Ceramics Moira Vincentelli, 2000 This pioneering collection of essays deals with the topic of how Irish literature responds to the presence of non Irish immigrants in Celtic Tiger and post Celtic Tiger Ireland The book assembles an international group of 18 leading and prestigious academics in the field of Irish studies from both sides of the Atlantic including Declan Kiberd Anne Fogarty and Maureen T Reddy amongst others Key areas of discussion are what does it mean to be multicultural and what are the implications of this condition for contemporary Irish writers How has literature in Ireland responded to inward migration Have Irish writers reflected in their work either explicitly or implicitly the existence of migrant communities in Ireland If so are elements of Irish traditional culture and community maintained or transformed What is the social and political efficacy of these intercultural artistic visions Writers discussed include Hugo Hamilton Roddy Doyle Colum McCann il s N Dhuibhne Dermot Bolger Chris Binchy Michael O Loughlin Emer Martin and Kate O Riordan Musical Women in England, 1870-1914 NA NA,2000-07-07 Musical Women in England 1870 1914 delineates the roles women played in the flourishing music world of late Victorian and early twentieth century England and shows how contemporary challenges to restrictive gender roles inspired women to move into new areas of musical expression both in composition and performance The most famous women musicians were the internationally renowned stars of opera greatly admired despite their violations of the prescribed Victorian linkage of female music making with domesticity the divas were often compared to the sirens of antiquity their irresistible voices a source of moral danger to their male admirers Their ambiguous social reception notwithstanding the extraordinary ability and striking self confidence of these women and of pioneering female soloists on the violin long an instrument permitted only to men inspired fiction writers to feature musician heroines and motivated unprecedented numbers of girls and women to pursue advanced musical study Finding professional orchestras almost fully closed to them many female graduates of English conservatories performed in small ensembles and in all female and amateur orchestras and sought to earn their living in the overcrowded world of music teaching The Exotic Woman in Nineteenth-century British Fiction and Culture Piya Pal-Lapinski,2005 A fresh and provocative approach to representations of exotic women in Victorian Britain Creating the Perfect Form Janet Wood,2024-05-30 How can the cut of a 19th century gown control its shape Can you re create a historic profile from a contemporary mannequin How can paintings help you analyse historic silhouettes and the corsets and petticoats worn underneath Conservation and historic dress display specialist Janet Wood will help you answer all these questions You ll learn how historic garments can be safely handled and shown to best effect with insight into the characteristic features of each piece and how to translate them from the garment to a display support Concentrating on Western women s wear from 1750 1950 and with over 250 colour images plus drawings and charts you ll learn how to interpret an individual garment s display needs and create safe appropriate display forms

Encyclopedia of Nineteenth-Century Photography John Hannavy,2013-12-16 The Encyclopedia of Nineteenth Century Photography is the first comprehensive encyclopedia of world photography up to the beginning of the twentieth century It sets out to be the standard definitive reference work on the subject for years to come Its coverage is global an important first in that authorities from all over the world have contributed their expertise and scholarship towards making this a truly comprehensive publication The Encyclopedia presents new and ground breaking research alongside accounts of the major established figures in the nineteenth century arena Coverage includes all the key people processes equipment movements styles debates and groupings which helped photography develop from being a solution in search of a problem when first invented to the essential communication tool creative medium and recorder of everyday life which it had become

by the dawn of the twentieth century The sheer breadth of coverage in the 1200 essays makes the Encyclopedia of Nineteenth Century Photography an essential reference source for academics students researchers and libraries worldwide

Reading Early Modern Women Helen Ostovich,Elizabeth Sauer,Melissa Smith,2004 This remarkable anthology assembles for the first time 144 primary texts and documents written by women between 1550 and 1700 and reveals an unprecedented view of the intellectual and literary lives of women in early modern England Virtual Victorians Veronica Alfano,Andrew Stauffer,2016-01-18 Exploring how scholars use digital resources to reconstruct the 19th century this volume probes key issues in the intersection of digital humanities and history Part I examines the potential of online research tools for literary scholarship while Part II outlines a prehistory of digital virtuality by exploring specific Victorian cultural forms

Childhood by Design Megan Brandow-Faller,2018-04-19 Informed by the analytical practices of the interdisciplinary material turn and social historical studies of childhood Childhood By Design Toys and the Material Culture of Childhood offers new approaches to the material world of childhood and design culture for children This volume situates toys and design culture for children within broader narratives on history art design and the decorative arts where toy design has traditionally been viewed as an aberration from more serious pursuits The essays included treat toys not merely as unproblematic reflections of socio cultural constructions of childhood but consider how design culture actively shaped commodified and materialized shifting discursive constellations surrounding childhood and children Focusing on the new array of material objects designed in response to the modern invention of childhood what we might refer to as objects for a childhood by design Childhood by Design explores dynamic tensions between theory and practice discursive constructions and lived experience as embodied in the material culture of childhood Contributions from and between a variety of disciplinary perspectives including history art history material cultural studies decorative arts design history and childhood studies are represented critically linking historical discourses of childhood with close study of material objects and design culture Chronologically the volume spans the 18th century which witnessed the invention of the toy as an educational plaything and a proliferation of new material artifacts designed expressly for children s use through the 19th century expansion of factory based methods of toy production facilitating accuracy in miniaturization and a new vocabulary of design objects coinciding with the recognition of childhood innocence and physical separation within the household towards the intersection of early 20th century child centered pedagogy and modernist approaches to nursery and furniture design through the changing consumption and sales practices of the postwar period marketing directly to children through television film and other digital media and into the present where the line between the material culture of childhood and adulthood is increasingly blurred Crafting the Woman Professional in the Long Nineteenth Century Kyriaki Hadjiafxendi,Patricia Zakreski,2016-05-13 Over the course of the nineteenth century women in Britain participated in diverse and prolific forms of artistic labour As they created objects and commodities that blurred the boundaries between domestic and fine art production they crafted subjectivities for themselves as creative workers By bringing together work by scholars of literature painting music craft and the plastic arts this collection argues that the constructed and contested nature of the female artistic professional was a notable aspect of debates about aesthetic value and the impact of industrial technologies All the essays in this volume set up a productive inter art dialogue that complicates conventional binary divisions such as amateur and professional public and private artistry and industry in order to provide a more nuanced understanding of the relationship between gender artistic labour and creativity in the period Ultimately how women faced the pragmatics of their own creative labour as they pursued vocations trades and professions in the literary marketplace and related art industries reveals the different ideological positions surrounding the transition of women from industrious amateurism to professional artistry

Women, Environment, and Networks of Empire Anna Winterbottom, Victoria Dickenson, Ben Cartwright, Lauren Williams, 2023-10-15 Elizabeth Gwillim 1763 1807 and her sister Mary Symonds 1772 1854 produced over two hundred watercolours depicting birds fish flowers people and landscapes around Madras now Chennai The sisters detailed letters fill four large volumes in the British Library their artwork is in the Blacker Wood Natural History Collection of McGill University Library in Canada and in the South Asia Collection in Britain The first book about their work and lives Women Environment and Networks of Empire asks what these materials reveal about nature society and environment in early nineteenth century South India Gwillim and Symonds left for India in 1801 following the appointment of Elizabeth's husband Henry Gwillim to the Supreme Court of Madras Their paintings document on one hand the rapidly expanding colonial city of Madras and its population and on the other the natural environment and wildlife of the city Gwillim's paintings of birds are remarkable for their detail naturalism and accuracy In their studies of natural history Gwillim and Symonds relied on the expertise of Indian bird catchers fishermen physicians artists and translators contributing to a unique intersection of European and Asian natural knowledge The sisters extensive correspondence demonstrates how women shaped networks of trade and scholarship through exchanges of plants books textiles and foods In Women Environment and Networks of Empire an interdisciplinary group of scholars use the paintings and writings of Elizabeth Gwillim and Mary Symonds to explore natural history the changing environment colonialism and women's lives at the turn of the nineteenth century

Girlhood of Shakespeare's Sisters Jennifer Higginbotham, 2013-01-17 The first sustained study of girls and girlhood in early modern literature and culture Jennifer Higginbotham makes a persuasive case for a paradigm shift in our current conceptions of the early modern sex gender system She challenges the widespread assumption that the category of the girl played little or no role in the construction of gender in early modern English culture And she demonstrates that girl characters appeared in a variety of texts from female infants in Shakespeare's late romances to little children in Tudor interludes to adult roaring girls in city comedies This monograph provides the first book length study of the way the literature and drama of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries constructed the category of the girl
