Theological Fragments Essays In Unsystematic Theology:

Theological Fragments Duncan B. Forrester, 2005-12 This book of essays hopes to show that there is an important place today for a modest and unsystematic theology consisting of theological fragments rather than some grand theory These theological fragments arise from and relate to specific situations problems contexts and communities Here Duncan Forrester asks What do the practices of Christian worship have to teach us about ethics How can a word of reconciliation be heard in Northern Ireland How do Dachau and the Rwanda genocide affect how we understand the Church Are the modern mass media a threat or an opportunity for Christian communication Duncan B Forrester is Emeritus Professor of Christian Ethics and Practical Theology in the University of Edinburgh Scotland Forrester on Christian Ethics and Practical

Theology Duncan B. Forrester, 2017-05-15 Bringing together articles and chapters from his considerable work in theological ethics India and the social order Duncan Forrester incorporates new writing and introductions to each thematic section to guide readers through this invaluable resource This book offers stimulating studies in three related areas Indian Christianity with particular attention to the caste system contemporary Christian theological ethics and the distinctive and challenging theological approach that Duncan Forrester has developed in relation to public issues such as prisons and punishment welfare provision social justice and poverty

Fragments for Fractured Times Nicola Slee, 2020-09-30 Nicola Slee one of the world's leading feminist practical theologians brings together 15 years of papers articles talks and sermons many of them previously unpublished Drawing on a wide and diverse range of her writing Slee demonstrates the richness and variety of feminist practical theological writing The Lyric Voice in English Theology Elizabeth S. Dodd, 2023-09-21 In this book

Elizabeth S Dodd traces the contours of a lyric theology through the lens of English lyric tradition She addresses the dominance of narrative and drama in contemporary theological aesthetics by drawing on recent developments in lyric theory Informed by the work of critics such as Jonathan Culler Dodd explores the significance of lyric for theological discourse Lyric is presented here as a short musical expressive and personal form that is also fragmentary embodied socially located and performative The main chapters address key moments in English lyric tradition This selective approach aims to expand the theological gaze beyond the monochromatic features of the traditional canon It covers Anglo Saxon hymns medieval lullaby carols early modern sonnets and the prophetic poetry of Romanticism but also Grime and hip hop performance poetry social media poetry and Geoffrey Hill Religion and Ecology in the Public Sphere Celia Deane-Drummond, Heinrich

Bedford-Strohm, 2011-04-28 A collection of essays from top scholars in the field of Religion and Ecology that stimulates the debate about the religious contribution to ecological debate Reformed Humanism David Fergusson, 2024-05-30 The volume comprises a collection of essays ordered in three parts each of which describes broadly the sub fields of theology to which these belong The essays tackle core themes in Christian doctrine the longstanding relationship of theology to philosophy and a series of challenges facing churches today While the volume represents a Reformed theological approach often with a historical focus it self consciously reflects an ecumenical and critical perspective The term humanism reflects an openness to insight understanding and correction from different fields of knowledge while its Reformed designation positions the work within a recognized theological tradition though seeking to avoid imprisonment by it A further feature of the collection is its attempt to overcome the curricular divisions between systematic theology Christian ethics and practical theology The third section in particular deal with issues in social ethics theological aesthetics the place of the church in a secular culture and the role of theology in the university

Pastoral Theology for Public Ministry

Stephen Burns,2015-10-10 What does it mean to be engaged in Christian ministry in a shifting spiritual and religious landscape Stephen Burns invites readers to think anew about the distinctiveness of public practices of pastoral presence Rather than narrowly defining pastoral care and pastoral theology pastoral counseling preaching youth groups visits to elders etc and theological academic categories history pastoral theology liturgy ethics and contemporary sociology he argues for a new imagination and practice of pastoral presence a presence that is representative public integrated and expansive Study guide included The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Practical Theology Bonnie J. Miller-McLemore,2014-01-07 Through a series of essays contributed by leading experts in the field The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Practical Theology presents an introduction to practical theology as a major area of Christian study and practice including an overview of its key developments themes methods and future directions The first comprehensive reference work to provide a survey description and analysis of practical theology as an area of study A range of leading scholars in the field provide original contributions on the major areas issues and figures in practical theology Reviews an extensive range of methods for studying theology in practice along with sub disciplines in theological education such as pastoral care and preaching Covers developments in the discipline in a range of global contexts and distinct Christian traditions Shows how practical theology is relevant to everyday life

Desecularizing the Christian Past

Enrico Beltramini,2025-10-01 The essential objective of this study is to unpack the complicity between historians and secularization theory in the study of late ancient and early medieval Christianity and then suggest a way out In this work of historiography of religion Enrico Beltramini argues that religious history is inherently secular and produces distorted representations of the Christian past He suggests moving from an epistemological to a hermeneutical approach so that the supernatural worldview of the Christian past can be addressed on its own terms This work also engages Markus s saeculum and replaces Markus s secularized relationship between the Kingdom and the government of the civitas with the Augustinian association of the Kingdom and divine government

Feminist Theologies

Stephen Burns,Rebekah Pryor,2023-01-24 This assemblage of feminist theologies represents a series of vital entanglements Chapters are written from different cultures geographies and discourses and brought together around themes as specific and wide ranging as immigration detention hate crime discrimination rites of marriage and partnership and artistic and religious imagination The contributors variously echo celebrate question and contradict each other Despite the complexity and allied as they are with liberation decolonial ecological queer and other theologies these perspectives seek not only to confront and resist the problems oppressions and omissions of hegemonic theologies but also to realize better worlds Pastoral Care for the Incarcerated David Kirk Beedon,2022-11-09 This book explores and formulates a response to the question How best can those held in modern systems of mass incarceration be cared for pastorally when many prisons diminish both hope and humanity Employing the multi disciplinary approach of practical theology this ethnographic enquiry will be a guide for chaplains and all who strive to embody compassion wherever human flourishing is undermined The book s structure follows the pastoral cycle method from practical theology remaining context based and practice focused throughout Pastoral insights are illustrated with personal poetic and movingly reflective material drawn from the lived experience of indeterminately sentenced men who did not know if or when they would be ever released The author a former prison chaplain remains reflexively and humanely present in the text modelling the profound humane regard and pastoral presence that is central to this work This book will take the reader deeply into penal spaces on a journey of both compassion and hope

Asylum-Seeking, Migration and Church Susanna Snyder,2016-04-15 Asylum Seeking Migration and Church addresses one of the most pressing issues confronting contemporary society How are we to engage with migrants Drawing on studies of church engagement with asylum seekers in the UK and critical immigration and refugee issues in North America Snyder presents an extended theological reflection on both the issue of asylum seeking and the fears of established populations surrounding immigration This book outlines ways in which churches are currently supporting asylum seekers encouraging closer engagement with people seen as other and more thoughtful responses to newcomers Creatively exploring biblical and theological traditions surrounding the stranger Snyder argues that as well as practising a vision of inclusive community churches would do well to engage with established population fears Trends in global migration and the dynamics of fear and hostility surrounding immigration are critically and creatively explored throughout the book Inviting more complex nuanced responses to asylum seekers and immigrants this book offers invaluable insights to those interested in Christian ethics practical theology social work mission and faith and social action as well as those working in the field of migration

Christianity and the Law of Migration Silas W. Allard,Kristin Heyer,Raj Nadella,2021-09-05 This collection brings together legal scholars and Christian theologians for an interdisciplinary conversation responding to the challenges of global migration Gathering 14 leading scholars from both law and Christian theology the book covers legal perspectives theological perspectives and key concepts in migration studies In Part 1 scholars of migration law and policy discuss the legal landscape of migration at both the domestic and international level In Part 2 Christian theologians ethicists and biblical scholars draw on the resources of the Christian tradition to think about migration In Part 3 each chapter is co authored by a scholar of law and a scholar of Christian theology who bring their respective resources and perspectives into conversation on key themes within migration studies The work provides a truly interdisciplinary introduction to the topic of migration for those who are new to the subject an opportunity for immigration lawyers and legal scholars to engage Christian theology an opportunity for pastors and Christian theologians to engage law and new insights on key frameworks for scholars who are already committed to the study of migration

Corruption Mocking at Justice Alfred Sebahene, 2017-09-30 The church has a duty to fight corruption and injustice The increased awareness globally of corruption and the threat it poses to humanity has led many in the secular and Christian world to seek solutions to stamp out this scourge Recognizing the crisis caused by corruption in Tanzania his own country Dr Alfred Sebahene seeks to understand this social epidemic through the application of theological ethics As a result of the study the author identifies theological ethical guidelines that inform and add substance to the church's duty in the public sphere particularly in the fight against corruption and injustice

Let Your Voice Be Heard Joan Hebert Reisinger, 2012-10-08 People are moving to the margins of the Catholic Church As one dialogue partner states I left the Church to beat the rush Yet another remarks I just wonder I have to ask who's on the margins I'm not sure Let Your Voice Be Heard details original practical theology research that endeavors to understand the dynamics on the margins of the Roman Catholic Church in dialogue with fifty dialogue partners from across the United States Practical theology the theology of marginality of Jung Young Lee reciprocal ethnography and the communication theory of Mikhail Bakhtin join in a cross disciplinary dialogue In conversation with dialogue partners Joan Hebert Reisinger seeks the reasons why Catholics over the age of twenty one who were once active and involved in the Catholic Church find themselves on the margins of the Church and how they understand their own marginality The dialogue partners speak of new ways of being Church emerging on the margins This emerging Church is marked by inclusive relationships that include dialogue that does not seek agreement or consensus a critical and thoughtful recalling of memories and narratives of the Catholic faith tradition and appropriation of these in new and creative ways

The Cambridge Companion to Christian Ethics Robin Gill, 2012 Twenty essays providing an authoritative introduction to Christian ethics addressing issues such as war social justice ecology sexuality and medicine

Animal Ethics and the Nonconformist Conscience Philip J. Sampson, 2018-08-24 This book explores the religious language of Nonconformity used in ethical debates about animals It uncovers a rich stream of innovative discourse from the Puritans of the seventeenth century through the Clapham Sect and Evangelical Revival to the nineteenth century debates about vivisection This discourse contributed to law reform and the foundation of the RSPCA and continues to flavour the way we talk about animal welfare and animal rights today Shaped by the nonconformist conscience it has been largely overlooked The more common perception is that Christian dominion authorises the human exploitation of animals while Enlightenment humanism and Darwinian thought are seen as drawing humans and animals together in one family This book challenges that perception and proposes an alternative perspective Through exploring the shaping of animal advocacy discourses by Biblical themes of creation fall and restoration this book reveals the continuing importance of the nonconformist conscience as a source to enrich animal ethics today It will appeal to the animal studies community theologians and early modern historians

Church in an Age of Global Migration Susanna Snyder, Agnes M. Brazal, Joshua Ralston, 2016-04-29 Migration has become a defining feature of the contemporary age. It has brought about significant changes in political, economic, social, and religious landscapes. This volume explores a question that has been little considered to date: how are churches being transformed in the face of global migration? The book features contributors from diverse national, denominational, cultural, professional, and linguistic backgrounds. Their essays reveal the ways in which migrants and the phenomenon of migration expose longstanding gaps and failings within Christian communities. However, the prevalence of migration and migrants simultaneously opens up fresh possibilities for churches to grow, renew, become more authentic, dynamic, and diverse. Church in an Age of Global Migration presents a collage of embodied ecclesial practices, understandings, and realities that have emerged and are continuing to develop in the face of global migration. Committed to transnational and ecumenical dialogue and to integrating practical and theoretical perspectives, this volume is the first to offer an in-depth analysis of the ways in which churches are being changed by migrants.
