Wild And Whirling Words A Poetic Conversation:

Wild and Whirling Words H. L. Hix, 2004 How do poets really think about each other's work In search of an answer H L Hix invited thirty three of America's finest and most influential poets representing diverse backgrounds and approaches to engage in a conversation Each volunteered an original poem which Hix circulated anonymously among six of the other poets The poems and responses progressed from poet to poet unfolding complicating and sending up sparks of insight of opinion of disagreement Etruscan Press

We Need to Talk Michael Theune, Bob Broad, 2017-10-24 We evaluate poems constantly as workshop leaders competition judges and journal editors But how do we judge the success of verse in these contexts The authors propose an innovative method by which anyone involved in the assessment of poetry can be more transparent about how they value verse This book foregrounds the ethical and professional obligations of poets teachers and critics to conduct axiological inquiry so they can discover and publish what they value We Need to Talk suggests why and how people who care about poetry should communally explore and document their shared and conflicting values This is the first book to provide the background and theory as well as a practical working model for the communal empirical evaluation of creative writing

A Poetics of Hiroshima & Other Poems William Heyen, 2008 William Heyen is one of America's most prolific and respected poets Darling Vulgarly Michael Waters, 2014-07-01 With both ardor and sensuality Darling Vulgarly challenges us to embrace humanity's imperfections while urging us toward new spiritual realities And then sometimes the poems are just plain sexy Or as Nat Hardy wrote Waters meditative and confessional forays into the sexual sublime are both disturbing and artfully passionate Darling Vulgarly also includes poems based on Waters' true literary experiences with such notables as Raymond Carver Allen Ginsberg and Robert Lowell

Industrial Poetics Joe Amato, 2006-04 Through a dizzying array of references to subjects ranging from engineering to poetry on the job experiences in academia and industry conflicts between working class and intellectual labor the privatization of universities and the contradictions of the modern environment Joe Amato's Industrial Poetics mounts a boisterous call for poetry communities to be less invested in artistic self absorption and more concerned about social responsibility's Amato focuses on the challenges faced by American poets in creating a poetry that speaks to a public engineered into complacency by those industrial technologies practices and patterns of thought that we cannot seem to do without he brings readers face to face with the conflicting realities of U S intellectual academic and poetic culture Formally adventurous and rhetorically lively Industrial Poetics is best compared with the intellectually exploratory speculative risky polemical work of other contemporary poet critics including Kathleen Fraser Joan Retallack Bruce Andrews Susan Howe and Allen Grossman Amato uses an exhilarating range of structural and rhetorical strategies conventionally developed argument abruptly juxtaposed aphorisms personal narrative manifesto like polemic and documentary reportage With a critic's sharply analytical mind a poet's verve and a working class intellectual's sense of social justice Amato addresses the many nonliterary institutions and environments in which poetry is inextricably embedded By connecting poetry to industry in a lively demonstration against the platitudes and habitudes of the twentieth century Amato argues for a reenergized and socially forceful poetics an industrial poetics rough edges and all Jed Rasula writes I can't say I pay much attention to talk radio but this is what I imagine it might be like if the deejay were really smart enviably well read yet somehow retained the snarling moxie of the am format An Archaeology of Yearning Bruce Mills,2013-10-21 Digging into vivid moments within the metaphor of archaeology Bruce Mills's remarkable memoir maps the artifacts of life as a father of a boy with autism and as a boy himself growing up in rural Iowa An Archaeology of Yearning is not ultimately about autism instead it reaches into the world of human connection and illuminates how storytelling and an understanding of language keep that connection alive On some nights I awake as if in a cave and think of the future Mary and I will exist as memories a quick glimpse of arms reaching toward another's shoulders or face an image of a hand upon a book the scent of our bodies after the sweat of sleep the tone of our young and old voices calling our daughter or son from distant rooms or down a stair Eventually I arrive on the image of my son in some new home No matter how much I have written or catalogued or kept in images I know that the site of his life and mine will inevitably remain fragments and that only a visitor can bring us to life Bruce Mills has published scholarly books and articles on nineteenth century American writings and co edited a collection of essays by siblings of those on the autism spectrum His creative nonfiction has appeared in The Georgia Review and New England Review He teaches in the English Department at Kalamazoo College Bon Courage Ru Freeman,2023-08-29 Bon Courage is a fierce eclectic and intimate collection that encompasses the big questions of our time what we mean by courage how we define our world how we choose to exist in it Bon Courage is an exhilarating journey through a layered intellectual landscape textured with a range of political and personal enthusiasms and emboldened by a passionate defense of the disregarded Wide ranging and inclusive in the essay mode deep and revealing as a memoir with the dynamics and layering of great fiction As if that's not enough it sings Ru Freeman participates intimately while bringing global perspectives to subjects as diverse as Bowie and Dylan Palestine 9 11 hairstyles personal and cultural identity motherhood and MeToo A resplendent and compendious exploration of great empathy insight and bon courage indeed This is a book that is going to make a difference Lies Will Take You Somewhere Sheila Schwartz,2009 A Jewish family saga For Dust Thou Art Timothy Liu,2005-09-26 Running the gamut from traditional to radical forms Timothy Liu's sixth collection of poems For Dust Thou Art continues the trajectory of his previous books but extends his lyrical range The centerpiece of the volume's tripartite structure is a meditation on the events surrounding 9 11 and its aftermath In his poems Liu explores what a twenty first century American poetry of witness might look like and protests the charge that the poetic generation to which Liu belongs is stymied by a kind of jaded amorality Whether taking on public spectacle or contemplating the fallout of a private life these meditations move forward and backward through time seeking spiritual consolation within a material world Topographies Stephen Benz,2019-08-20 A wild ride on the madcap streets of Guatemala City A twilight walk through old Havana with a

Cuban mailman A canoe trip in search of a lost grave in the Everglades These are some of the experiences Stephen Benz describes in Topographies an insightful and evocative collection of personal essays Demonstrategy H. L. Hix,2019-10-08 Against the busy background of the information age and the anthropocene where s poetry It might seem invisible irrelevant but Demonstrategy proves it as salient as ever and more urgent In paired essays about poetry in the world and the world in poetry Demonstrategy finds poetry s pulse steady and strong American Mother Colum McCann,Diane Foley,2024-03-05 One of the best books I ve read in many many years if not in my life Anderson Cooper Featured on MSNBC s Morning Joe What does a mother say to the person responsible for kidnapping torturing and murdering her son National Book Award winning author Colum McCann channels Diane Foley s voice as she tells her story as the mother of American journalist Jim Foley in search of answers beyond justice found through dogged empathetic spiritual enquiry In late 2021 Diane Foley sat at a table across from her son s killer Alexandra Kotey a member of the ISIS group known as The Beatles who plead guilty to the kidnapping torture and murder of her son seven years before Kotey was about to go serve life imprisonment and this was Diane s chance to talk to the man who had been involved with brutally taking her son s last breath What would she say to his killer What would he reveal to her Might she even be able to summon forgiveness for him So begins American Mother which reads alternately like a thriller a biography a mystery a memoir and a literary examination of grace Diane looks back on the early days when Jim was a child and his journey to journalism and the killing fields of the world where he reports with indefatigable determination and insight on the plight of those caught up in the agonies of war She guides us through her family history and the difficulties they faced when Jim was captured And she also charts the tenacity it takes to turn her grief into grace as she seeks to give voice to those who are still being kidnapped and wrongfully detained around the world Few journeys are more worthy than this and in this astonishing book we are all invited to celebrate the lives of those who are never in the end gone Saint Joe's Passion J. D. Schraffenberger,2008 Fresh new voice in poetry The Widening Carol Moldaw,2008 A poetic novel a portrait of a young woman s volatile mix of passivity and wildness Gospel Night Michael Waters,2011-08-23 Waters s elegant language suggests that there is grace to be found in facing and speaking of our sorrows His use of humor creates a tension between the profane and the sublime Arts Letters Among the survivors of the Donner Party idiom s black sense of humor Who developed a secret taste for flesh Flaked between the fluted bones of the wrist In his tenth poetry collection Michael Waters tackles the dual and dueling natures of our humanity sin and transgression isolation and atrocity love and darkness and the desire for a language that can illuminate such ordinary yet disturbing spaces

Museum of Stones Lynn Lurie,2019-05-14 Museum of Stones reveals a possessive obsessive world of a love that must be released An exceptional child collects too many rocks invents a garbage recycler that runs amok does not play well His mother takes their relationship to extremes threatening her sanity and health a wrenching yet often funny account The Invention of the Kaleidoscope Paisley Rekdal,2007-02-25 The Invention of the Kaleidoscope is a book of poetic elegies that discuss failures failures of love both sexual and spiritual failures of the body failures of science art and technology failures of nature imagination memory and most importantly the failures inherent to elegiac narratives and our formal attempt to memorialize the lost But the book also explores the necessity of such narratives as well as the creative possibilities implicit within the failed elegy all while examining the various ways that self destruction can turn into self preservation The Greatest Jewish-American Lover in Hungarian History Michael Blumenthal, 2014-08-15 Etan Yogeve had had no experience in bed and hardly any outside of it and it was not without a strong feeling of awkwardness and insecurity that he had first allowed Daphna Flinker to guide his somewhat ambivalent member into her own body and his lips against her lips She enjoyed it this teacherly role it had been a very long time since she had been able to practice the art of sexual instruction and there was something exciting and alluring about this all that innocence in a single place A humorous and heartrending portrait of expatriate life The Greatest Jewish American Lover in Hungarian History draws upon the hazards and confusions that occur when the Old World meets the New In venues as diverse as Israel Hungary Paris Cambridge and even Texas the stories portray life in an increasingly connected and globalized world Michael Blumenthal displays the erotic zest of Philip Roth and the grim humanism of Isaak Babel Michael Blumenthal formerly director of creative writing at Harvard graduated from the Cornell Law School with a JD degree in 1974 after studying philosophy and economics at the State University of New York at Binghamton His eighth book of poems No Hurry was published by Etruscan Press in 2012 He is currently a visiting professor of law at the West Virginia University College of Law The Burning House Paul Lisicky, 2011 This witty and astute novel explores loss desire and moral choice as a recession era family and community disintegrate into chaos

Reading the Signs and other itinerant essays Stephen Benz, 2022-05-17 These essays travel near and far to explore landscapes of personal and cultural significance and the communities that inhabit them At a time when we reexamine how policies of yesteryear shape equities in the present award winning writer Stephen Benz challenges readers to delve beyond whitewashed versions of history and reassess our treatment of native people and the environment with fresh critical eyes From westward expansion and Manifest Destiny to the Cold War and the Global War on Terror Reading the Signs prods myths and provides missing context around events touched by the American impulse to grab land and harvest resources both within and beyond our shores These essays challenge us to search for missing layers of truth and decide which versions of history should prevail With a wandering spirit and an inquisitive mind Benz ventures around town across country and overseas in search of forgotten overlooked or misunderstood stories From rock concerts and courthouses to farm towns battlegrounds historical sites and quirky museums these itinerant essays revel in discovering new wonders every mile Along with Topographies Etruscan Press and two books of travel essays Guatemalan Journey University of Texas Press and Green Dreams Travels in Central America Lonely Planet Stephen Benz has published essays in Creative Nonfiction River Teeth TriQuarterly New England Review and other journals Three of his essays have been selected for Best American Travel
