philosophical initiatives of the Kyoto School the text crosses disciplines as well as cultures offering a nonmonotheistic nonpantheistic philosophical ground upon which to study what Wordsworth calls the tranquil soul and the one Presence that underlies the great whole of life Anticipating a variety of audiences the discourse progresses from general introductory level discussions of Zen philosophy and literature to the more technical philosophical idiom of the Kyoto School employing intertextual readings of a variety of Wordsworthian and Zen documents to broaden and deepen the East West dialogue as it has been unfolding since the pioneering work of D T Suzuki and Kitaro Nishida An important aspect of this study is its twofold purpose to situate Wordsworth more centrally in the evolving global community of intercultural and interreligious communication and to demonstrate the unique flexibility and universality of Zen as a medium of spiritual growth and aesthetic understanding Zen Buddhism: India and China Heinrich Dumoulin,2005-08-16 Unparalleled in scope and detail this classic history of Zen covers all important ideas and developments in the tradition from its beginnings in India through the Sung period in China The Zen Doctrine of No-mind: the Significance of the Sutra of Hui-nen (Wei-lang) Daisetz Teitaro Suzuki,1970 The Secular Religion of Franklin Merrell-Wolff Dave Vliegenthart,2018-01-16 In The Secular Religion of Franklin Merrell Wolff An Intellectual History of Anti intellectualism in Modern America Dave Vliegenthart offers an account of the life and teachings of the modern American mystic Franklin Merrell Wolff 1887 1985 who combined secular and religious sources from eastern and western traditions in order to elaborate and legitimate his metaphysical claim to the realization of a transcendental reality beyond reason Using Merrell Wolff as a typical example of a modern western guru Vliegenthart investigates the larger sociological and historical context of the ongoing grand narrative that asserts a widespread anti intellectualism in modern American culture exploring developments in religious philosophical and psychological discourses in North America from 1800 until the present

Foucault, Biopolitics and Resistance Lauri Siisiäinen,2018-11-21 Political resistance is flourishing In this context there is a growing interest to reread Michel Foucault s work especially from the late period from the perspective of resistance social movements and affirmative biopolitics Yet what has been missing so far is a book length comprehensive study focusing on this topic This volume undertakes this task providing an original typology of the resources of resistance discovered in Foucault's late thinking resistance as discursive protection of autonomy bodily and affective resistance the strategies arts and practices of affirmative biopolitics or politics of life The book shows how these different types of tools arts and practices can be used in resistant politics in struggles against various regimes and institutions of power and government so that they mutually supplement and reinforce one another The author embarks on advancing Foucault's insights on resistance from where he stopped Furthermore the volume proposes a novel assessment of the Foucauldian political toolkit in the 21st century context addressing its pertinence for struggles against neoliberalism and post Fordist capitalism Foucault Biopolitics and Resistance will be an important resource for students and scholars interested in Foucault resistance and 21st century politics within many fields including political science international relations contemporary and continental philosophy as well as sociology The work elaborates fresh methodological insights fruitful for further empirical research on social and political movements

D. T. Suzuki on the Unconscious in Zen Art, Meditation, and Enlightenment Steve Odin, 2025-07-01 A comprehensive study of D T Suzuki's Zen philosophy and philosophical psychology in relation to his Buddhist understanding of the cosmic Unconscious This book explores how the Japanese philosopher D T Suzuki 1870-1966 developed an integral synthesis of Eastern and Western sources to establish a modern philosophical psychology of the cosmic Unconscious which he in turn used as the basis to interpret every aspect of Zen art meditation and enlightenment Beyond Freud's personal unconscious and Jung's collective unconscious according to Suzuki is the cosmic Unconscious of Zen which as absolute nothingness is the fountain of inexhaustible creative potentialities and the source of all Zen inspired arts The book demonstrates that like the Kyoto School of modern Japanese philosophy Suzuki's Zen endeavors to overcome the existential problem of nihilism or relative nothingness by shifting to the openness of absolute nothingness wherein emptiness is fullness and all things are disclosed in the evanescent beauty of their suchness Suzuki however formulates his scheme in terms of a depth psychology where the cosmic Unconscious is the encompassing locus of absolute nothingness Ultimately the book argues that by integrating both Eastern and Western views of the unconscious psyche including the different schools of Zen and Mahayana Buddhism as well as American French and German theories of the unconscious Suzuki's Zen concept of the cosmic Unconscious constitutes a significant original contribution to philosophical psychology

Mysticism, Mind, Consciousness Robert K. C. Forman, 1999-01-01 Challenges the prevailing view that mystical experience is shaped by language and culture and argues that mystical experience is a direct encounter with consciousness itself
