In the last decades historians and art historians have created an active historiographical debate about one of the most fascinating and studied iconographic themes of the Middle Ages the royal divine coronation Indeed in the specific case of some Ottonian and Salian illuminations it has been proposed that their function was not only political or to legitimize power as traditionally suggested Herrscherbilder but also liturgical and religious Memorialbilder This has led to a complete rethinking of the meaning of this iconographic theme the divine coronation of the king would not symbolically allude to his earthly power but to the wholly devotional hope of receiving the crown of eternal life in the afterlife If this academic debate has been concentrated above all on Ottonian and Salian royal images this Special Issue of Arts would like to deal with this topic by stimulating the analysis of royal divine coronation and blessing scenes in religious and liturgical context mosaics frescos or paintings placed in cathedrals or monastic churches and illuminations of liturgical texts with a wider geographical and temporal setting that is the European and Mediterranean kingdoms in the period from the 12th to the 15th centuries The Story of Christianity Jean-Pierre Isbouts,2014 Focuses on the rich social and cultural history of Christianity through the ages from its roots in Palestine to its development as a global movement
