Plurilingual Pedagogies Sunny Man Chu Lau, Saskia Van Viegen, 2020-04-10 This book critically engages with theoretical shifts marked by the multilingual turn in applied linguistics and articulates the complexities associated with naming and engaging with the everyday language practices of bi multilingual communities It discusses methodological approaches that enable researchers and educators to observe and interact with these communities and to understand their teaching and learning needs It also highlights pedagogical approaches and instructional strategies involved with learning and teaching language and or content curriculum to students across various learning and educational contexts The book addresses recent debates on the multi plural turn in applied linguistics and articulates the limitations of these debates particularly the absence of discussion of social power relations and contexts in applying different theoretical lenses It features empirical research from primarily North American classrooms to highlight how plurilingual pedagogies take shape in unique educational contexts resisting monolingual approaches to language in education Furthermore it includes commentary response pieces from established scholars in dialogue with recent plurilingual research in the field to put the work in critical perspective within extant theories and literature

Social and Cognitive Development in the Context of Individual, Social, and Cultural Processes Janette Benson, Catherine Raeff, 2004-06-01 Several recent analyses have focused on how social and cultural factors shape development but less well understood are the individual constructive processes involved in this interplay This volume showcases varied theoretical and empirical approaches to how individual social and cultural factors shape development and suggests new directions for future scholarship
