into the work others approach it through discussion of Petrarch's literary influences and subject matter or through the context of medieval Christianity and culture. The essays on Petrarchism map the poet's influence on the Italian lyric tradition as well as on other national literatures including Spanish, French, English, and Russian.

From Jupiter to Christ Jörg Rüpke (theologian), 2014. Emerging from a decade of research, From Jupiter to Christ demonstrates that the decisive change within the Roman imperial period was not a growing number of religions or changes in their ranking and success but a modification of the idea of religion and a change in the social place of religious practices and beliefs.

The Covenant's Veil Alexandra Sellassie Antohin, 2024-12-03. An exploration of how contemporary Ethiopian Orthodox Christianity preserves and protects sacred ideas and relationships. Ethiopia stretches her hand upon God: the narrative of Sheba and Solomon, the material presence of the Ark of the Covenant in Axum. For Ethiopian Orthodox Christians, these classic understandings of the covenant are prized narratives. For historical and scriptural scholarship, a central focus is to explain the characteristics of Ethiopian Orthodox Christianity as retaining key Old Testament qualities to demonstrate a wide chasm with post-Enlightenment secular societies. By widening the lens of analysis to include a body of knowledge best accessed through Orthodox Christian devotional culture, The Covenant's Veil offers an interpretation that challenges the reader to adopt a novel understanding of these well-established ideas. The multiple, complex ways that the covenant idea appears as idioms, customs, symbols, and articulations in the lifeworld of Ethiopian Orthodox are the starting point for The Covenant's Veil. Ethiopia's story of the covenant is a domain of nested reference points that inspires celebrants through their devotional activities to expand and elaborate upon a network of meanings. Covenant refractions within Ethiopian Orthodox devotional culture not only demonstrate the established pattern of magnifying spiritual importance through symbolic similes and analogic pairings but perform a vital function for keeping traditional knowledge alive and current. Detailed ethnographic material arranges devotional activities such as mahaber rituals of communing and processions of tabots on feast days. It describes habits of making vows, presenting oneself at church, and telling stories of saints and their covenants. Thinking about the covenant concept as refracting the bending motion of points encountering a common surface is a way to conceive how these reference points reveal a connective thread. What is theorized as an Ethiopian Orthodox method of elaboration. Identifying when and where elaboration of tradition is happening provides an opportunity to demonstrate how Orthodox Christianity is integral to the lives and actions of its faithful. By reframing covenant as expanding beyond Ethiopian religious and political exceptionalism, The Covenant's Veil provides us with a timely reappraisal of this concept in light of increased social fragmentation and the urgency for negotiating harmony in a country with many forms of diversity.

Franz Rosenzweig's Conversions Benjamin Pollock, 2014-08-12. Barash,2020-09-01 Threats is a comprehensive and scientifically accurate exploration into threats at every level from animalistic competition to social manipulation and political strife New Directions in the Study of Women in the Greco-Roman World Ronnie Ancona,Georgia Tsouvala,2021-02-11 This edited volume showcases new scholarship in the study of women in Greco Roman antiquity Covering a wide range of time periods and utilizing a variety of approaches the essays will help readers to see women in antiquity with fresh eyes and to view anew important issues related to women today David Martin and the Sociology of Religion Hans Joas,2018-06-14 David Martin is a pioneer of a political sociology of religion that integrates a combined analysis of nationalism and political religions with the history of religion He was one of the first critics of the so called secularization thesis and his historical orientation makes him one of the few outstanding scholars who have continued the work begun by Max Weber and Emile Durkheim This collection provides the first scholarly overview of his hugely influential work and includes a chapter written by David Martin himself Starting with an introduction that contextualises David Martin s theories on the sociology of religion both currently and historically this volume aims to cover David Martin s lifework in its entirety An international panel of contributors sheds new light on his studies of particular geographical areas Britain Latin America Scandinavia and on certain systematic fields secularization violence music Pentecostalism the relation between sociology and theology David Martin s concluding chapter addresses the critical points raised in response to his theories This book addresses one of the key figures in the development of the sociology of religion and as such it will be of great interest to all scholars of the sociology of religion
