Agathangelou,Nevzat Soguk,2013-09-13 Stories about institutions and regimes that have failed us are echoing worldwide This book critically engages the multiple uprisings in the Middle East and North Africa MENA following the self immolation of Tunisian street vendor Mohamed Bouazizi in December 2010 It brings together authors who critically analyse the unstoppable force unleashed in the streets of Tunisia Egypt Bahrain Syria Libya and Yemen This book analyses the roots and trajectory of the recent revolts in the context of the global transformations that have redefined the politics of movement and revolution For example some authors engage extensively with the strategies embraced by the younger generation of activists Others argue that the power of these revolutions lies in the people s creative orientations including their collaborations While much of the mobilization efforts in these different parts of the world happen through word of mouth radio cartoons placards and SMS services sites such as Facebook helped people meet each other with a click carrying their claims through stories songs poetry and art of protest across international borders quickly enabling them to rapidly bring authoritarian regimes to the brink of collapse and make a qualitatively different expression of uprisings All authors in this volume address the question of the stakes in these revolts as through them spectacular and everyday violence can be challenged and alternative social projects can emerge Neither a footnote to the West s history nor an appendix to neoliberal capitalist global projects people are actively drawing on their power to disrupt domination and oppression creatively responding to global problems and calling for democratic institutions with viable ecologies This book was published as a special issue of Globalizations

Maps of Empire Kyle Wanberg, 2020-07-09 During the political upheavals of the mid twentieth century as imperialism was unraveling on a grand scale writers from colonized and occupied spaces questioned the necessity and ethics of their histories As empire wrote back to the self ordained centres of the world modes of representation underwent a transformation Exploring novels and diverse forms of literature from regions in West Africa the Middle East and Indigenous America Maps of Empire considers how writers struggle with the unstable boundaries generated by colonial projects and their dissolution The literary spaces covered in the book form imaginary states or reimagine actual cartographies and identities sanctioned under empire The works examined in Maps of Empire through their inner representations and their outer histories of reception inspire and provoke us to reconsider boundaries

Nostalgia in Anglophone Arab Literature Tasnim Qutait, 2021-04-22 This book offers an in depth engagement with the growing body of Anglophone Arab fiction in the context of theoretical debates around memory and identity Against the critical tendency to dismiss nostalgia as a sentimental trope of immigrant narratives Qutait sheds light on the creative uses to which it is put in the works of Rabi Alameddine Ahdaf Soueif Hisham Matar Leila Aboulela Randa Jarrar Rawi Hage and others Arguing for the necessity of theorising cultural memory beyond Eurocentric frameworks the book demonstrates how Arab novelists writing in English draw on nostalgia as a touchstone of Arabic literary tradition from pre Islamic poetry to the present Qutait situates Anglophone Arab fiction within contentious debates about the place of the past in the Arab world tracing how writers have deployed nostalgia as an aesthetic strategy to deal with subject matter ranging from the Islamic golden age the era of anti colonial struggle the failures of the postcolonial state and of pan Arabism and the perennial issue of the diaspora s relationship to the homeland Making a contribution to the transnational turn in memory studies while focusing on a region underrepresented in this field this book will be of interest for researchers interested in cultural memory postcolonial studies and the literatures of the Middle East

Davis, 2023-03-20 This book argues that Simone Weil s short life 1909 1943 is best understood as deeply invested in and engaged with the world around her which she knew she would leave behind sooner rather than later if she took risks on the side of the oppressed To present Weil first and foremost as a political philosopher Benjamin Davis places her work in conversation with feminist philosophy decolonial philosophy and Marxism Against the backdrop of Weil s commitments Davis reads Weil into debates in contemporary Critical Theory He argues that in the battles of today we need to reconnect with Simone Weil s ethical and political imagination which offers a critique of oppression as part of a deeper attention to the world In the Wake of the Poetic Najat Rahman, 2015-09-28 Heralding a new period of creativity In the Wake of the Poetic explores the aesthetics and politics of Palestinian cultural expression in the last two decades As it increasingly gains a significant presence on the international scene much of Palestinian art owes a debt to Mahmoud Darwish one of the finest contemporary poets and to Palestinian writers of his generation Rahman maps the immense influence of Darwish s poetry on a new generation of performance artists visual artists spoken word poets and musicians Through an examination of selected works by key artists such as Suheir Hammad Ghassan Zaqtan Elia Suleiman Mona Hatoum Sharif Waked and others Rahman articulates an aesthetic founded on loss dispersion dispossession and transformation It interrupts dominant regimes constituting acts of dissension and intervention It reinscribes belonging and is oriented toward solidarity and future This innovative wave of experimentation transforms our understanding of the national through the diasporic and the transnational and offers a profound meditation on identity Holy War Karen Armstrong, 2001-11-27 The New York Times bestselling author of A

History of God skillfully narrates the history of the Crusades with a view toward their profound and continuing influence Holy War brings compassion objectivity breadth and imagination to the most urgent crisis of our time The Boston Phoenix In 1095 Pope Urban II summoned Christian warriors to take up the cross and reconquer the Holy Land Thus began the holy wars that would focus the power of Europe against a common enemy and become the stuff of romantic legend In reality the Crusades were a series of rabidly savage conflicts in the name of piety And as Armstrong demonstrates in this fascinating book their legacy of religious violence continues today in the Middle East where the age old conflict of Christians Jews and Muslims persists
