Migration, Class and Transnational Identities Val Colic-Peisker,2010-10-01 Val Colic Peisker harnesses concepts and theories from sociology anthropology and political science to compare the vastly different experiences of two Croatian immigrant cohorts in the city of Perth Western Australia The populations explored represent an earlier group of working class migrants arriving from communist Yugoslavia from the 1950s to 1970s and a later group of urban professionals arriving in the 1980s and 1990s as independent or skills based migrants This latter group integrated into professional ranks but also used their Australian experience as a stepping stone in becoming part of a highly mobile global professional middle class Employing a refined theoretical analysis this rich ethnography challenges the domination of the ethnic perspective in migration studies and the idea of ethnic community itself It emphasizes the importance of class focusing on the intersection of class ethnicity and gender in the process of migration migrant incorporation and transnationalism In theorizing the connection of the two migrant cohorts with their native Croatia the study introduces concepts of ethnic and cosmopolitan transnationalism as two distinctive experiences mediated by class

No One is Here Except All of Us Ramona Ausubel,2012-02-02 From the award winning author of Sons and Daughters of Ease and Plenty and the new story collection Awayland In 1939 the families in a remote Jewish village in Romania feel the war close in on them Their tribe has moved and escaped for thousands of years across oceans deserts and mountains but now it seems there is nowhere else to go

Danger is imminent in every direction yet the territory of imagination and belief is limitless At the suggestion of an eleven year old girl and a mysterious stranger who has washed up on the riverbank the villagers decide to reinvent the world deny any relationship with the known and start over from scratch Destiny is unwritten Time and history are forgotten Jobs husbands a child are reassigned And for years there is boundless hope But the real world continues to unfold alongside the imagined one eventually overtaking it and soon our narrator the girl grown into a young mother must flee her village move from one world to the next to find her husband and save her children and propel them toward a real and hopeful future A beguiling imaginative inspiring story about the bigness of being alive as an individual as a member of a tribe and as a participant in history No One Is Here Except All Of Us explores how we use storytelling to survive and shape our own truths It marks the arrival of a major new literary talent Wish You Were Here Graham Swift,2012-04-17 From the prizewinning author of the acclaimed Last Orders The Light of Day and Waterland a powerfully moving new novel set in present day England but against the background of a global war on terror and about things that touch our human core On an autumn day in 2006 on the Isle of Wight Jack Luxton once a farmer now the proprietor of a seaside caravan park receives the news that his brother Tom not seen for years has been killed in combat in Iraq The news will have its far reaching effects for Jack and his wife Ellie and compel Jack to make a crucial journey to receive his brother s remains but also to return to the land of his past and of his most secret troubling memories A gripping hauntingly intimate and compassionate story that moves toward a fiercely suspenseful climax Wish You Were Here translates the stuff of headlines into heartwrenching personal truth This eBook edition includes a Reading Group Guide Waste Worlds Jacob Doherty,2021-12-14 Uganda s capital Kampala is undergoing dramatic urban transformations as its new technocratic government seeks to clean and green the city Waste Worlds tracks the dynamics of development and disposability unfolding amid struggles over who and what belong in the new Kampala Garbage materializes these struggles In the densely inhabited social infrastructures in and around the city s waste streams people places and things become disposable but conditions of disposability are also challenged and undone Drawing on years of ethnographic research Jacob Doherty illustrates how waste makes worlds offering the key intervention that disposability is best understood not existentially as a condition of social exclusion but infrastructurally as a form of injurious social inclusion Beyond Thirty The Last Continent Edgar Rice Burroughs,2017-07-24 The story was heavily influenced by the events of World War I and reflects U S sentiments at the time of writing When the war broke out Americans were predominantly isolationist and wary of being drawn into a European war Burroughs imagines a future two centuries onward in which that view prevailed and the western hemisphere severed contact with the rest of the world Consequently the eastern hemisphere has exhausted itself in war and Europe has descended into barbarism while the Americas sheltered from the destruction have continued to advance and joined peacefully into the union of Pan America The Song in the Green Thorn Tree James William Barke,2022-08-16 In The Song in the Green Thorn Tree
