Vaulted Home Those Who Cheated Death:

Vaulted Home Ana Filomena Amaral, 2014-06-11 Vaulted Home Those Who Cheated Death is a novel about creation that is guided by two main parts. The first consideration is that of the history of mankind from prehistoric to twentieth century as told by a woman and representing the home of the world. The second part is the story of the construction of the house of the individual. The seven chapters in which the work is divided are an analogy and reference to the biblical seven days of creation. The main protagonist is a woman who embodies all the periods in which the narrative is conceived and interacts with the main male characters according to their role in world history. Then we have the more intimate side of the story which is the building of mankind's house, the house of being human with all the philosophical thoughts and feelings. Ana Filomena Amaral is a Portuguese writer born in Avintes Oporto and now lives in Lousa. She earned a master's in contemporary economic and social history from the University of Coimbra and a specialization in documentary sciences. She is an experienced interpreter and translator in several European languages particularly German. The author works for the Minister of Education in Coimbra. She has already published five novels in Portugal and Vaulted Home is one of them. She has also published historical monographies including her master's thesis about the Portuguese First Minister Maria de Lourdes Pintasilgo. Publisher's website <http://sbpra.com/AnaFilomenaAmaral>

The Director Ana Filomena Amaral, 2021-10-18 The Director is a novel focuses on Gilgamesh's Sumerian epic adapted to the present reality. Contemporary problems are addressed from the destruction of the oceans to the genocide of Armenians, corruption at the highest level and the predatory greed that threatens the planet including the situation of Syrian refugees in the perspective of what humanity wants for the future and how is compromising it. The issue of immortality is nuclear as in the Gilgamesh epic.

The Dead in Their Vaulted Arches Alan Bradley, 2014-01-14 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER On a spring morning in 1951, eleven-year-old chemist and aspiring detective Flavia de Luce gathers with her family at the railway station awaiting the return of her long-lost mother Harriet. Yet upon the train's arrival in the English village of Bishop's Lacey, Flavia is approached by a tall stranger who whispers a cryptic message into her ear. Moments later he is dead, mysteriously pushed under the train by someone in the crowd. Who was this man, what did his words mean, and why were they intended for Flavia? Back home at Buckshaw, the de Luce's crumbling estate, Flavia puts her sleuthing skills to the test. Following a trail of clues sparked by the discovery of a reel of film stashed away in the attic, she unravels the deepest secrets of the de Luce clan involving none other than Winston Churchill himself. Surrounded by family friends and a famous pathologist from the Home Office and making spectacular use of Harriet's beloved Gipsy Moth plane, Blithe Spirit, Flavia will do anything, even take to the skies, to land a killer. BONUS This edition includes an excerpt from Alan Bradley's As Chimney Sweepers Come to Dust, Praise for The Dead in Their Vaulted Arches.
