Travel Narrative And The Ends Of Modernity:

Travel Narrative and the Ends of Modernity Stacy Burton, 2014 Combining theoretical arguments with close reading this text traces how twentieth century writers have reinvented travel narrative for new purposes Interwar Itineraries Emily O. Wittman, 2022-05-03 How people traveled and how people wrote about travel changed in the interwar years Novel technologies eased travel conditions breeding new iterations of the colonizing gaze The sense that another war was coming lent urgency and anxiety to the search for new places and authentic experiences In Interwar Itineraries Authenticity in Anglophone and French Travel Writing Emily O Wittman identifies a diverse group of writers from two languages who embarked on such quests For these writers authenticity was achieved through rugged adventure abroad to economically poorer destinations Using translation theory and new approaches in travel studies and global modernisms Wittman links and complicates the symbolic and rhetorical strategies of writers including Andr Gide Ernest Hemingway Michel Leiris Isak Dinesen Beryl Markham among others that offer insight into the high ethical stakes of travel and allow us to see in new ways how models of the authentic self are built and maintained through asymmetries of encounter This book offers a valuable account of literary activity in a genre still inadequately covered in literary critical history Emily Wittman organizes her material through pairings and contextualizing that are instructive and illuminating and often exciting This is comparative literature at its best Vincent Sherry Washington University Concurrent Imaginaries, Postcolonial Worlds Diana Brydon, Peter Forsgren, Gonlög Fur, 2017-04-24 Brydon Forsgren and Fur s Concurrent Imaginaries Postcolonial Worlds demonstrates the value of reading for concurrences in situating discussions of archives voices and history in colonial and postcolonial contexts Starting with the premise that our pluriversal world is constructed from concurrent imaginaries yet the role of concurrences has seldom been examined the collection brings together case studies that confirm the productivity of reading looking and listening for concurrences across established boundaries of disciplinary or geopolitical engagement Contributors working in art history sociology literary and historical studies bring examples of Nordic colonialism together with analyses of colonial practices worldwide The collection invites uptake of the study of concurrences within the humanities and in interdisciplinary fields such as postcolonial cultural and globalization studies Literary Modernity Between the Middle East and Europe Kamran Rastegar, 2007-09-12 This book is a comparative study of the development of English Persian and Arabic literature and their interrelations with specific reference to modernity nationalism and social value Travel, Modernism and Modernity Dr Robert Burden, 2015-05-28 Focusing on the significance of travel in Joseph Conrad E M Forster D H Lawrence Henry James and Edith Wharton Robert Burden shows how travel enabled a new consciousness of mobility and borders during the modernist period Burden argues that the greater awareness of cultural difference that characterizes both the travel writing and fiction of these expatriate writers became a defining feature of literary modernism that challenged the ethnographic project of empire Literature and Identity in Italian Baroque

Travel Writing Nathalie Hester, 2008 This first full length study in English on seventeenth century Italian travel writing enriches our understanding of an unusually fertile period for Italian contributions to the genre The intrinsic qualities of this literature can now be grasped in terms of the larger question of cultural identity in Italy For Hester the specifically literary characteristics of Italian travel writing including its humanism or Petrarchism highlight the classic eminence throughout Europe of a prestigious tradition inherent to Italy one compensating then for the peninsula's lack of a national political identity

Borders and Travellers in Early Modern Europe Thomas Betteridge, 2007 Early modern Europe was obsessed with borders and travel concepts that appealed and appalled in equal measure Adopting a broad cultural approach this collection presents a series of essays dealing with travel in the near east Venice and Germany travel

Emerging Voices for Animals in Tourism Jes Hooper, Carol Kline, 2024-02-14 While the study of animal human interactions within the context of tourism has been explored in a greater number and diversity of ways within the last decade the discourse remains divided between traditional tourism academia and outside disciplines looking in Tourism academia has borrowed philosophical ethical gender studies sociological ecological conservation and economic lenses to explore animals in tourism however collaboration with authors external to tourism studies remains few This edited volume strengthens the bridge between tourism academia and other disciplines by highlighting the fresh perspectives emerging methodologies and innovative interdisciplinary conventions at the forefront of animals in tourism research whilst critically working towards more ethical human animal interactions within the tourism and leisure space Split into four parts emerging motivations emerging cultures emerging narratives and emerging reflections this unique text will be widely applicable to scholars working towards equitable human animal interactions within tourism

Tracking Modernity, Nationalizing Mobility : German/Jewish Travel Literature as a History of Possibility Todd Samuel Presner, 2001

Mobile Modernity Todd Samuel Presner, 2007 Treating the German railway as both an iconic symbol of modernity and a crucial social technological and political force Presner advances a groundbreaking interpretation of the ways in which mobility is inextricably linked to German and Jewish visions of modernity Moving beyond the tired model of a failed German Jewish dialogue Presner emphasizes the mutual entanglement of the very categories of German and Jewish and the many sites of contact and exchange that occurred between German and Jewish thinkers Rather than a conventional linear history that culminates in the tragedy of the Holocaust Presner produces a cultural mapping that articulates a much more complex story of the hopes and catastrophes of mobile modernity By focusing on the spaces of encounter emblematically represented by the overdetermined triangulation of Germans Jews and trains he introduces a new genealogy for the study of European and German Jewish modernity Jacket
