Wind-blown Snow Malcolm Mellor, 1986 Blow, Wind, Blow! Zelna Banks Windt, 2010-10 Blow Wind Blow is a whimsical tale about a young boy who day dreams about doing impossible things What young boy doesn't On this particular day he wonders how it would feel to blow like the Wind He imagines himself floating through the air and blowing all sorts of things the way his friend the Wind does Then he starts to rethink the whole idea and ends up imagining something that would probably be quite a treat for his friend the Wind As The Wayward Wind Blows Curtis Parris, 2021-12-02 This book marks the first time that the poetry of Curtis Wayne Parris appears in print The poems were selected to showcase Parris mastery of verse and provide readers with a broad range of poetic styles from Parris diverse catalog Readers should be advised and forewarned that they are about to enter into a world of hauntingly beautiful prose and verse that spans the spectrum of human emotion from zeniths of bliss to nadirs of sorrow In his cosmic meanderings Parris wanders through psychedelic dreamscapes of sublime beauty but also descends into the deepest gorges of despair Through linguistic alchemy Parris skillfully blends subject sound syntax and syncopation to create naturally rhythmic poems charged with pure emotion Blessed with a gift for alliteration and cadence Parris uses simple everyday words to convey the most intimate and horrifying details of his life Parris does not seek exposure nor notoriety for he lives in a world of night of moonscapes and shadows Instead Parris writes because he has a tempest inside Parris injects metaphysical concepts into his poems frequently traveling through time space and other dimensions as he explores the mysterious universe within his mind In these respects his poems can touch upon ancient nerves for we are all to some degree or another just fellow travelers in time journeying through life seeking solace and awaiting final destinations Into this abstract poetic tapestry Parris weaves his observations on life death religion and politics Come along and take a journey through the land of dreams Magnetical and Meteorological Observations Made at the Royal Observatory, Greenwich Royal Observatory (Greenwich), 1844

Lewis and Clark Vernon Preston, 2013-01-22 By Terry Nathans the weather and climate of the trans Mississippi west was virtually unknown at the beginning of the nineteenth century This changed dramatically shortly after the Louisiana Purchase was signed in 1803 which set the stage for acquiring the first systematic weather measurements of the trans Mississippi west The framework for obtaining these measurements was outlined in the now famous June 20 1803 letter from President Thomas Jefferson to his protégé and personal secretary Captain Meriwether Lewis In that letter Jefferson instructed Lewis to plan and carry out an overland expedition to the Pacific Ocean for the purposes of commerce and to observe and record a broad range of natural history subjects including the climate as characterised by the thermometer by the proportion of rainy cloudy clear days by lightning hail snow ice by the access recess of frost by the winds prevailing at different seasons the dates at which particular plants put forth or lose their flower or leaf Jackson 1978 p 63 Jefferson's instructions to Lewis which were part of his decades long ambition of launching an expedition to explore the interior of North America were made at the threshold of what Fleming 1990 has called the expanding horizons in meteorology During this period more reliable meteorological instruments began to emerge allowing for a more comprehensive and systematic acquisition of weather data
