Gililov ((И́ля)), Ilya Gililov, 2003 Gililov Secretary of the Russian Academy of Sciences Shakespeare Committee sets out in intricate detective novel detail why he believes the fifth Earl of Rutland and his wife actually wrote most of Shakespeare's work The Dark Side of Shakespeare: an Elizabethan Courtier, Diplomat, Spymaster, & Epic Hero W. Ron Hess, 2003-10-29 The Dark Side of Shakespeare trilogy by W Ron Hess has been his 20 year undertaking to try to fill in many of the gaps in knowledge of Shakespeare's personality and times The first two volumes investigated wide ranging topics including the key intellectual attributes that Shakespeare exhibited in his works including the social and political events of the 1570s to early 1600s This was when Hess believes the Bard's works were being originated the earliest phases of artistry from conception or inspiration to the first of multiple iterations of writing Hess highlights a peculiar fascination that the Bard had with the half brother of Spain's Philip II the heroic Don Juan of Austria or in 1571 the Victor of Lepanto From that fascination as determined by characters based on Don Juan in the plays e.g the villain Don John in Much Ado and other matters Hess even made so bold as to propose a series of phases from the mid 1570s to mid 80s in which he feels each Shakespeare play had been originated or some early form of each play then existed if not in writing at least in the Bard's imagination. Thus the creative process Hess describes is a vastly more protracted one than most Shakespeare scholars would admit to the absurd notion that the Bard would jot off the lines of a work in a few days or weeks and then immediately have it performed on the public stage or published shortly thereafter. Still, it dominates orthodox dating systems for the canon. Hess draws on the works of many other scholars for using topical allusions within each work in order to set practical limits for when the origination and subsequent alterations of each play occurred. In the trilogy's Volume III Hess continues to amplify a heroic knight errant personality type that Shakespeare's very pen name may have been drawn from a type which envied and transcended the brutal chivalry of Don Juan. This was channeled into a patriotic anti-Spanish and pro-British imperial spirit particularly with regard to reforming and improving the English language so that it could rival the Greco-Roman, Italian, and French poetic traditions, one upping the best that the greats of antiquity and the Renaissance had achieved in literature. In fact, as vast as the story is that Hess tells in his three volumes, there is a huge volume of material he is making available out of print on his webpage at <http://home.earthlink.net/beornshall/index.html> and via a Volume IV that he plans to offer on CD for a nominal cost via his e-mail BeornsHall@earthlink.net. Among this added material is a searchable 1000-page Chronological listing of Everything that Hess deems relevant to Shakespeare and his age or to the providing of the canon to modern times. Hess feels that discernable patterns can be detected through that chronology that help to illuminate the roles of others in the Bard's circle such as Anthony Munday and Thomas Heywood. The network of 16th and 17th century Stationers, printers, publishers, and book sellers and their often curious doings provide many of those patterns. Hess invites his readers to help to continuously update the Chronology and other materials so that those can remain worthwhile research resources for all to use. For the mysteries of Shakespeare and his age can only be unraveled through fully understanding the patterns within.
