The Yolngu And Their Land:

The Land is Our History Miranda C. L. Johnson, 2016 This book chronicles the extraordinary story of indigenous activism in the late twentieth century Taking their claims for justice to law indigenous peoples transformed debates about national identity and reframed the terms of belonging in settler states from the back cover The Yolngu and Their Land Nancy M. Williams, 1986 Encyclopaedia of the History of Science, Technology, and Medicine in Non-Western Cultures Helaine Selin, 2013-11-11 The Encyclopaedia fills a gap in both the history of science and in cultural studies Reference works on other cultures tend either to omit science completely or pay little attention to it and those on the history of science almost always start with the Greeks with perhaps a mention of the Islamic world as a translator of Greek scientific works The purpose of the Encyclopaedia is to bring together knowledge of many disparate fields in one place and to legitimize the study of other cultures science Our aim is not to claim the superiority of other cultures but to engage in a mutual exchange of ideas The Western academic divisions of science technology and medicine have been united in the Encyclopaedia because in ancient cultures these disciplines were connected This work contributes to redressing the balance in the number of reference works devoted to the study of Western science and encourages awareness of cultural diversity The Encyclopaedia is the first compilation of this sort and it is testimony both to the earlier Eurocentric view of academia as well as to the widened vision of today There is nothing that crosses disciplinary and geographic boundaries dealing with both scientific and philosophical issues to the extent that this work does xi PERSONAL NOTE FROM THE EDITOR Many years ago I taught African history at a secondary school in Central Africa Who Needs the Past? R. Layton, 2012-11-12 This book offers a critique of the all pervasive Western notion that other communities often live in a timeless present Who Needs the Past provides first hand evidence of the interest non Western non academic communities have in the past A Legal History for Australia Sarah McKibbin, Libby Connors, Marcus Harmes, 2021-07-29 This is a contemporary legal history book for Australian law students written in an engaging style and rich with learning features and illustrations The writers are a unique combination of talents bringing together their fields of research and teaching in Australian history British constitutional history and modern Australian law The first part provides the social and political contexts for legal history in medieval and early modern England and America explaining the English law which came to Australia in 1788 This includes The origins of the common law The growth of the legal profession The making of the Magna Carta The English Civil Wars The Bill of Rights The American War of Independence The second part examines the development of the law in Australia to the present day including The English criminal justice system and convict transportation The role of the Privy Council in 19th century Indigenous Australia in the colonial period The federation movement Constitutional Independence The 1967 Australian referendum and the land rights movement The comprehensive coverage of several centuries is balanced by a dynamic writing style and tools to guide the student through each chapter including learning outcomes chapter outlines and discussion points The historical analysis is brought to life by the use of primary documentary evidence such as charters statutes medieval source books and Coke s reports and a series of historical cameos focused studies of notable people and issues from King Edward I and Edward Coke to Henry Parkes and Eddie Mabo and constitutional detours addressing topics such as the separation of powers judicial review and federalism A Legal History for Australia is an engaging textbook cogently written and imaginatively resourced and is supported by a companion website <https://www.bloomsburyonlineresources.com/a/legal/history/for/australia>

The Social Effects of Native Title Benjamin Richard Smith,Frances Morphy,2007-10-01 The papers in this collection reflect on the various social effects of native title In particular the authors consider the ways in which the implementation of the Native Title Act 1993 Cwlth and the native title process for which this Act legislates allow for the recognition and translation of Aboriginal law and custom and facilitate particular kinds of coexistence between Aboriginal title holders and other Australians In so doing the authors seek to extend the debate on native title beyond questions of practice and towards an improved understanding of the effects of native title on the social lives of Indigenous Australians and on Australian society more generally Publisher s description

The Aboriginal Tent Embassy Gary Foley,Andrew Schaap,Edwina Howell,2013-07-24 The 1972 Aboriginal Embassy was one of the most significant indigenous political demonstrations of the twentieth century What began as a simple response to a Prime Ministerial statement on Australia Day 1972 evolved into a six month political stand off between radical Aboriginal activists and a conservative Australian government The dramatic scenes in July 1972 when police forcibly removed the Embassy from the lawns of the Australian Houses of Parliament were transmitted around the world The demonstration increased international awareness of the struggle for justice by Aboriginal people brought an end to the national government policy of assimilation and put Aboriginal issues firmly onto the national political agenda The Embassy remains today and on Australia Day 2012 was again the focal point for national and international attention demonstrating the intensity that the Embassy can still provoke after forty years of just sitting there If as some suggest the Embassy can only ever be removed by Aboriginal people achieving their goals of Land Rights Self Determination and economic independence then it is likely to remain for some time yet This book explores the context of this moment that captured the world s attention by using predominantly the voices of the people who were there More than a simple oral history some of the key players represented here bring with them the imprimatur of the education they were to gain in the era after the Tent Embassy This is an act of radicalisation The Aboriginal participants in subversive political action have now broken through the barriers of access to academia and write as both eye witnesses and also as trained historians lawyers film makers It is another act of subversion a continuing taunt to the entrenched institutions of the dominant culture part of a continuum of political thought and action Larissa Behrendt

Williams,Eugene S. Hunn,2019-07-16 As environmental management becomes of increasing concern to both industrial and developing societies it is instructive to look at the fundamental relationship between man and environment as exemplified by the hunter gatherer cultures in which resource management was and is vital to the very existence of human life The authors of this book look at hunting and gathering societies in Australia and North America searching for the essential as distinct from local manifestations of human environment relations They examine the availability of resources in relation to the requirements of stable and expanding human populations explore the ontological and structural principles of ecological relations in these societies and describe the rationale of geographic boundaries and control of access to resources within and across boundaries A number of current theoretical issues are addressed the use of fire as a tool for environmental management the ecological consequences of seasonal mobility patterns the functional basis for differing forms of control over resources the social organization of production including the symbolism of the sexual division of labor the tactical exercise of jural rights in the use of resources and the ecological consequences of religious beliefs The book concludes with a summary of the case materials in terms of what they contribute to the understanding of hunting gathering as an economic category and to the conflict over management of natural resources where societies of hunter gatherers are encapsulated within industrial societies Cultural Appropriation and the Arts James O. Young,2010-02-01 Now for the first time a philosopher undertakes a systematic investigation of the moral and aesthetic issues to which cultural appropriation gives rise Cultural appropriation is a pervasive feature of the contemporary world the Parthenon Marbles remain in London white musicians from Bix Beiderbeck to Eric Clapton have appropriated musical styles from African American culture Young offers the first systematic philosophical investigation of the moral and aesthetic issues to which cultural appropriation gives rise Tackles head on the thorny issues arising from the clash and integration of cultures and their artifacts Questions considered include Can cultural appropriation result in the production of aesthetically successful works of art and Is cultural appropriation in the arts morally objectionable Part of the highly regarded New Directions in Aesthetics series Protected landscapes and wild biodiversity Nigel Dudley,2012

Becoming Art Howard Morphy,2020-08-28 Thirty years ago Australian Aboriginal art was little more than a footnote to world art Today it is considered to be an important contemporary art movement often promoted as being connected to a deep cultural past Becoming Art provides a new analysis of the shifting cultural and social contexts that surround the production of Aboriginal art Transcending the boundaries between anthropology and art history the book draws on arguments from both disciplines to provide a unique interdisciplinary perspective that places the artists themselves at the centre of the argument Western art history has traditionally regarded Aboriginal art as distanced from time and place Becoming Art uses the recent history of Aboriginal art to challenge some of the presuppositions of western art discourse and western art worlds It argues for a more cross cultural perspective on world art history The Routledge Encyclopedia of Social and Cultural Anthropology Alan Barnard,Jonathan Spencer,2009-12-04 Written by leading scholars in the field this comprehensive and readable resource gives anthropology students a unique guide to the ideas arguments and history of the discipline Combining anthropological theory and ethnography it includes 275 substantial entries over 300 short biographies of important figures in anthropology and nearly 600 glossary items The fully revised and expanded second edition reflects major changes in anthropology in the past decade The Habitat of Australia's Aboriginal Languages Gerhard Leitner,Ian G. Malcolm,2008-08-22 The languages of Aboriginal Australians have attracted a considerable amount of interest among scholars from such diverse fields as linguistics political studies archaeology or social history As a result there is a large number of studies on a variety of issues to do with Aboriginal Australian languages and the social contexts in which they are used There is however no integrative reader that is easily accessible to the non specialist in any of the areas concerned The collection edited by Leitner and Malcolm fills this gap Looking at Aborigines and Torres Strait Islanders and their changing habitats from pre colonial times to the present the book covers languages from a structural and functional linguistic perspective moves on to the issue of cultural maintenance and then turns to language policy planning and the educational and legal dimensions Among the many themes discussed are the social and linguistic history of language contact after 1788 including the Macassans the demographic base of indigenous languages traditional indigenous languages results of language contact such as the modification of traditional languages and the rise of contact languages pidgins creoles esp Kriol Torres Strait Creole and Aboriginal English the impact of the Aboriginal languages on mainstream Australian English maintenance shift revival and documentation of indigenous and contact languages language planning language in education language in the media language in the law courts The contributors are leading experts in their fields The book can serve as a reader for university courses but also as a state of the art work and resource for specialists like applied linguists or educational planners Ancestral Connections Howard Morphy, 1991 Yolngu art as a communication system encoding meaning as form relation of art to the systems of clan organisation and restricted secret knowledge contact history and social contexts of art production iconography of clan paintings response to the art market social organisation rights to land and law marriage and kinship rights to paintings knowledge system structure inclusiveness power secrecy role of paintings in ceremonies burial rituals range of meanings associated with paintings examples used in ceremonies associated with the Wawilak Sisters and ancestral shark images graphic components of painting figurative and geometric clan designs chronological change the Donald Thomson Collection past and contemporary categories of painting commercial art iconographic analysis of Manggalili clan paintings relation of events in painting to Yolngu cosmology creative powers life and death male and female dualities

Cultural Expertise Livia Holden, 2025-04-17 This book provides a comprehensive examination of the subject of cultural expertise addressing its theoretical developments ethical debates regulatory frameworks and practices Elaborating the theory and practice of cultural expertise as it crosscuts legal systems and disciplinary boundaries the book offers a thorough understanding of the scope application and impact of cultural expertise in various socio legal contexts The book offers theoretical and practical tools to those with academic or professional interests in cultural expertise detailing its scope application and impact Throughout cultural expertise is positioned as a vital interdisciplinary concept bridging the gap between theoretical frameworks and practical solutions for complex social problems that transcend jurisdictional boundaries legal fields and disciplinary categories This book will appeal to academics and students in the areas of the socio legal studies international and comparative law and cultural anthropology as well as members of the legal professions and policy makers who engage with the analysis of laws and cultures For the Record Michael Rose, 2020-08-29 From September 1836 to December 1837 young Aboriginal clerks produced the Flinders Island Weekly Chronicle a remarkable record of life on the island off Tasmania where a number of Aboriginal people had been forced to resettle Copied by hand it describes the settlement in often poignant terms I am much afraid none of us will be alive by and by as there is nothing but sickness among us Why don t the black fellows pray to the king to get us away from this place Starting with this extraordinary newsletter Michael Rose has brought together examples of Aboriginal journalism from a wide range of Aboriginal and mainstream publications He includes articles from early activists and others who used newspaper and magazine journalism in their fight for justice For The Record also offers the reader an unusual glimpse through Aboriginal eyes of key issues and events in Aboriginal and Australian history Included in the dozens of articles selected protests about poor treatment on reserves in the 1930s an eyewitness account of a Maralinga atomic bomb test in the 1950s Bill Rosser s reporting of life on Palm Island
