Theology From The Trenches Reflections On Urban Ministry:

Theology from the Trenches Roger J. Gench, 2014-09-09 While urban pastors devote time and energy to all the typical demands of ministry they also grapple with challenges endemic to city life Achieving a measure of balance amid these competing demands and responsibilities can be daunting Using his experiences as a pastor in urban settings for nearly three decades Roger J Gench offers pastors a close look at the challenges that come from being involved in urban ministry Throughout he integrates memoir sermons and essays on social ministry and reflections on the theology and spirituality of parish life In each chapter Gench offers his own stories and reflections and then invites readers to consider the relevance for their own ministry Urban pastors will not only find themselves relating to Gench s experiences but will also uncover practical help for their ministry

Theology from the Trenches Roger J. Gench, 2014-01-01 If God s way in the world can be described as cruciform and covenantal so can the ministry to which we are summoned in urban settings For urban churches are called to covenant with God and others at the intersection of the places where God is bringing life out to the death tending ways of our urban realities from the introduction

Hopeful Realism in Urban Ministry Barry K. Morris, 2016-05-20 What pray tell does a faithful urban ministry require if not a triadic relationship of prayer justice and hope Could such a theologically conjunctive relationship of prayer justice and hope fortify urban ministry and challenge students and practitioners to ponder and practice beyond the box Frequently justice is collapsed to charity hope into wishful thinking or temporarily arrested despair and prayer a grasp at quick fix interventions An urban ministry s steadfast public and prophetic witness longs for the depth and width of this triad Via three countries decades of endeavors one chapter brainstorms urban ministry practices while another s literature survey signals crucial convictions Amid many seminal theologians are summoned to ground urban ministry intimations and implications Niebuhr on justice Moltmann on hope and Merton on contemplative prayer Evident is passion that fuels compassion in the service of justice hope that engages despair and prayer that draws from the contemplative center of it all thankful resources for long haul ministry The triad presses to illumine a concrete ministry s engagement of relentless forced option issues yet with significant networks resourcing Contrast awareness animates endurance The summary exegetes the original grace based serenity prayer Hence hope vitally balances realism s temptation to cynicism Realism saves hope from irrelevancy

A Faithful Public-Prophetic Witness Barry K. Morris, 2020-03-20 This book hails from decades of challenging trial and error work abundant reading and an enduring obligation to ministers activists and unsung lay heroes whose legacies matter As there is little that actually addresses the elusive meanings if not the dangers inherent in pursuing alleged spoils of success it is kairos time Seemingly scarce resources and competition to make and maintain ministries in the city challenge those of us in the field or on the sidelines to speak write and communicate clearly and convincingly not only for ourselves and our people past and present but for those who come along soon to receive the baton or wear the mantle Concretely narrated with unique case studies a cast of dozens contribute their earthy earnest testimonies and are at long last energetically affirmed Specifically this work proffers constructive attention to the critical cautions concerning subtle temptations to succeed including commodification cooptation communalism clientelism and cowardice and not bailing on fierce charity justice tensions with benevolence protectively dominant Narrative analysis and biography as theology social ethics biblical theology and recent church history give apt attention to how a compelling case is possible for success if justice is practiced given a hopeful realism and perspective of prophetic eschatology

Scholars Reading Romans 1 with Daniel Patte James P. Grimshaw, 2022-08-25 A creative collection of essays that introduces critiques and dialogues with Daniel Patte's ground breaking work Romans Three Exegetical Interpretations and the History of Reception Volume 1 Romans 1 1 32 T T Clark 2018 Nine scholars from different cultural and methodological perspectives engage with Patte's work critique his methodology and ethic of interpretation and develop alternative readings The first part introduces the format of Patte's book and the three historical interpretations forensic covenantal and realized apocalyptic Part two debates methodology and ethical responsibility The third part focuses on Romans 1 16 18 and 1 26 27 and includes a Confucian Chinese reading and a call for joint biblical and social science research on the role of Romans in current public policy debates The final part includes a chapter on pedagogy regarding how Patte's book can be used in the classroom The final chapter is a powerful description by Patte himself of the various life experiences that shaped his reading of Romans This book is a critical and communal conversation with Patte on the history of reception of Romans 1 and an example of the necessity of conversations among diverse interpreters that as Patte says reflect the diversity of the modes of our human experience

Romans: Three Exegetical Interpretations and the History of Reception Daniel Patte, 2018-07-26 In the first of a three volume work Daniel Patte presents three very different critical exegeses of Romans 1 arguing that all are equally legitimate and hermeneutically plausible By expanding upon and respecting the exegeses of many erudite scholars of the last two centuries Patte concludes that three families of vastly different critical interpretations are fully justified traditional philological and epistolary studies rhetorical and sociocultural studies and figurative studies of the coherence of Paul's teaching Arising from a long standing interdisciplinary investigation of many receptions of Romans in light of recent diversification of exegetical methodologies Patte concludes that the interpretation of a scriptural text necessarily involves making a choice among equally legitimate and plausible alternatives and second that this choice is always contextual and ethical When these points are denied by failing to respect the interpretations of others and absolutizing one's interpretation instead of being a scriptural blessing Romans becomes a deadly weapon against others heretics Jews Shoah and many others The result is a threefold commentary of Romans 1 that is unique in its scope and thorough going exegesis

Urban Ministry Ronald E. Peters, 2011-07-01 A comprehensive introduction to the particular challenges and opportunities of congregational ministry in urban settings Urban ministry has long been a part of seminary curricula but a basic and definitive understanding of what students should know as they prepare for congregational ministry in the city has remained elusive Too often it is assumed that the theological resources developed for ministry in other settings are adequate for urban ministry but these resources fail to account for the unique challenges and opportunities of the urban setting Ronald Peters clarifies the nature of urban ministry as a theological discipline by showing how its core values of love justice community and reconciliation among others engage the issues of economics education family life public health ethnic relations and religious life in the urban environment Arguing that the city has always served as an arena of God s activity Peters articulates a theological rationale for urban ministry that is both hopeful and yet realistic affirming that God loves the city and its people and encouraging practitioners to do the same Majority World Theology Gene L. Gench, 2020-10-29 This volume explores the essential relationship between spirituality and activism in conversation with a political theology of the cross The author contends that contemplative practice and activism bear the same cruciform footprint and are integrally connected for the cross of Jesus Christ reveals both the brokenness in our lives and the corresponding brokenness in the world it also discloses the God who is always and already bringing resurrection and life out of the death tending ways of our world The cross and resurrection expose other crosses large and small that litter the landscape of our world and of our personal and corporate lives as well as places where God s resurrecting power is at work bringing life out of death and establishing footholds for the unfolding of the new creation The volume engages Paul s Letter to the Galatians and new scholarly readings of it as a rich resource for reflection on these matters and explores the fruit of the Spirit as political virtues that empower communal participation in God s restorative work in the world Providing new angles of vision on both the cross and the apostle Paul the book expands and enlivens reflection on spirituality and activism as profound and generative resources for contemporary faith and practice Seek the Peace of the City Eldin Villafañe, 1995 This volume extends a summons to today s churches to give primacy once again to urban ministry Villafane lays out a vision of a church that unlike the trend today refuses to retreat from the challenges of city life
