Theological worlds : understanding the alternative rhythms of Christian belief Paul W. Jones, 1989 Remnant Christianity in a Post-Christian World W. Paul Jones, 2021-11-03 The contemporary Christian church is in critical decline both in membership and finances All attempts at reversal are failing primarily because of the consuming socioeconomic secular dynamic in which society is immersed in its self destructive course Consequently Christian imagery is losing its conceivability and credibility and past motivations that once encouraged belief have lost their appeal Without these as points of contact the demise of the institutional church will be relentless despite all efforts to halt it Yet as at other crisis points in history the divine promise has been to raise a faithful remnant with sufficient promise to outlast whatever the societal demise After carefully analyzing the ingredients of our societal crisis the author develops the contours of a Remnant Church to be set in place now within the present institutional churches This necessitates distilling a vital spirituality and discerning the heart of a preservable tradition sufficient to claim both personal and communal commitment Thereby prepared for the long haul the Remnant Church can emerge as a prophetic alternative The Community of the Weak Hans-Peter Geiser, 2013-03-28 Social postmodernism and systematic theology can be considered the new pair in some of the most creative discussions on the future of theological method on a global scale Both in the academy and in the public square as well as in the manifold local and pastoral moments of ministry and community social activism the social the postmodern and the theological intermingle in engaging and border crossing ways The Community of the Weak presents a new kind of jazzy fundamental theology with a postmodern touch using jazz as a metaphor writing ethnographically messy texts out of the personal windows of lived experiences combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their very different contexts The author proposes a systematic and fundamental theology that is more jazzy global and narrative deeply embedded in pastoral ministry to tell its postmodern story Fireweed Evangelism Elizabeth Geitz,2004-11 Fireweed always the first flower to spring up and bloom in ruins and burned over places is Elizabeth Geitz s metaphor for evangelism that comes from the heart It is the motivation that makes some Christians eager to welcome the stranger and invite people into their churches while others hang back In this prequel to Entertaining Angels Hospitality Programs for the Caring Church Geitz explores this missing ingredient in Christian hospitality reminding us that in a multi faith world where Christians wish to honor the validity of other religious paths we may hesitate to talk about the uniqueness of Jesus Christ Her book helps both individuals and communities to understand what holds them back from evangelism and discover the path that is right for them This book unfolds in three sections In the first we look at the factors that inhibit our evangelism including the awareness that we live in a pluralistic world and do not wish to offend those with other faith commitments Geitz offers both reflection and exercises to help us discover our own motivation for evangelism Part 2 addresses the question of context Where does evangelism take place and for whose benefit To what sort of communities do we invite those to whom we reach out Section 3 focuses on the uniqueness of Christian hospitality and describes the nuts and bolts of newcomer ministry and the programs needed to sustain Christian hospitality in a pluralistic society It includes workshop and group process material

Bone Dead, and Rising Charles Davidson,2011-03-28 Here is a vivid poetic and evocative story of the painter Vincent van Gogh's struggle to become his true self The author listens in on Vincent's most intimate frequently startling thoughts on a host of topics drawn from three volumes of his correspondence and his 900 extant paintings What emerges is the portrait of an artist whose spiritual vision was borne of an agonizingly prolonged experience of the dark night of the soul through which his art dared to envision the triumph of joy over sorrow of resurrection over suffering and death Readers will discover that in many ways Vincent's story is as much about us as about him Tracing van Gogh's pilgrimage from being an apprentice art dealer to being called to minister in self renunciation and misery among destitute coal miners the narrative follows his winding tortuous path into adulthood as he struggles with family associates lovers and with himself Constantly evidenced in Vincent's own eloquent words and paintings is his tussle with the mysterious presence and maddening absence of God Vocation unveils as a process of summoning and birthing his own self through an attempt to imitate Christ calling forth van Gogh's extraordinary creative powers from deep within Adding choice supplies from other observers Davidson here weaves his own exact artful tapestry of interpretation producing a suspenseful excursion into the life of van Gogh that offers profound meaning at every turn Finding God in Your World David M.
