Voice From The Planet:

The Voice of the Earth Theodore Roszak, 1993 Discusses how humans psychological and physical well being is linked to the health of the planet including issues such as the Anthropic Principle and the Gaia Hypothesis Charting the Supernatural Judgements of Planet Earth Jerimiah Asher, 2010-08-10 Chapter 3 The First Judgment The World Prior To Adam There may have been many judgments upon the earth since its beginning millions or billions of years ago however the present commentary will deal only with the last tens of thousands of years of earth s existence In Genesis 1 2 the verses written by Moses as author of the Genesis account portray an earth that was veiled in darkness so that its form could not be discerned The earth at that time was covered with water ice high above the mountain tops so that it gave the appearance of being a dark revolving sphere of frozen water Table 2 God s spirit is described as hovering over this revolving ball of water and brooding over the sad condition of this dark void planet God did not create a dark and dismal planet at the beginning because God does not create darkness in fact darkness is incompatible with His existence and presence So what had happened that God viewed Gen 1 2 such a decrepit state of the world Does scripture attempt to explain this phenomenon or does the inspired word of God remain silent on this issue It was first proposed as a theory by the Scotsman Thomas Chalmers in the early 19th century that a gap in time existed between Genesis 1 1 and Genesis 1 2 This gap in time would encompass a ruin reconstruction theme and the existence of pre Adamic living beings Obviously a huge catastrophic event would have had to occur to produce this decadent state of the world The gap concept was later popularized by mention in the margin notes of the Scofield Reference Bible Postcolonial Poetry and the Environment Pramod K. Nayar, 2025-10-30 Examining a wide variety of poets from the last three decades of the 20th century to the present from Asian African South American and settler colonies such as Canada and Australia Pramod K Nayar maps a poetry of ecological care vulnerability and resilience While environmental fiction has been widely studied environmental poetry has not received the same level of attention In Postcolonial Poetry and the Environment Nayar studies the work of over 50 poets from the Global South and the formerly colonized including John Kinsella Tanure Ojaide Linda Hogan Kofi Awonoor Okot p Bitek Ben Okri and Sherwin Bitsui He traces an ecological consciousness that cuts across human and nonhuman living and non living domains This book is interested in the making unmaking and remaking of worlds and meanings in the age of cataclysmic climate shifts while aware of the histories that fashioned the planet in unjust and unequal ways and to which the poets bear witness as well as proposing alternative ways of seeing and meaning making "The Space of Words" Jennifer Miller Hoyer, 2014 Nelly Sachs 1891 1970 has long been regarded as one of the most significant Holocaust poets Her conception of language and words as a landscape has been understood by scholars and critics as an exilic ersatz Heimat for the lost German homeland of a displaced poet This reading however is based entirely on her postwar poems Such an isolated approach to her complex body of work is increasingly historically problematic it is also at odds with Sachs s generally cyclical poetic process In The Space of Words Jennifer Hoyer offers the first sustained critical analysis of Sachs's largely unanalyzed prewar poetry and prose as well as the first analysis that examines structural and thematic ties between the prewar works and the Nobel Prize winning postwar poetry Through close readings of both Sachs's prewar and postwar works Hoyer reveals a diasporic rather than exilic conception of the landscape of language a position of constant wandering rather than static longing for return This diasporic poetics promotes the intellectual and linguistic power of the wanderer and opens new insights into Sachs's essential significance as a Holocaust poet and a twentieth century German Jewish writer wary of the link of literary language to geopolitics and the narrative of nations Jennifer M Hoyer is Assistant Professor of German at the University of Arkansas

Global Science Fiction Gary Westfahl, 2025-06-18 Science fiction represents a diverse community of writers and readers that spans the entire world This collection provides a global tour of the genre with essays about Latin American European African Arabic Indian Japanese and Chinese science fiction providing insights about how writers around the world have explored and reinvigorated the genre Essays by prominent critics from five continents inform about particular cultures and analyze representative texts by authors such as Tobias S Buckell Lourenco Mutarelli Stanislaw Lem Masande Ntshanga Tawfiq Al Hakim Anil Menon and Cixin Liu The contributing scholars examine how national experiences have shaped these narratives which often differ strikingly from Anglo American science fiction An introductory survey of foreign language science fiction in the United States endeavors to explain why so many of these texts have remained unknown to Anglophone readers An extensive bibliography lists numerous resources for further study of science fiction from various parts of the world

Reading with Earth Anne Elvey, 2022-08-25 Winner of the 2023 ANZATS Award for the Best Monograph by an Established Scholar Applying a re-envisioned ecological feminist hermeneutics this book builds on two important responses to twentieth and twenty first century situations of ecological trauma especially the complex contexts of climate change and cross species relations first ecological feminism second ecological hermeneutics in the Earth Bible tradition By way of readings of selected biblical texts this book suggests that an ecological feminist aesthetic bringing present situation and biblical text into conversation through engagement with activism and literature principally poetry is helpful in decolonizing ethics Such an approach is both informed by and speaks back to the new materialism in ecological criticism The voice of the planet Soraya Pourian, 2003

Sorrow's Earth R.L. Mullineaux, 2015-04-30 The Grand Crossfyre Odyssey an ancient circus travels from planet to planet across the galaxy displaying for entertainment the wares of an Earth long forgotten Xavian Crossfyre is resigned to his fate training under his father to become the next Ring Master of the GCO when he meets Sorrow a stowaway posing as the niece of the GCO's pilot In a galaxy where Earthlings are considered second class citizens Sorrow longs for freedom and sanctuary On the other hand Xavian's life has been sheltered aboard the GCO Meeting Sorrow forces him to face the reality of his place as an Earthling and what that means The Ring Master's son and the Stowaway's lives are thrown into turmoil when the secret Sorrow is keeping threatens the future of the GCO and those whose lives
