

The Yacoubian Building

Diane Singerman

The Yacoubian Building:

The Yacoubian building , the yacoubian building 'Alā' Aswānī, 2004 The Yacoubian Building holds all that Egypt was and has become over the 75 years since its namesake was built on one of downtown Cairo's main boulevards From the pious son of the building's doorkeeper and the raucous impoverished squatters on its roof via the tattered aristocrat and the gay intellectual in its apartments to the ruthless businessman whose stores occupy its ground floor each sharply etched character embodies a facet of modern Egypt where political corruption ill gotten wealth and religious hypocrisy are natural allies where the arrogance and defensiveness of the powerful find expression in the exploitation of the weak where youthful idealism can turn quickly to extremism and where an older less violent vision of society may yet prevail Alaa Al Aswany's novel caused an unprecedented stir when it was first published in 2002 and has remained the world's best selling novel in the Arabic language since

Alaa Alaswany, 2006, The Yacoubian Building Alaa Al Aswany, 2009-03-17 August Book Sense Pick A fading aristocrat and self proclaimed scientist of women A purring voluptuous siren A young shop girl enduring the clammy touch of her boss and hating herself for accepting the modest banknotes he tucks into her pocket afterward An earnest devout young doorman feeling the irresistible pull toward fundamentalism A cynical secretly gay newspaper editor helplessly in love with a peasant security guard A roof squatting tailor scheming to own property A corrupt and corpulent politician twisting the Koran to justify taking a mistress All live in the Yacoubian Building a once elegant temple of Art Deco splendor slowly decaying in the smog and hubbub of downtown Cairo Egypt In the course of this unforgettable novel these disparate lives converge careening inexorably toward an explosive conclusion Tragicomic passionate shockingly frank in its sexuality and brimming with an extraordinary embracing human compassion The Yacoubian Building is a literary achievement of the first order

Chicago Alaa Al Aswany, 2024-04-16 The author of the highly acclaimed The Yacoubian Building returns with a story of love sex friendship hatred and ambition set in Chicago with a cast of American and Arab characters achingly human in their desires and needs Egyptian and American lives collide on a college campus in post 9 11 Chicago and crises of identity abound in this extraordinary and eagerly anticipated new novel from Alaa Al Aswany Among the players are a sixties style anti establishment professor whose relationship with a younger African American woman becomes a moving target for intolerance a veiled PhD candidate whose belief in the principles of her traditional upbringing is shaken by her exposure to American society an immigrant whose fervent desire to embrace his American identity is tested when he is faced with the issue of his daughter's honor an Egyptian informant who spouts religious doctrines while hankering after money and power and a dissident student poet who comes to America to finance his literary aspirations but whose experience in Chicago turns out to be more than he bargained for Populated by a cast of intriguing true to life characters Chicago offers an illuminating portrait of America a complex often contradictory land in which triumph and failure opportunity and oppression licentiousness and tender love small dramas and big dreams coexist

Beautifully rendered Chicago is a powerfully engrossing novel of culture and individuality from one of the most original voices in contemporary world literature

Conscience of the Nation Richard Jacquemond, 2008 Artfully combining social and literary history this unique study explores the dual loyalties of contemporary Egyptian authors from the 1952 Revolution to the present day Egypt's writers have long had an elevated idea of their social mission considering themselves the conscience of the nation At the same time modern Egyptian writers work under the liberal conception of the writer borrowed from the European model As a result each Egyptian writer treads the tightrope between authority and freedom social commitment and artistic license loyalty to the state and to personal expression in an ongoing quest for an elusive literary ideal With these fundamentals in mind Conscience of the Nation examines Egyptian literary production over the past fifty years surveying works by established writers as well as those of dozens of other authors who are celebrated in Egypt but whose writings are largely unknown to the foreign reader Novelists and poets scriptwriters and playwrights critics and journalists all have battled with and tried to resolve the tensions inherent in the conflicting forces of self and society

The Humanities and the Dynamics of African Culture in the 21st Century John Ayotunde Isola Bewaji, Kenneth W. Harrow, Eunice E. Omonzejie, 2017-05-11 That Africa is at a crossroads in an increasingly globalised world is indisputable Equally unassailable is the fact that the humanities as a broad field of intellection research and learning in Africa appears to have been pigeonholed in debates of relevance in the development aspirations of many African nations Historical experiences and contemporary research outputs indicate however that the humanities in its various shades is critical to Africa's capacity to respond effectively to such problems as security corruption political ineptitude poverty superstition and HIV AIDS among many other mounting challenges which confront the people of Africa The vibrancy and resilience of Africa's cultures against these and other odds of globalisation episodes in the course of our history demand the focused attention of academia to exploit their relevance to contemporary issues This collection provides a comprehensive overview of issues in the humanities at the turn of the 21st century which create a veritable platform for the global redefinition and understanding of Africa's rich cultures and traditions Such areas covered include ruminations in metaphysics and psychology pathos and ethos cinematic and literary connections and historical conceptualisations

Strategic Maneuvering for Political Change Ahmed Abdulhameed Omar, 2019-02-15 In Strategic Maneuvering for Political Change the author analyzes five political columns written before 2011 by Al Aswany a prominent Egyptian novelist using the lens of the extended pragma dialectical theory of argumentation What these texts have in common is the use of narrative fictional and semi literary techniques to strategically maneuver in supporting the feasibility of political change It is a contribution to explain how an anti regime writer paved the way to the Arab Spring in Egypt and thus goes against a common opinion that the Arab Spring in Egypt was fortuitous or a wholly social media based movement This monograph is an attempt to help argumentation theorists linguists analysts of narratives and political scientists better understand and evaluate how fiction and narration can be effective means of persuasion in the domain of political communication It therefore reconsiders the non straightforward and artistic variants of the language of politics
