The Year Of The Runaways A Novel:

The Year of the Runaways Sunjeev Sahota, 2016-03-29 Short listed for the 2015 Man Booker Prize The Guardian The Best Novels of 2015 The Independent Literary Fiction of the Year 2015 From one of Granta's Best of Young British Novelists and Man Booker Prize nominee Sunjeev Sahota a sweeping urgent contemporary epic set against a vast geographical and historical canvas astonishing for its richness and texture and scope and for the utter immersiveness of its reading experience Three young men and one unforgettable woman come together in a journey from India to England where they hope to begin something new to support their families to build their futures to show their worth to escape the past They have almost no idea what awaits them In a dilapidated shared house in Sheffield Tarlochan a former rickshaw driver will say nothing about his life in Bihar Avtar and Randeep are middle class boys whose families are slowly sinking into financial ruin bound together by Avtar's secret Randeep in turn has a visa wife across town whose cupboards are full of her husband's clothes in case the immigration agents surprise her with a visit She is Narinder and her story is the most surprising of them all The Year of the Runaways unfolds over the course of one shattering year in which the destinies of these four characters become irreversibly entwined a year in which they are forced to rely on one another in ways they never could have foreseen and in which their hopes of breaking free of the past are decimated by the punishing realities of immigrant life A novel of extraordinary ambition and authority about what it means and what it costs to make a new life about the capaciousness of the human spirit and the resurrection of tenderness and humanity in the face of unspeakable suffering The Year of the Runaways Sunjeev Sahota, 2016 Originally published in Great Britain by Picador an imprint of Pan Macmillan London in 2015

Encyclopedic Dictionary of Diasporic Indian English Writing Manju Jaidka, Tej N. Dhar, Natasha Vashisht, 2025-05-15 The Handbook of Diasporic Indian Writing in English is an essential reference to Indian literature It features alphabetical entries of Indian writers who have bridged the gap between cultures and redefined language boundaries As the field of diasporic writing continues to expand and intersect with various branches of English and Cultural studies it anticipates a growing market It offers a unique and compelling perspective on the global tapestry of literature It draws on various interdisciplinary approaches including postcolonial theory cultural studies and digital humanities to offer fresh and innovative perspectives on the literature It is an indispensable resource for research scholars of literary studies and related disciplines like cultural studies and postcolonial studies Rewriting the North Chloe Ashbridge, 2023-05-15 This book shows how twenty first century writing about Northern England imagines alternative democratic futures for the region and the English nation signalling the growing awareness of England as a distinct and variegated political formation In 2016 the Brexit vote intensified ongoing constitutional tensions throughout the UK which have been developing since the devolution of Scotland Wales and Northern Ireland in 1997 At the same time British devolution developed a distinctively cultural registration as a surrogate for parliamentary representation and an attempt to disrupt the status of London as Britain's cultural epicentre

Rewriting the North shifts this debate in a new direction examining Northern literary preoccupation with devolution's constitutional implications Through close readings of six contemporary authors Sunjeev Sahota Sarah Hall Anthony Cartwright Adam Thorpe Fiona Mozley and Sarah Moss this book argues that literary engagement with the North emphasises regional devolution's limited constitutional charge calling instead for an urgent abandonment of the British centralised state form

Diaspora and Literary Studies Angela Naimou, 2023-08-10 Diaspora is an ancient term that gained broad new significance in the twentieth century At its simplest diaspora refers to the geographic dispersion of a people from a common originary space to other sites It pulls together ideas of people movement memory and home but also troubles them In this volume established and newer scholars provide fresh explorations of diaspora for twenty first century literary studies The volume re-examines major diaspora origin stories theorizes diaspora through its conceptual intimacies and entanglements and analyzes literary and visual cultural texts to reimagine the genres genders and genealogies of diaspora Literary mappings move across Africa the Americas Middle East Asia Europe and Pacific Islands and through Atlantic Pacific Mediterranean Gulf and Indian waters Chapters reflect on diaspora as a key concept for migration postcolonial global comparative race environmental gender and queer studies The volume is thus an accessible and provocative account of diaspora as a vital resource for literary studies in a bordered world

Magical Realism in Twenty-First-Century Transnational Fiction D. Chichester, 2025-09-25 Magical Realism in Twenty First Century Transnational Fiction The Global Supernatural offers a much needed re evaluation of magical realism moving beyond traditional postcolonial frameworks to explore its vibrant evolution in the 21st century Analysing the works of contemporary authors like Helen Oyeyemi Mohsin Hamid Preeta Samarasan and Junot Diaz this book explores how magical realism has been adapted to depict the complex fluid identities and experiences of migrants and their children in a globalised world By employing the psychoanalytic concept of relationality it examines the intricate interplay between cultures beliefs and personal narratives Challenging outdated notions of magic versus realism this study reveals how the supernatural is used to express the disorientation paradox and trauma of transnational lives This book is essential for anyone seeking to understand the enduring creative power of magical realism

The Working Class and Twenty-First-Century British Fiction Phil O'Brien, 2019-12-05 The Working Class and Twenty First Century British Fiction looks at how the twenty first century British novel has explored contemporary working class life Studying the works of David Peace Gordon Burn Anthony Cartwright Ross Raisin Jenni Fagan and Sunjeev Sahota the book shows how they have mapped the shift from deindustrialisation through to stigmatization of individuals and communities who have experienced profound levels of destabilization and unemployment O'Brien argues that these novels offer ways of understanding fundamental aspects of contemporary capitalism for the working class in modern Britain including class struggle inequality trauma social abjection racism and stigmatization exclusively looking at British working class literature of the twenty first century

The Limits of Cosmopolitanism Aleksandar Stevic, Philip Tsang, 2019-02-13 This book examines the limits of cosmopolitanism in contemporary literature In a world in which engagement with strangers is no longer optional and in which the ubiquitous demands of globalization clash with resurgent localist and nationalist sentiments cosmopolitanism is no longer merely a horizon broadening aspiration but a compulsory order of things to which we are all conscripted Focusing on literary texts from such diverse locales as England Algeria Sweden former Yugoslavia and the Sudan the essays in this collection interrogate the tensions and impasses in our prison house of cosmopolitanism

Multiculturalism in Contemporary British South Asian Fiction Anas Galet M. Alhaisony, 2025-09-30 This book explores the multifaceted themes of home belonging and multiculturalism in contemporary British South Asian fiction Through detailed literary analysis of novels by authors such as Nadeem Aslam Gautam Malkani and Kamila Shamsie this work delves into how these narratives reflect and interrogate the complex interplay of race class and identity in the context of modern Britain Drawing on theoretical frameworks from cultural studies and postcolonial theory the project examines the role of literature in shaping public perceptions of multicultural identities and provides new insights into how British South Asian literature responds to and reshapes contemporary socio political events like Brexit and the 2011 England riots This study aims to offer a critical re evaluation of the concept of multiculturalism moving beyond traditional discussions of diaspora and hybridity to explore more nuanced interpretations of cultural integration and identity formation

Translocality in Contemporary City Novels Lena Mattheis, 2021-03-19 Translocality in Contemporary City Novels responds to the fact that twenty first century Anglophone novels are increasingly characterised by translocality the layering and blending of two or more distant settings Considering translocal and transcultural writing as a global phenomenon this book draws on multidisciplinary research from globalisation theory to the study of narratives to urban studies to explore a corpus of thirty two novels by authors such as Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Dionne Brand Kiran Desai and Xiaolu Guo set in a total of ninety seven cities Lena Mattheis examines six of the most common strategies used in contemporary urban fiction to make translocal experiences of the world narratable and turn them into relatable stories simultaneity palimpsests mapping scaling non places and haunting Combining and developing further theories approaches and techniques from a variety of research fields including narratology human geography transculturality diaspora spaces and postcolonial perspectives Mattheis develops a set of cross disciplinary techniques in literary urban studies
