Autonomy, Oppression, and Gender Andrea Veltman, Mark Piper, 2014-07-14 This collection of new essays examines philosophical issues at the intersection of feminism and autonomy studies Are autonomy and independence useful goals for women and subordinate persons Is autonomy possible in contexts of social subordination Is the pursuit of desires that issue from patriarchal norms consistent with autonomous agency How do emotions and caring relate to autonomous deliberation Contributors to this collection answer these questions and others advancing central debates in autonomy theory by examining basic components normative commitments and applications of conceptions of autonomy Several chapters look at the conditions necessary for autonomous agency and at the role that values and norms such as independence equality inclusivity self respect care and femininity play in feminist theories of autonomy Whereas some contributing authors focus on dimensions of autonomy that are internal to the mind such as deliberative reflection desires cares emotions self identities and feelings of self worth several authors address social conditions and practices that support or stifle autonomous agency often answering questions of practical import These include such questions as What type of gender socialization best supports autonomous agency and feminist goals When does adapting to severely oppressive circumstances such as those in human trafficking turn into a loss of autonomy How are ideals of autonomy affected by capitalism and How do conceptions of autonomy inform issues in bioethics such as end of life decisions or rights to bodily self determination

Sexing the Look in Popular Visual Culture Kathy Justice Gentile, 2020-05-15 With dramatic advances in media technology the practice of sexing or erotically enhancing images has become an increasingly widespread phenomenon The eroticized look as both noun and verb the thing or image that draws our look and the look that we bestow on images that elicit our visual physiological and emotional attention is the focus of the essays in this volume Every day whether we are out in the world or in the workplace or in the privacy of our homes we enter visual fields that heighten and distort reality distortions that often emphasize sexuality and erotic promise The contributors for this collection look at the sexualization of visual culture from a range of disciplinary perspectives including literature film studies history philosophy art history and media studies with gender and sexuality studies providing the encompassing critical framework that binds these essays into a coherent analytical project The essays in this collection offer new theoretical conceptions of perception and representation as well as rigorous reconsiderations of the polarized feminist debates over pornographic images Essays on literature and film range from an interrogation of Baudrillard's theory of seduction that posits femininity as a strategy of illusion and subversion to Bridget Jones's challenge to the prevailing disciplinary regime that prescribes rigid standards for feminine beauty to a reevaluation of the subversive potential of sexy female robots Other contributors consider the history of nudist images in US periodicals the proliferation of eroticized images of girls in new digital technologies gentlemanly masculinity in men's fashion in late Victorian England and a rape prevention campaign's unintentional reinforcement of persistent heterosexist misconceptions about rape

Essential Breakthroughs: Conversations about Men, Mothers and Mothering Fionna Joy Green, 2015-11-01

Essential Breakthroughs Conversations About Men Mothers and Mothering thinks from the nexus of gender essentialism and care The authors creatively blend the philosophical and the personal to collectively argue that while gender is essential to our social and theoretical definitions of care it is dangerously co opted into naturalized discourses which limit particular identities and negate certain forms of care The perspectives curated in Essential Breakthroughs illuminate how care as a respected and productive cultural ethic is neither inherent nor instinctual for any human but is learned and fostered The chapters are informed by feminist queer and trans politics wielding post structuralist methodologies of unlearning and deconstruction while maintaining the maternal lens as a credible feminist analytical tool and not as a gender essentialist practice

Ain't I a Womanist, Too? Monica A. Coleman, 2013-04-24 Third wave womanism is a new movement within religious studies with deep roots in the tradition of womanist religious thought while also departing from it in key ways After a helpful and orienting introduction this volume gathers essays from established and emerging scholars whose work is among the most lively and innovative scholarship today The result is a lively conversation in which to question is not to disavow to depart is not necessarily to reject and where questioning and departing are indications of the productive growth and expansion of an important academic and religious movement

The Black Book Richard A. Jones, 2013-11-26 The Black Book Wittgenstein and Race attempts to highlight the importance of Ludwig Wittgenstein s work for contemporary African American and Africana philosophy Richard A Jones argues that Wittgenstein s early Tractarian views on logical atomism and his later more holistic views from his work Philosophical Investigations are exceedingly relevant to African American philosophy The Black Book investigates the epistemic linguistic and political grounds from which inspiration might be drawn Ultimately as philosophy attempts to redefine itself in a postmodern discourse where it has been deigned concluded it is the awe for the ordinary that Wittgenstein inspires and that should re inspire the creative imaginary in Africana thought The Black Book is an attempt to show that Wittgenstein s work continues to be important not only for African American philosophers but for all philosophers

'Tikkun Olam' —To Mend the World Jason Goroncy, 2013-12-04 Tikkun Olam To Mend the World is premised on the conviction that artists and theologians have things to learn from one another things about the complex interrelationality of life and about a coherence of things given and sustained by God The ten essays compiled in this volume seek to attend to the lives burdens and hopes that characterize human life in a world broken but unforgotten in travail but moving towards the freedom promised by a faithful Creator They reflect on whether the world wounded as it is by war by hatred by exploitation by neglect by reason and by human imagination itself can be healed Can there be repair And can art and theology tell the truth of the world s woundedness and still speak of its hope

Resisting Reality Sally Anne Haslanger, 2012-10-25 In this collection of previously published essays Sally Haslanger draws on insights from feminist and critical race theory and on the resources of contemporary analytic philosophy to develop the idea that gender and race are positions within a structure of social relations Explicating the workings of these interlocking structures provides tools for understanding and combatting social injustice

Applied Ethics Larry May, 2017-07-05 This best selling text continues to fill an existing gap in the literature taught in applied ethics courses As a growing number of courses that include the perspectives of diverse cultures are being added to the university curriculum texts are needed that represent more multicultural and diverse histories and backgrounds This new edition enhances gender coverage as nearly half of the pieces are now authored by women The new edition also increases the percentage of pieces written by those who come from a non Western background It offers twelve up to date articles not found in previous editions on human rights environmental ethics poverty war and violence gender race euthanasia and abortion all of these topics are addressed from Western and non Western perspectives

Female Terrorism in America Jonathan Matusitz, Elena Berisha, 2020-09-17 This book provides a comprehensive analysis of female terrorism in America both past and present The volume takes a fresh look at women's actions of left wing political violence right wing political violence and religious extremist violence among others It also examines the multitude of roles that women have played over the past few decades in such organizations including leadership positions and more passive roles not to mention the diverse methods of recruitment radicalization and propaganda The objective of this book is to examine using a wide range of case studies facts statistics and theoretical methodologies how collective or personal factors have influenced or reinforced the actions that these women take Government agencies continue to underestimate the ability of women to support and perpetrate terrorism As such the United States is facing a wholly inaccurate and incomplete picture of the complexities of domestic terrorism and this is contributing to a serious neglect of the issue at the national level This volume ultimately aims to offer policy relevant solutions to decrease the threat of domestic female political violence in the United States Female Terrorism in America will be of much interest to students of terrorism and political violence American politics gender studies and sociology

Religion and Intimate Partner Violence Nancy Nason-Clark, Barbara Fisher-Townsend, Catherine Holtmann, Stephen McMullin, 2017-10-23 Grounded in data and enriched with narratives of abused women abusive men and those who walk alongside them Religion and Intimate Partner Violence examines how lived religion both helps and hinders the journey towards justice accountability healing and wholeness for women and men caught in the web of abuse

Contemporary Feminist Research from Theory to Practice Patricia Leavy, Daniel X. Harris, Anne M. Harris, 2018-08-09 Exploring the breadth of contemporary feminist research practices this engaging text immerses the reader in cutting edge theories methods and practical strategies Chapters review theoretical work and describe approaches to conducting quantitative qualitative and community based research with participants doing content or media analysis and evaluating programs or interventions Ethical issues are addressed and innovative uses of digital media highlighted The focus is studying gender inequities as they are experienced by individuals and groups from diverse cultural racial and socioeconomic backgrounds and with diverse gender identities Delving into the process of writing and publishing feminist research the text covers timely topics such as public scholarship activism and arts based practices The companion website features interviews with prominent feminist researchers Pedagogical Features Case examples of feminist research Running glossary of key terms Boxes highlighting hot topics and key points for practice End of chapter discussion questions and activities End of chapter annotated suggested reading books articles and online resources Sample letters to research participants Appendix of feminist scholars organized by discipline The Politics of Sincerity Elizabeth Markovits, 2010-11 A growing frustration with spin doctors doublespeak and outright lying by public officials has resulted in a deep public cynicism regarding politics today It has also led many voters to seek out politicians who engage in straight talk out of a hope that sincerity signifies a dedication to the truth While this is an understandable reaction to the degradation of public discourse inflicted by political hype Elizabeth Markovits argues that the search for sincerity in the public arena actually constitutes a dangerous distraction from more important concerns including factual truth and the ethical import of political statements Her argument takes her back to an examination of the Greek notion of parrhesia frank speech and she draws from her study of the Platonic dialogues a nuanced understanding of this ancient analogue of straight talk She shows Plato to have an appreciation for rhetoric rather than a desire to purge it from public life providing insights into the ways it can contribute to a fruitful form of deliberative democracy today
