Spencer And of those none have devoted as much time and effort as he to a theological reading of that sacred text that is as Spencer writes how it might shape responsible thinking about questions pertaining to the life of religious commitment p 1 173 The Anatomy of Book of Mormon Theology divides into two volumes exploring and thinking about these pertinent questions Whereas the first volume principally contains essays that deal with relatively traditional theological questions and concerns the essays in this volume ask about what new worlds might be discovered in doing theological work on the Book of Mormon focusing on what Spencer calls microscopic and macroscopic theological readings of the text Essays in the first set examine no more than a verse of the Book of Mormon more often just a single phrase or two to see what theological implications lie within the details of the text The second set of essays ask questions about the shape and intentions of the whole of the Book of Mormon as this can be discerned through the ways it deploys biblical texts and especially the writings of Isaiah A third set of essays follows the two on microscopic and macroscopic styles of theology and are invitations to blur the boundaries that separate different styles of Book of Mormon scholarship These final essays call on Book of Mormon scholars to move closer to theology and calls on theologians to move closer to the Book of Mormon Interpreter: A Journal of Latter-day Saint Faith and Scholarship, Volume 35 (2020)

Kofford Books takes a detailed verse by verse look at the Book of Mormon. It marshals the best of modern scholarship and new insights into a consistent picture of the Book of Mormon as a historical document. Taking a faithful but scholarly approach to the text and reading it through the insights of linguistics, anthropology, and ethnohistory, the commentary approaches the text from a variety of perspectives: how it was created, how it relates to history and culture, and what religious insights it provides. The commentary accepts the best modern scholarship, which focuses on a particular region of Mesoamerica as the most plausible location for the Book of Mormon's setting. For the first time, that location, its peoples, cultures, and historical trends are used as the backdrop for reading the text. The historical background is not presented as proof but rather as an explanatory context. The commentary does not forget Mormon's purpose in writing. It discusses the doctrinal and theological aspects of the text and highlights the way in which Mormon created it to meet his goal of convincing the Jew and Gentile that Jesus is the Christ, the Eternal God.

Book of Mormon Seminary Home-Study Guide The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 2013-10-22. The home study seminary program is designed to help you strengthen your understanding of the gospel of Jesus Christ and apply its teachings in your daily life through a study of the scriptures. For your study this school year, you will first complete reading assignments from the scripture text for this course, the Book of Mormon, and then you will complete the individual lessons. Once a week, you will meet with a seminary teacher to submit your work and participate in a weekly lesson. Seminary is a daily religious education program. Prayerfully studying your scriptures should be a daily practice. You will need to work on your seminary assignments each school day, even though you will not attend a seminary class each day. There are 32 units to be completed during the course. The reading chart on page viii shows what you should study for each unit. Your teacher will help you understand when each unit is due. The lessons in this study guide should each take about 30 minutes to complete, in addition to your daily scripture study. You should have two scripture study journals or two notebooks, separate from your personal journal, in which you will write the assignments from the study guide activities. Each week that you meet with your teacher, you should turn in the scripture study journal containing the completed assignments from the study guide activities you completed for that week. Your teacher will read and respond to the assignments and return that scripture study journal to you the following week You could also write your responses on paper in a loose leaf binder and turn in the pages you did that week Then when your teacher returns the pages you could put them back into the notebook
