Victor Turner And Contemporary Cultural Performance:

Victor Turner and Contemporary Cultural Performance Graham St. John, 2008 In the twenty years following Victor Turner's death interventions on the interconnected performance modes of play drama and community dimensions of which Turner deemed the limen and experimental and analytical forays into the anthropologies of experience and consciousness have complemented and extended Turnerian readings on the moments and sites of culture's becoming Examining Turner's continued relevance in performance and popular culture pilgrimage and communitas as well as Edith Turner's role the contributors reflect on the wide application of Victor Turner's thought to cultural performance in the early twenty-first century and explore how Turner's ideas have been re-engaged renovated and repurposed in studies of contemporary cultural performance Lamentations in Ancient and Contemporary Cultural Contexts Nancy C. Lee, Carleen Mandolfo, 2008

Personal tragedy and communal catastrophe up to the present day are universal human experiences that call forth lament Lament singers from the most ancient civilizations to traditional oral poets to the biblical psalmists and poets of Lamentations to popular singers across the globe have always raised the cry of human suffering giving voice to the voiceless illuminating injustice or pleading for divine help This volume gathers an international collection of essays on biblical lament and Lamentations illuminating their genres artistry purposes and significant place in the history and theologies of ancient Israel It also explores lament across cultures both those influenced by biblical traditions and those not as the practices of composition performance and interpretation of life's suffering continue to shed light on our knowledge of biblical lament From publisher's description The Slain God Timothy Larsen, 2014 This book is a history of the relationship between the discipline of anthropology and the Christian faith It explores how leading anthropologists have come to believe that ethnographic findings and evidence made Christianity no longer tenable Betwixt and Between Liminality and

Marginality Zohar Hadromi-Allouche, Michael Hubbard MacKay, 2023-03-20 Betwixt and Between Liminality and Marginality Mind the Gap offers an interdisciplinary thinking on the marginal within society Using the framework of Victor Turner's earlier notions of liminality the book both challenges Turner's symbolic anthropology and celebrates its continued influence across disciplines and under new theoretical constraints Liminality in its simplest forms provides language for meaningful approaches to articulate transition and change It also represents complex social theories beyond Turner's classical symbolic approach While demonstrating the enduring relevance of Turner's language for expressing transition this volume keeps an eye toward the validity of critiques against him It thus theorizes with Turner's work while updating even abandoning some of his primary ideas when applying it to contemporary social issues A central focus of this volume is marginality Turner recognized that marginals like liminars are betwixt and between however they lack assurance that their ambiguity will be resolved This volume explores the dialogic relationship of space and agency to recognize marginal groups and people and inquire without a harmonious resolution what happens to the marginals Have race class gender and sexual orientation become the space for thinking about reintegration and communitas Each chapter examines how marginal groups or liminal spaces and ideas destabilize shape and affect the dominant culture

An Anthropology of Making in Santa Clara del Cobre Michele Avis Feder-Nadoff, 2024-05-27 This book introduced with a Foreword by Tim Ingold offers a nuanced reflection on the meaning of making and artisan agency demonstrating how copper smithing produces not only objects but also lives worlds meanings and social transformation Through long term ethnography grounded in apprenticeship to master coppersmith Jes s P rez Ornelas Feder Nadoff s intimate description of communal and artisanal life in Santa Clara del Cobre Michoac n M xico provides a critical reappraisal of aesthetics and compelling ways to think about how aura and agency are produced By mapping flows and frictions between persons places and things this study closes the gap between economic and socio political analysis of craft on the one hand and aesthetic material and phenomenological studies of making on the other Although craft historically plays a prominent national even ideological role in Mexico as in many countries most artisans ironically remain absent often living in marginalized precarious circumstances By tracing the cycles of life death and afterlife of these maker protagonists their bodies of knowledge skilled performances and objects this poetic monograph testifies to their presence

Citizens' Media Against Armed Conflict Clemencia Rodríguez, Citizens media countering

armed conflict and rebuilding community in Colombia Posthuman Buddhism and the Digital Self Les Roberts, 2023-09-20

In Posthuman Buddhism and the Digital Self Les Roberts extends his earlier work on spatial anthropology to consider questions of time spaciousness and the phenomenology of self. Across the book's four main chapters which range from David Bowie's long-standing interest in Buddhism to street photography of 1980s Liverpool to the ambient soundscapes of Derek Jarman's Blue or to the slow contemplative cinema of Tsai Ming Liang Roberts lays the groundwork for the concept of dwellspace as a means by which to unpick the shifting spatial temporal and experiential modalities of everyday mediascapes. Understood as a particular disposition towards time Roberts's foray into dwellspace proceeds from a Pascalian reflection on the self non self in which being content in an empty room vies with the demands of having content in an empty room. Taking the idea of posthuman Buddhism as a heuristic lens Roberts sets in motion a number of interrelated lines of enquiry that prompt renewed focus on questions of boredom distraction and reverie and cast into sharper relief the psychosocial and creative affordances of ambience spaciousness and slowness. The book argues that the colonisation of empty time by 24/7 digital capitalism has gone hand in hand with the growth of the corporate mindfulness industry and with it the co-option commodification and digitisation of dwellspace. Posthuman Buddhism is thus in part an exploration of the dialectics of dwellspace that orbits around a creative self praxis rooted in the negation and dissolution of the self one of the foundational cornerstones of Buddhist theory and practice.

Theory in Social and Cultural Anthropology R. Jon McGee, Richard L. Warms, 2013-08-28

Social and cultural anthropology and archaeology are rich subjects with deep connections in the social and physical sciences. Over the past 150 years the subject matter and different theoretical perspectives have expanded so greatly that no single individual can command all of it. Consequently both advanced students and professionals may be confronted with theoretical positions and names of theorists with whom they are only partially familiar if they have heard of them at all. Students in particular are likely to turn to the web to find quick background information on theorists and theories. However most web based information is inaccurate and/or lacks depth. Students and professionals need a source to provide a quick overview of a particular theory and theorist with just the basics the who what where how and why. In response SAGE Reference is publishing the two volume Theory in Social and Cultural Anthropology: An Encyclopedia. Features Benefits Two volumes containing approximately 335 signed entries provide users with the most authoritative and thorough reference resource available on anthropology theory both in terms of breadth and depth of coverage. To ease navigation between and among related entries a Reader's Guide groups entries thematically and each entry is followed by Cross References. In the electronic version the Reader's Guide combines with the Cross References and a detailed Index to provide robust search and browse capabilities. An appendix with a Chronology of Anthropology Theory allows students to easily chart directions and trends in thought and theory from early times to the present. Suggestions for Further Reading at the end of each entry and a Master Bibliography at the end guide readers to sources for more detailed research and discussion.
