Revisioning, Renewing, Rediscovering the Triune Center Derek J. Tidball, Brian S. Harris, Dr Jason S Sexton, 2014-11-10 An international cast of theologians come together in this volume to offer essays in tribute to the late Stanley J Grenz one of the leading theologians of his generation Accordingly the volume includes timely explorations in some of the most exciting areas in contemporary theology It is only fitting that these very explorations revolve around the key motifs of Grenz s theology Trinity community eschatology and the key sources from which he drew for theology s construction Scripture tradition culture While engaging key features seen in Grenz s work some of the essays here interact with Grenz s own writings reflecting on his theological journey and his contributions to evangelical theology In these ways this volume highlights the kind of evangelical theology that so many have experienced in recent years and of which Stan Grenz was a leading proponent Revisioning Renewing Rediscovering the Triune Center then makes a significant contribution to discussions in contemporary theology while itself setting out to honor the life and work of an eminent theologian who did so much for evangelical theology

It Takes a Church to Raise a Christian Tod E. Bolsinger, 2004-04-01 Tod Bolsinger challenges Christians to rediscover the essential nature of God as a Triune community By doing so says Bolsinger the church will recover its vitality as a truly life transforming communion Focusing on daily living issues the book engages writers including John Calvin and Richard Foster Reclaiming a true trinitarian practical theology will allow Christians to reawaken and nourish a spirituality that is communal not merely consumerist or individualistic It will create Christian communities in which God transforms believers together into the likeness of Christ It Takes a Church to Raise a Christian is designed for pastors worship leaders evangelists and other church leaders

In-Between God Stephen Pickard, 2011-12-28 In Between God explores three important areas for contemporary Christianity theology community and discipleship Part One inquires into the rhythms of faith as it interacts with themes of uncertainty and doubt the nature of theological discourse the task of systematic theology evangelism and the various ways in which theology is done Part Two discusses the importance of place in relation to the church and themes of innovation

undecideability and new forms of monastic community Part Three addresses themes in discipleship simplicity mysticism the passions and pilgrimage A red thread connecting these essays is the character of the triune God who is the energy and life in between all things

God's Church-Community David Emerton,2020-07-09 David Emerton argues that Dietrich Bonhoeffer's ecclesial thought breaks open a necessary third way in ecclesiological description between the Scylla of ethnographic ecclesiology and the Charybdis of dogmatic ecclesiology Building on a rigorous and provocative discussion of Bonhoeffer's thought Emerton establishes a programmatic theological grammar for any speech about the church Emerton argues that Bonhoeffer understands the church as a pneumatological and eschatological community in space and time and that his understanding is built on eschatological and pneumatological foundations These foundations in turn give rise to a unique methodological approach to ecclesiological description an approach that enables Bonhoeffer to proffer a genuinely theological account of the church in which both divine and human agency are held together through an account of God the Holy Spirit Emerton proposes that this approach is the perfect remedy for an endemic problem in contemporary accounts of the church that of attending either to the human empirical church community ethnographically or to the life of God dogmatically and to each problematically at the expense of the other This book will act as a clarion call towards genuinely theological ecclesiological speech which is allied to real ecclesial action

Spirit of God Jeffrey W. Barbeau,Beth Felker Jones,2015-03-06 Jeffrey Barbeau and Beth Felker Jones edit thirteen essays on the topic of the Holy Spirit in biblical historical and theological perspective featuring important contributions on the current shape of global Pentecostalism Contributors include Allan Anderson Oliver Crisp Timothy George Kevin Vanhoozer Amos Yong and Geoffrey Wainwright

The Reconciliation of Humanity in Christ Peter Y. Hong,2024-12-10 The Reconciliation of Humanity in Christ is essential reading for Christians who wish to lead and serve the globalized world This book is about theological engagement with globalization Although people are now living in a world in which a universal and inclusive society has emerged the church has remained powerless in uniting peoples nations and civilizations as one in Christ In order for the church to regain its credibility and confidence it must address three theological issues social justice religious pluralism and ethics and the missional method The rationale for this book is that the power of true religion becomes evident in the world when all Christians are engaging with globalization to reconcile humanity with God and with each other in preparation for the consummation of God's kingdom In response to the problems of globalization Christians can become agents of renewal for globalization by administering God's grace and peace for humanity This book will educate and equip the readers to engage with the issues of globalization in the public arena Readers will gain a biblical understanding of the church's role in fulfilling God's plan and purpose for humanity through globalization

A Community Called Atonement Scot McKnight,2010-03-01 Over the centuries the church developed a number of metaphors such as penal substitution or the ransom theory to speak about Christ's death on the cross and the theological concept of the atonement Yet too often says Scot McKnight Christians have held to the supremacy of one metaphor over against the others to their detriment He argues instead that to plumb the rich theological depths of the atonement we must consider all the metaphors of atonement and ask whether they each serve a larger purpose A Community Called Atonement is a constructive theology that not only values the church's atonement metaphors but also asserts that the atonement fundamentally shapes the life of the Christian and of the church That is Christ identifies with humans to call us into a community that reflects God's love the church but that community then has the responsibility to offer God's love to others through missional practices of justice and fellowship living out its life together as the story of God's reconciliation Scot McKnight thus offers an accessible thought provoking theology of atonement that engages the concerns of those in the emerging church conversation and will be of interest to all those in the church and academy who are listening in

Dancing with God Karen Baker-Fletcher, 2006-12-01 Dancing With God is an exploration of the divine gifts of courage and grace in the face of evil Moreover it is a doctrine of God as the source of that courage Baker Fletcher presents an understanding of the work of the Trinity with regard to the problem of crucifixion a metaphor she uses for unnecessary violence She develops a process of relational womanist theology that considers the empathetic omnipresence of God in the midst of unnecessary suffering and the healing power of God in movement of the Holy Spirit She engages the contributions of a diversity of theologians like Paul Tillich Karl Barth Gordon Kaufman John Cobb Jr Majorie Suchocki Charles Hartshorne Andrew Sung Park and Katie Cannon in her discussion of the dance of the Trinity in creation and the problem of sin evil and suffering Through creative works like that of Alice Walker's The Color Purple and journalist Joyce King's account of the James Byrd Jr murder in Jasper County Texas Baker Fletcher reveals the healing encouraging power of the Holy Spirit in the lives of survivors of unnecessary violence

The Church and the Crisis of Community Theresa F. Latini, 2011 Contemporary society is in crisis its structures broken and fragmented and its people overstimulated overstressed and thirsty for true communion with the sacred and with one another Yet although more than eighty five percent of congregations in the United States conduct small group ministry too many of these groups begin with no clear sense of purpose structure or spiritual focus and end by veering away from Christian tradition and unknowingly settling for shallow versions of popular Christianity In The Church and the Crisis of Community Theresa Latini lays out both a theoretical groundwork and a practical guideline for successful small group ministry Examining the latest sociological research and the real life practices of small groups in six congregations she shows how well developed groups those with mission statements leadership training and solid organizational structure can be a truly effective tool in the church's work of transforming broken and shallow forms of community into life giving life sustaining relationships with God and others
