Wild An Elemental Journey:

Wild Jay Griffiths, 2006 A poetic consideration of the tender connection between human society and the wild the book is by turns passionate political funny and harrowing The Edge of Extinction Jules Pretty, 2014-12-18 In The Edge of Extinction Jules Pretty explores life and change in a dozen environments and cultures across the world taking us on a series of remarkable journeys through deserts coasts mountains steppes snowscapes marshes and farms to show that there are many different ways to live in cooperation with nature From these accounts of people living close to the land and close to the edge emerge a larger story about sustainability and the future of the planet Pretty addresses not only current threats to natural and cultural diversity but also the unsustainability of modern lifestyles typical of industrialized countries In a very real sense Pretty discovers what we manage to preserve now may well save us later Jules Pretty's travels take him among the Maori people along the coasts of the Pacific into the mountains of China and across petroglyph rich deserts of Australia He treks with nomads over the continent wide steppes of Tuva in southern Siberia walks and boats in the wildlife rich inland swamps of southern Africa and experiences the Arctic with ice fishermen in Finland He explores the coasts and inland marshes of eastern England and Northern Ireland and accompanies Innu people across the taiga's snowy forests and the lakes of the Labrador interior Pretty concludes his global journey immersed in the discrete cultures and landscapes embedded within the American landscape the small farms of the Amish the swamps of the Cajuns in the deep South and the deserts of California The diverse people Pretty meets in The Edge of Extinction display deep pride in their relationships with the land and are only willing to join with the modern world on their own terms By the examples they set they offer valuable lessons for anyone seeking to find harmony in a world cracking under the pressures of apparently insatiable consumption patterns of the affluent Modern British Nature Writing, 1789-2020 Will Abberley, Christina Alt, David Higgins, Graham Huggan, Pippa Marland, 2022-03-17 Why do we speak so much of nature today when there is so little of it left Prompted by this question this study offers the first full length exploration of modern British nature writing from the late eighteenth century to the present Focusing on non fictional prose writing the book supplies new readings of classic texts by Romantic Victorian and Contemporary authors situating these within the context of an enduringly popular genre Nature writing is still widely considered fundamentally celebratory or escapist yet it is also very much in tune with the conflicts of a natural world under threat The book's five authors connect these conflicts to the triple historical crisis of the environment of representation and of modern dissociated sensibility This book offers an informed critical approach to modern British nature writing for specialist readers as well as a valuable guide for general readers concerned by an increasingly diminished natural world Wilder Journeys Laurie King, Miriam Lancewood, 2023-03-14 Environmental writer Laurie King and internationally bestselling author Miriam Lancewood present a collection of narrative non fiction stories and poems on the human connection with nature Follow the call of the wild with these incredible true stories from an international group of nature lovers nomads and adventurers In these pages you are invited to share the wisdom they gained on their wild journeys You will walk across the Australian desert with American explorer Angela Maxwell live with Hamza Yassin and a family of eagles in Scotland survive for 10 years in an Australian forest with Gregory Smith hunt in the wilderness with Miriam Lancewood in New Zealand chart Karl Bushby's passage through the formidable Darien Gap and set up a surf school for people of colour in California with David Malana With beautiful illustrations a foreword from explorer Belinda Kirk and contributions from leading poets including David Whyte and Fatimah Asghar this book will inspire you to get out of your comfort zone and connect to your wild animal soul

Backpacking with the Saints Belden C. Lane, 2014 Backpacking with the Saints is a captivating account of solo wilderness backpacking as spiritual practice On his solitary hikes Belden Lane has as companions the great spiritual texts of the world's religions The wilderness he argues offers an enlightening approach to the texts presenting the opportunity to explore the interior landscape and the spiritual realm of nature The book thoughtfully examines the place of nature in the spiritual life and the dynamics of reading in the wild

Savage Grace Jay Griffiths, 2015-03-17 Jay Griffiths is a tour guide for anyone who has ever wished to commune with the side of our human psyche that remains in touch with the wild Equally at home among the sea gypsy Bajo people who live off the coast of Thailand and forage their food from the ocean floor drinking the psychedelic ayahuasca plant with Amazonian shamans or joining an Inuit whale hunt at the northern tip of Canada Griffiths takes readers on an adventure both charted and unchartable She divides her meditations on these travels into sections named after the ancient elemental properties of the universe Earth Air Fire Ice and Water because her subject matter is not merely the places traveled to but the depths of mind and the cultural narratives revealed by place It is a universal story told of far flung groups of humans with vastly different ways of life connected through the varied wilderness that sustains them By describing the ways in which human societies and the human mind have developed in response to the wilder elements of our homelands Savage Grace reveals itself as a benediction for the emotional intellectual and physical nourishment that people continue to draw from the natural world Under the sway of Griffiths' charisma her poetic prose and her deeply learned and persuasive case for the wild roots of our shared human being we learn that we are all each and every one of us a force of nature

ECOS, 2005 English Topographies in Literature and Culture, 2016-08-01 English Topographies in Literature and Culture takes a spatial approach to the study of English culture In order to gain a fresh perspective on constructions of English cultural identity the collection treats geography social spaces and spatial practices as well as representations of space and place as complex constellations termed cultural topographies Individual contributions focus on writing landscapes London psychogeography heritage discourses urban planning and idiosyncratic spatial practices such as suburban gardening In line with the affective turn the investigated cultural topographies transcend the dichotomy between the material and the immaterial through embodiment and embeddedness displaying a new sensitivity in textual visual and aural representations that seek to transcend an anthropocentric perspective
