Valley Of Redemption:

The Journey of Redemption's Voice Chad E. Taylor, 2014-02-06 The Journey of Redemptions Voice is the second published work for Chad E Taylor carrying on the collection of poetry over the past 10 years of the authors life Following the first publication of The Heart of the Journey in 2004 this collection continues the focus of growth personally and spiritually in the everyday life of a Christian This work shows the hope that Jesus Christ brings through trials tribulations and the common person struggles Life events happen and every moment is a decision whether to live life with God as your filter or to let life conquer you The Journey of Redemptions Voice circulates around what redemption is and how it changes your life Without journeying through redemption we can never appreciate JesusKwe must listen for His voice Join the journeyK Vale of Tears Edward J. Blum, W. Scott Poole, 2005 Vale of Tears New Essays in Religion and Reconstruction offers a window into the exciting work being done by historians social scientists and scholars of religious studies on the epoch of Reconstruction A time of both peril and promise Reconstruction in America became a cauldron of transformation and change This collection argues that religion provided the idiom and symbol as often the very substance of those changes The authors of this collection examine how African Americans and white Southerners New England Abolitionists and former Confederate soldiers Catholics and Protestants on both sides of the Mason Dixon line brought their sense of the sacred into collaboration and conflict Together these essays mark an important new departure in a still contested period of American history Interdisciplinary in scope and content it promises to challenge many of the traditional parameters of Reconstruction historiography The range of contributors to the project including Gaines Foster and Paul Harvey will draw a great deal of attention from Southern historians literary scholars and scholars of American religion North western reporter.
