

A photograph of a wild boar mother pig lying on the ground with her piglets. The mother pig is in the center, with her head to the left and her body extending towards the right. She has dark, coarse fur. Several piglets are visible: one is in the foreground to the left, looking towards the camera; another is to the right of the mother, looking away; and a third is partially visible behind the mother's head. The ground is dark and appears to be mud or soil. The text "Der wildschweinische Terminplaner" is overlaid in a green, stylized font at the bottom of the image.
