Van Den Vos Reinaarde:

Of Reynaert the Fox A. Th Bouwman, Bart Besamusca, 2009 An entertaining reworking of the most popular branch of the Old French tale of Reynard the Fox the mid thirteenth century Dutch epic Van den vos Reynaerde is one of the earliest long literary works in the Dutch vernacular Sly Reynaert and a cast of other comical woodland characters find themselves again and again caught up in escapades that often provide a satirical commentary on human society This charmingly volume is the first bilingual edition of the tale featuring facing pages with an English translation by Thea Summerfield making the undisputed masterpiece of medieval Dutch literature accessible to a wide international audience Accompanying the critical text and parallel translation are an introduction interpretative notes an index of names a complete glossary and a short introduction to Middle Dutch Van Den Vos Reynaerde H.; Buitenrust Hettema F. Degering, 2013 Texts in Multiple Versions Luigi Giuliani, Herman Brinkman, Geert Lernout, Marita Mathijssen, 2006 Texts in multiple versions constitute the core problem of textual scholarship For texts from antiquity and the medieval period the many versions may be the result of manuscript transmission requiring editors and readers to discriminate between levels of authority in variant readings produced along the chain of copying For texts of all periods and particularly for more modern authors there may also be multiple authorial versions These are of particular importance for genetic criticism as they offer a window on the author's thinking through the developing work The different contexts in which multiple versions may occur different languages different genres different cultures ranging in this collection from ancient Greek texts to novels by Cervantes and Aub dramatic texts from Portugal and Germany poetry from The Netherlands and Lithuania scientific texts from the 19th century provide further layers of complexity The histories of countries are reflected in the histories of editing In Europe this can be seen particularly in the great period of nation building of the 19th century Essays in this volume survey editorial activity in The Netherlands Belgium and Germany in the nineteenth century concluding that nation building and scholarly editing are twinned As a nation searches for its own identity textual scholarship is pressed into service to find and edit the texts on which to establish that identity The two strands of this volume multiple versions of texts editions and national histories testify to the centrality of textual editing to many fields of research There is material here for literary scholars historians and for readers interested in texts from Ancient Greece to modernist classics A Dictionary of Medieval Heroes Willem Pieter Gerritsen, A. G. van Melle, 1998 The different cultures from which the middle ages drew its inspiration are represented Cu Cuchulainn from the Celtic world Apollonius of Tyre from Greek romance Attila the Hun and Theodoric the Ostrogoth from the struggle of the Roman empire against the Barbarians Each entry gives an outline of the story how it spread through Europe its modern retelling and appearances in art and a selective bibliography Jacket Reynaert Abroad, 2011 Aspects of the Medieval Animal Epic Edward Rombauts, Andries Welkenhuysen, 1975 Literature without Frontiers Cornelis van der Haven, Yuri Desplenter, J.A. Parente Jr., Jan Bloemendal, 2023-07-31 This volume explores the indispensability of a transnational perspective for the construction and writing of literary histories of the Low Countries from 1200-1800. It looks at the role of mediators such as translators, printers and editors at characteristics of literary genres and the possibilities they offered for literary boundary crossing and adaptation and at the role of regions and urban centers as multilingual hubs. This collection demonstrates the centrality of transnational perspectives for elucidating the complex interrelationship between Netherlandic and European literary history. The Low Countries were a dynamic site for new literary production and transnational exchange that shaped and reshaped the intellectual landscape of premodern Europe. Contributors include Lia van Gemert, Lucas van der Deijl, Feike Dietz, Paul Wackers, David Napolitano, James A. Parente Jr., Frank Willaert, Youri Desplenter, Bart Besamusca, Frans R. E. Blom and Jan Bloemendal. Medieval Germany John M. Jeep, 2001. An encyclopedia covering the political, social, intellectual, religious and cultural history of the German and Dutch speaking medieval world between 500 and 1500. Entries cover individuals and their deeds as well as broader historical topics.

Routledge Revivals: Medieval Germany (2001) John M. Jeep, 2017-07-05. First published in 2001. Medieval Germany. An Encyclopedia provides a comprehensive guide to the German and Dutch speaking world in the Middle Ages from approximately C.E. 500 to 1500. It offers detailed accounts of a wide variety of aspects of medieval Germany including language, literature, architecture, politics, warfare, medicine, philosophy and religion. In addition, this reference work includes bibliographies and citations to aid further study. This A-Z encyclopedia featuring over 500 entries written by expert contributors will be of key interest to students and scholars as well as general readers. The Medieval Opus: Imitation, Rewriting and Transmission in the French Tradition, 1996. The Medieval Opus is a broad but detailed study of the art of imitation as rewriting that was practiced in medieval French texts and in texts in other languages influenced by French models. It contains the proceedings of a symposium on this topic. The volume will be of interest to scholars and students of medieval French as well as other medieval literatures influenced by French models. The range of texts is broad from epic to romance and from lyric to late medieval lyric narrative genres. The authors teach in a number of countries in Europe and North America and they represent a variety of approaches, ages and critical perspectives on medieval rewriting. Two major concepts inform the papers: the bridge work and the specimen text. The bridge work, Tony Hunt's term, refers here to two works that have identifiable links to others and that by those links reveals something of the art of writing for both works. Specimen texts are works representative of the art of imitation illustrated by the bridge works. The proceedings move beyond the analysis of a general art of composition to investigate original rewriting in specific works that serve as specimen texts. The goal of the proceedings has been to appreciate originality within the framework of the medieval art of literary writing.
