Togo Tourist Destination History Tourism:

Togo, a New Tourist Destination, History and Tourism Sampson Jerry, Anderson Jones, 2015-12-19 Togo is obviously one of the smallest countries in Africa. Because of its unfamiliarity, Togo is an ideal destination for the adventurous traveler. The coastline is peppered with variety of attractions. Togo's museums are another must for citizens and visitors alike with some of the best collections of art and artifacts on the continent. Are you wondering where to go for a vacation with your loved ones for a change of air and water? Want to explore the beauty of a savanna land? Then Togo travel will be a wonderful idea to explore the country's scenic beauty along with the vivacity of Togo culture. Togo is a narrow piece of land bordering Ghana in the west, the Bight of Benin in the east, and Burkina Faso in the north. Togo is located in the south western part of the African continent. However, Togo also shares some of its land with the sea and its coastline extends up to 56 kilometers. Lome is the main port of Togo where international trade is carried out. Every year Togo attracts thousands of visitors to unleash its exotic beauty. The Togo climate is tropical and is humid in the south, whereas the northern Togo observes semiarid climate.
