Cultures of United States Imperialism Amy Kaplan, Donald E. Pease, 1993 Cultures of United States Imperialism represents a major paradigm shift that will remap the field of American Studies Pointing to a glaring blind spot in the basic premises of the study of American culture leading critics and theorists in cultural studies history anthropology and literature reveal the denial of empire at the heart of American Studies Challenging traditional definitions and periodizations of imperialism this volume shows how international relations reciprocally shape a dominant imperial culture at home and how imperial relations are enacted and contested within the United States Drawing on a broad range of interpretive practices these essays range across American history from European representations of the New World to the mass media spectacle of the Persian Gulf War The volume breaks down the boundary between the study of foreign relations and American culture to examine imperialism as an internal process of cultural appropriation and as an external struggle over international power The contributors explore how the politics of continental and international expansion conquest and resistance have shaped the history of American culture just as much as the cultures of those it has dominated By uncovering the dialectical relationship between American cultures and international relations this collection demonstrates the necessity of analyzing imperialism as a political or economic process inseparable from the social relations and cultural representations of gender race ethnicity and class at home Contributors Lynda Boose Mary Yoko Brannen Bill Brown William Cain Eric Cheyfitz Vicente Diaz Frederick Errington Kevin Gaines Deborah Gewertz Donna Haraway Susan Jeffords Myra Jehlen Amy Kaplan Eric Lott Walter Benn Michaels Donald E Pease Vicente Rafael Michael Rogin Jos David Sald var Richard Slotkin Doris Sommer Gauri Viswanathan Priscilla Wald Kenneth Warren Christopher P Wilson Career Guide to Industries ,2006 Getting Entrepreneurial! Larry C.
