Theatre for Living David Diamond, Fritjof Capra, 2008-07-25 Winner of the 2008 American Alliance for Theatre and Education Book of Distinction Award Theatre is a primal language that used to be spoken by everyone everyone included the living community Weaving together Systems Theory and the groundbreaking work of Fritjof Capra Theatre of the Oppressed and the revolutionary work of Augusto Boal and his own 25 years of practical experience in community based popular theatre David Diamond creates a silo busting book that embraces the complexity of real life Some of the questions Theatre for Living asks and attempts to answer From a perspective of biology and sociology how is a community a living thing How do we design a theatre practice to consciously work with living communities to help them tell their stories How do we accomplish this without demonizing those characters with whom we disagree Must we constantly do battle to defeat an endless stream of oppressors or can we imagine a world in which we stop creating them Why is this important What should we be on the look out for both positive and negative when doing this work What practical games and exercises can we use to awaken group consciousness Who will be interested in Theatre for Living Artists community development workers educators activists people working in social services mediation and conflict resolution health care professionals anyone with an interest in finding new ways to approach the intersection of culture and social justice I greatly admire the achievements of David Diamond and his Headlines Theatre He is following his own path doing extraordinary and groundbreaking work in several fields like his work with many First Nations communities in Canada and the US and his adaptation of Forum Theatre on TV and on the Internet This book relates the experiences of his life in theatre For what he has already done is doing and certainly will do David Diamond deserves all our support Augusto Boal founder of Theatre of the Oppressed author of Theatre of the Oppressed Rainbow of Desire and Legislative Theatre David Diamonds work has been an inspiration to performers artists community leaders throughout Canada and beyond The ideas in Theatre for Living are large daring challenging but the steps by which Diamond follows and implements the ideas are precise and accessible As I read I found myself being taken further and further into the life that is both theatre and the making of theatre which is to say I was led into how life can be given its meaning Hugh Brody anthropologist and film maker author of Maps And Dreams Living Arctic and The Other Side of Eden

Plurality of Peaces in Legal Action Catalina Vallejo, 2012 This book offers an application of the transnational model of interpretation of peace

into the area of legal studies By building on the idea that there are various and many times contradictory interpretations of peace in history and culture this book examines how these many forms of peace interplay in legal spheres shaping legal discourses and practices concretely those concerning the exercise of rights By arguing that different perspectives on peace influence different argumentations of rights the book challenges some of the political and legal discourses framed within the war against terror since 2001 and the resulting militarization of the Colombian society and its rights discourses Series Masters of Peace Vol 7 Creativity and Community among Autism-Spectrum Youth Peter Smagorinsky,2016-12-10 This edited volume explores the roles of socially channeled play and performance in the developmental trajectories of young people who fall on the autism spectrum The contributors offer possibilities for channels of activity through which youth on the autism spectrum may find acceptance affirmation and kinship with others Positive social updraft characterizes the social channels through which people of difference might be swept up into broader cultural currents such that they feel valued appreciated and empowered A social updraft provides cultural meditational means that include people in a current headed upward allowing people of atypical makeups to become fully involved in significant cultural activity that brings them a feeling of social belonging The Gendered Subaltern and the Urban Theatre Space Shuchi Sharma,Bhawna Singh,2022-03-30 The dilemma of the gendered subaltern is vital as the group s struggle may consist of layers of oppressed states vis vis gender class caste and race resulting in multiple levels of marginalization This volume provides a voice to the literary discourse of gendered identity crises and politics represented and analysed through theoretical and theatrical interventions It underscores how the body becomes a site of identity oppression and resistance and interrogates the notions of identity family structure and society It further entails discussion on the role of participatory theatre and street performance practices and their changing conventions in the urban theatre space As such the volume brings together new and innovative research on the representation of the concerns of the gendered subaltern in urban theatrical spaces and will appeal to young scholars academicians and practitioners in varied disciplines ranging across the humanities social sciences and performance studies A guide to resource materials, for anti-poverty and community groups, on social analysis and linking practice and policy,1998 Theatre of the Oppressed Augusto Boal,2019-03-20 Augusto Boal saw theatre as a mirror to the world one that we can reach into to change our reality This book The Theatre of the Oppressed is the foundation to Forum Theatre a popular radical form practised across the world Boal s techniques allowed the people to reclaim theatre providing forums through which they could imagine and enact social and political change Rejecting the Aristotelian ethic which he believed allowed the State to remain unchallenged he broke down the wall between actors and audience the two sides coming together the audience becoming the spect actors Written in 1973 while in exile from the Brazilian government after the military coup d etat this is a work of subversion and liberation which shows that only the oppressed are able to free themselves An Outburst of Frankness Sandy Fitzgerald,2004 No further information has been provided for this title Arts and Cultural Education in a Challenging and Changing World Tanja Klepacki, Edwin van Meerkerk, Tone Pernille Østern, 2025-04-26 This book is motivated by questions of how arts and cultural education like all other fields are affected by and together with other fields can contribute to global developments challenges and shifts However difficult the times arts and culture in educational contexts have the ambition to make a positive contribution and foster creativity empathy and inclusion to encourage critical change innovation and peace But if arts and cultural education remains traditional unchallenged and exclusive those ambitions for critical change towards more inclusive practices that dare to act and make a change in the world run the risk of remaining utopian rhetoric It is time for a critical self examination and willingness to change powers and privileges also within arts and cultural education Against this background this book presents brave research on arts and cultural education that offers insight into the conditions contexts effects of and critical changes needed within arts and cultural education It addresses our time s great changes challenges and possibilities for innovation The Improviser's Classroom Daniel Fischlin, Mark Lomanno, 2025-01-17 The Improviser's Classroom foregrounds how improvisation can facilitate the emergence of pedagogical approaches in which research performance and activism are interactive and cross referential while challenging orthodoxies of educational practice and institutional mandate The Othering Museum Carrie Westwater, 2024-05-23 The term othering refers to a persistent Us and Them dynamic between museums and their participating public To reframe this historically paternalistic subject positioning over the last decade or so many museums have made firm attempts to address this by attempting to move from being providers of engagements to facilitating access to cultural right by embedding co curatorial techniques and participation Through the analysis of three co curated participatory case studies this book examines how power performs in co curatorial museum practice It discusses how it is not just how the participatory process is enacted that is necessary to create this shift to a more socially just profile but systemic pressures of vulnerability and responsibility found in the political economy of the museum and its participants This book will chart how this dynamic performs in museums when working with different groups of people such as volunteers community participants and professional artists presented with differing levels of co curatorial decision making The book further investigates whether performances of power are relational to who the participants are how the processes of participation are constructed and where the participation takes place what language is used when conducting these relationships and what the funded institutional responsibilities do to the co curators the community and museum staff when traditional co curation and co curation in transition to non selective curation is applied Grounding this discussion is the development of this test method of non selective curation which further illuminates some of these challenges and aims to successfully mitigate them through a radically open and inclusive approach to co curation T-Group Facilitation Lalitha Iyer, Sankarasubramanyan Ramamoorthy, 2022-09-30 This book offers the core conceptual base for the practice of T Group facilitation Drawing from the fields of psychology social psychology sociology diversity studies and Indian philosophical thoughts this book is a great resource for enhancing the practice of T Group facilitation for both budding and established facilitators. It covers a wide range of theories on human development, self-awareness, interpersonal interactions, groups and change. Individual and group identities, diversity, inclusion, and social hierarchies are explored in detail here. The authors offer a model of T Group facilitation based on 50 years of experience within the Indian Society for Applied Behavioural Science (ISABS). This model is useful not only for fellow practitioners of T Groups but also for anyone engaged in facilitating groups, organizations, and communities globally. This book helps one to reflect, develop, and sharpen one's competencies, values, and ethics in this field. The chapters are embedded with activities, quizzes, case studies, and exercises to facilitate a deeper understanding of the various elements used in the book. This book will be of interest to students, teachers, and practitioners of psychology, social psychology, management studies, and organizational development. It will also be useful for T Group facilitators, facilitators of experiential groups, and related fields.

Theater zum Leben David Diamond, 2015-10-01. Das Theater zum Leben (Theatre for Living) des kanadischen Theatermachers David Diamond entwickelte sich aus dem Theater der Unterdrückten nach Augusto Boal und lenkt die künstlerisch pädagogische Kraft des Theaters vor dem Hintergrund systemtheoretischer Erkenntnisse in eine Welt jenseits von einfachen Lösungen und geführlichen Trennungen in Gut und Böse. Es greift die Grundlagen Paulo Freires auf, adaptiert die Methoden Augusto Boals für die Herausforderungen heutiger Gesellschaften und erkennt mit Fritjof Capra die Zusammenhänge lebendiger Systeme, die für ein Leben in einer Gemeinschaft wertvoll sind. Diamonds Buch unterstreicht den Wert des Theaters für einen Dialog zwischen Individuen, zwischen Gruppen und Gemeinschaften aller Art sowie zwischen Kunst und Wissenschaft, und es stellt ein flammendes Plädoyer dar für ein Theater, das nach immer neuen Wegen für ein gelungenes Zusammenleben sucht.

Utopian Drama Siân Adiseshiah, 2022-10-06. Shortlisted for The TaPRA David Bradby Monograph Prize 2023. As the first full-length study to analyse utopian plays in Western drama from antiquity to the present, Utopian Drama: In Search of a Genre offers an illuminating appraisal of the objectives of utopianism as manifested in drama through the ages and carefully ascertains the added value that live performance brings to the persuasion of utopian thought. Siân Adiseshiah scrutinises the distinctive intervention of utopian drama through its examination alongside the utopian prose tradition; in this way, the book establishes new ways of approaching utopian aesthetics and new ways of interpreting utopian drama. This book provides fresh understandings of the generic features of utopian plays, identifies the gains of establishing a new genre, and ascertains ways in which this genre functions as political theatre. Referring to over 40 plays, of which 18 are examined in detail, Utopian Drama traces the emergence of the utopian play in the Western tradition from ancient Greek Comedy to experimental contemporary work. Works discussed in detail include plays by Aristophanes, Margaret Cavendish, George Bernard Shaw, Howard Brenton, Claire MacDonald, Cesi Davidson, and Mojisola Adebayo. As well as offering extended attention to the work of these playwrights, the book reflects on the development of utopian drama through history, notes the persistent features, tropes, and conventions of utopian plays and considers the implications of their registration for both theatre studies and utopian studies
