Pulling Focus Jane Stadler, 2008-09-15 The most powerful films have an afterlife Their sensory appeal and their capacity to elicit involvement in story character and conflict reaches beyond the screen to subtly reframe the way spectators view ethical issues and agents within the narrative and in the world outside the cinema Pulling Focus Intersubjective Experience and Narrative Film questions how cinematic narratives relate to and affect ethical life Extending Martha Nussbaum and Wayne Booth's work on moral philosophy and literature to consider cinema Dr Stadler shows that film spectatorship can be understood as a model for ethical attention that engages the audience in an affective relationship with characters and their values Building on Vivian Sobchack's Address of the Eye and Carnal Thoughts she uses a phenomenological approach to analyse ethical dimensions of film extending beyond narrative content arguing that the camera describes experience and views screen characters with an evaluative form of perception an ethical gaze in which spectators participate Films discussed include Dead Man Walking Lost Highway Batman Begins Nil By Mouth and Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind Companion to Narnia, Revised Edition Paul F. Drawing from a wide range of case studies, this volume traces counter-narratives that questioned Enlightenment rationalism, ecclesiastical authority, and canonical androcentrism. Featured figures include Puellae Doctae Rachel Speght, Jeanne Guyon, Mary Astell, and Elisabeth Vigée Le Brun in Europe; Mariana de la Cruz, Francisca Josefa del Castillo, and Mariana de Jesús in the Americas; and Luo Qilan, Kiyohara Yukinobu, and Ike Gyokuran in Asia. This volume reframes the Enlightenment as a contested global terrain of gendered power. This book will appeal to scholars and advanced students in gender studies, theology, intellectual history, and the arts, as well as to general readers interested in the Enlightenment and feminist thought. It offers a valuable resource for rethinking modernity through the often-overlooked contributions of women to Christian intellectual and cultural traditions worldwide.

The Modern Witch's Curriculum: A guide to spiritual exploration, discovery, and magickal practices E.

Massey, 2018-05-30 There comes a time in every Witch's life when they feel there is nothing left to learn. When all the classes and all the books just cannot satisfy our want to learn more. What if there was a book for all magickal practitioners that went beyond Witchcraft magick 101 and 102? What if there was a resource that allowed a Witch to grow and learn without the constraints of tradition and at their own pace? The Modern Witch's Curriculum is that resource. Combining history, science, and hands-on activities in an easy-to-follow calendar format that can be started at any time of the year and on any day of the week. There is no beginning or ending to this book. It can be used over and over again. This curriculum is relevant to anyone of any magickal tradition or spiritual background. Created to guide the reader to areas of study and spiritual knowledge by using any resources that are accessible to them. There are no boundaries or requirements on how the reader can collect the information; it's all individual choice. Transgender, Translation, Translingual Address Douglas Robinson, 2019-01-24

Finalist for the 2020 Prose Awards, Language and Linguistics Category. The emergence of transgender communities into the public eye over the past few decades has brought some new understanding but also renewed outbreaks of violent backlash. In Transgender Translation: Translingual Address, Douglas Robinson seeks to understand the translational or translingual dialogues between cisgendered and transgendered people. Drawing on a wide range of LGBT scholars, philosophers, sociologists, sexologists, and literary voices, Robinson sets up cis-trans dialogues on such issues as being born in the wrong body, binary vs. anti-binary sex/gender identities, and the nature of transition and transformation. Prominent voices in the book include Kate Bornstein, C. Jacob Hale, and Sassafras Lowrey. The theory of translation mobilized in the book is not the traditional equivalence based one but Callon and Latour's sociology of translation as speaking for someone else which grounds the study of translation in social pressures to conform to group norms In addition however Robinson translates a series of passages from Finnish trans novels into English and explores the translingual address that emerges when those English translations are put into dialogue with cis and trans scholars The Fragments, The Spheres - Book One Minu Freitag ,2022-07-28 Readers of Philip Pullman's His Dark Materials will love Minu Freitag's fast paced contemporary fantasy adventure The Fragments the first Book in The Spheres series Run Easla Amrath is lost in a broken world haunted by a single memory a scream in the dark telling her to run When 17 year old Easla encounters the two years older Tayl Bergin in a strange forest she has no idea who she is Or where she is Or why nothing makes any sense Tormented by terrifying glimpses into a past she can no longer remember Easla clings to one thought she must go back and fix this But to return to her life she first must recover who she is and what she left behind So Tayl and Easla embark on an increasingly perilous journey across the broken landscapes of the Fragments where they discover how much of their past is entangled in an age old conflict that threatens to destroy not only their future but the future of all worlds within the Spheres The Fragments inventive take on alternate realities arcane magic and dystopian futures is filled with unforgettable creatures and richly imagined landscapes The first book in this new exciting series is a spellbinding stay up all night and tell all your friends read Acts Willie James Jennings,2017-05-05 In this new commentary for the Belief series award winning author and theologian Willie James Jennings explores the relevance of the book of Acts for the struggles of today While some see Acts as the story of the founding of the Christian church Jennings argues that it is so much more depicting revolution life in the disrupting presence of the Spirit of God According to Jennings Acts is like Genesis revealing a God who is moving over the land putting into place a holy repetition that speaks of the willingness of God to invade our every day and our every moment He reminds us that Acts took place in a time of Empire when the people were caught between diaspora Israel and the Empire of Rome The spirit of God intervened offering new life to both Jennings shows that Acts teaches how people of faith can yield to the Spirit to overcome the divisions of our present world 1990 NASA authorization United States.
