Under The Basho Autumn 2013:

Yanty's Butterfly: Haiku Nook: An Anthology Jacob Salzer, Haiku Nook, 2016-02-19 Yanty's Butterfly is an international haiku anthology dedicated to Yanty Tjiam 1981-2015 and her family. Yanty was a haiku poet who passed away in 2015. She was a beloved member of our Haiku Nook community on Google+. In honor of Yanty, 20 poets from Canada, the U.K., Germany, Persia, Sri Lanka, Ukraine, South Africa, Taiwan, the Philippines, and the U.S. have come together to create this anthology. In the spirit of Yanty Tjiam and global connectedness, our anthology embodies a transformative power all its own. Yanty's Butterfly consists of over 600 poems spanning the variety of haiku forms: three line haiku, two line haiku, one line haiku, four line haiku, traditional haiku, 5-7-5 concrete haiku, tanka, and haibun. Featuring haiku from Yanty Tjiam, George Klacsanzky, Fei Zhan, and award-winning poet Alan Summers, Yanty's Butterfly is an essential addition to the haiku literature of the 21st century.

The Insurmountable Darkness of Love Douglas E. Christie, 2022 This book is a reflection on the meaning of spiritual darkness, especially those difficult places in human experience where meaning seems to elude us, where we are emptied out and are compelled to dig deeper into who we truly are. Douglas E. Christie takes up this facet of experience in ordinary human experience but also in relation to the Christian contemplative and mystical traditions where such experience is often understood to be both painful and transformative, allowing the mind and heart to open in love.

Haruki Murakami and the Search for Self-Therapy Jonathan Dil, 2022-02-24 Haruki Murakami, a global literary phenomenon, has said that he started writing fiction as a means of self-therapy. What he has not discussed as much is what he needed self-therapy for. This book argues that by understanding more about why Murakami writes and by linking this with the question of how he writes, readers can better understand what he writes. Murakami's fiction, in other words, can be read as a search for self-therapy. In five chapters which explore Murakami's fourteen novels to date, this book argues that there are four prominent therapeutic threads woven through Murakami's fiction that can be traced back to his personal traumas, most notably Murakami's falling out with his late father and the death of a former girlfriend, and which have also transcended them in significant ways as they have been transformed into literary fiction. The first thread looks at the way melancholia must be worked through for mourning to occur and healing to happen. The second thread looks at how symbolic acts of sacrifice can help to heal intergenerational trauma. The third thread looks at the way people with avoidant attachment styles can begin to open themselves up to love again. The fourth thread looks at how individuation can manifest as a response to nihilism. Meticulously researched and written with sensitivity, the result is a sophisticated exploration of Murakami's published novels as an evolving therapeutic project that will be of great value to all scholars of Japanese literature and culture.
