Tributary Voices Paul A. Formisano, 2022-04-26 The Colorado River is in crisis Persistent drought climate change and growing demands from ongoing urbanization threaten this life source that provides water to more than forty million people in the U S and Mexico Coupled with these challenges are our nation s deeply rooted beliefs about the region as a frontier garden and wilderness that have created competing agendas about the river as something to both exploit and preserve Over the last century and a half citizens and experts looked to law public policy and science to solve worsening water problems Yet today s circumstances demand additional perspectives to foster a more sustainable relationship with the river Through literary rhetorical and historical analysis of some of the Colorado River s lesser known stakeholders Tributary Voices considers a more comprehensive approach to river management on the eve of the one hundredth anniversary of the signing of the Colorado River Compact which governs the allocation of water rights to the seven states in the region Ranging from the early twentieth century to the present Tributary Voices examines nature writing women s narratives critiques of dam development the Latina o communities appeals for river restoration American Indian authors and tribal nations claims of water sovereignty and teachings about environmental stewardship and provident living This innovative study models an interdisciplinary approach to water governance and reinvigorates our imagination in achieving a more sustainable water ethic

Decolonizing Research in Cross-Cultural Contexts Kagendo Mutua, Beth Blue Swadener, 2004-02-03 International scholars share their experiences with the challenges inherent in representing indigenous cultures and decolonizing cross cultural research

Hearts, Minds, Voices Jason C. Parker, 2016-09-01 The Cold War superpowers endeavored mightily to win hearts and minds abroad through what came to be called public diplomacy While many target audiences were on the conflict s original front lines in Europe the vast majority resided in areas in the throes of decolonization and experienced the Cold War as public diplomacy as a media war for their allegiance rather than as violence In these areas superpower public diplomacy encountered volatile issues of race empire poverty and decolonization which intersected with the dynamics of the Cold War and with anti imperialist currents The challenge to US public diplomacy was acute Jim Crow and Washington s European imperial alliances were inseparable from the image of the United States and put American outreach unavoidably on the defensive Newly independent voices in the non European world responded to this media war by launching public diplomacy campaigns of their own In addition to validating the strategic importance of public diplomacy they articulated a different vision of the postwar world Rejecting the superpowers Cold War they forged the Third World project around nonalignment post imperial economic development and anti colonial racial solidarity In doing so Jason C Parker argues the United States inadvertently helped to nurture the Third World as a transnational imagined community on the postwar global landscape Tracing US public diplomacy during the early years of the Cold War Hearts Minds Voices

narrates how US foreign policy engaged with and impacted the Global South and international history more broadly

Scholarly Engagement and Decolonisation Maurice Crul, Liezl Dick, Halleh Ghorashi, Abel Valenzuela Jr, 2020-06-09

Considering that one of the core tasks of academia is to provide social critique and reflection universities have an undeniable role to formulate the contours of a more inclusive academia in contrast to visible and normalised structures of exclusion Translating such ambitions into transformative practices seems to be easier said than done Academics need mutual inspiration and exchange of thoughts and practices to reflect on their actions and their own knowledge productions The authors in this book mirror the challenges and achievements of academics and practitioners in three national contexts which could serve as a foundation for academia to move towards dismantling elitist and privileged based assumptions and formulating new forms of knowledge production and institutional policies inside and outside academia The book aims to help create a more inclusive society in which academics students and practitioners can engage learn and transform structures of inequality exclusion and disconnection where it seems to have the biggest impact Postcolonial Homiletics? Wessel

Wessels, 2024-03-29 This book pursues the question of consciousness and thought through the art of preaching in a postcolonial era Indeed the past has bestowed upon the present the legacy of colonization and in the South African context apartheid However the endeavor of postcolonizing theology and homiletics is a contentious space that has not been settled This book promotes a counterargument to the prevalent directions of decolonization by focusing on three themes of importance consciousness perspective and identity through the insights of primary postcolonial sources Decolonizing Management and Organization Studies Emamdeen Fohim, 2025-09-08 The ebook edition of this title is Open Access and freely available to read online This volume paves the way forward on what scholars from management and organization studies can or should not do to decolonize their discipline Decolonising Knowledge and Knowers Mlamuli Nkosingphile

Hlatshwayo, Hanelie Adendorff, Margaret A.L. Blackie, Aslam Fataar, Paul Maluleka, 2022-04-21 Decolonising Knowledge and Knowers contributes to the current struggles for decolonising education in the global South focusing on the highly illuminating case of South African higher education Galvanised by FeesMustFall and RhodesMustFall student protests South Africa has seen particularly intense and broad social engagement with debates over decolonising universities However much of this debate has been consumed with definitions and meanings In contrast Decolonising Knowledge and Knowers shows how conceptual tools specifically from Legitimation Code Theory can be enacted in research and teaching to meaningfully work towards productive decolonisation Each chapter addresses a key issue in contemporary debates in South African higher education and show how practices concerning knowledge and knowers are playing a role drawing on quantitative and qualitative research praxis and interdisciplinary research The Routledge International Handbook on Decolonizing Justice

Chris Cunneen, Antje Deckert, Amanda Porter, Juan Tauri, Robert Webb, 2023-07-03 The Routledge International Handbook on Decolonizing Justice focuses on the growing worldwide movement aimed at decolonizing state policies and practices and various disciplinary knowledges including criminology social work and law The collection of original chapters brings together cutting edge politically engaged work from a diverse group of writers who take as a starting point an analysis founded in a decolonizing decolonial and or Indigenous standpoint Centering the perspectives of Black First Nations and other racialized and minoritized peoples the book makes an internationally significant contribution to the literature The chapters include analyses of specific decolonization policies and interventions instigated by communities to enhance jurisdictional self determination theoretical approaches to decolonization the importance of research and research ethics as a key foundation of the decolonization process crucial contemporary issues including deaths in custody state crime reparations and transitional justice and critical analysis of key institutions of control including police courts corrections child protection systems and other forms of carcerality The handbook is divided into five sections which reflect the breadth of the decolonizing literature Why decolonization From the personal to the global State terror and violence Abolishing the carceral Transforming and decolonizing justice Disrupting epistemic violence This book offers a comprehensive and timely resource for activists students academics and those with an interest in Indigenous studies decolonial and post colonial studies criminal legal institutions and criminology It provides critical commentary and analyses of the major issues for enhancing social justice internationally The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

International Indigenous Voices in Social Work Michael Anthony Hart, Amanda Burton, Kimberly Hart, 2016-08-17 In 2013 the International Indigenous Voices in Social Work Conference was held in Winnipeg Canada with Indigenous and non Indigenous participants from all over the world This book is a collaboration of works stemming from this conference and reflects the conference's theme of Indigenous Knowledges resurgence implementation and collaboration As Indigenous scholars and practitioners and non Indigenous allies the contributors here see the importance of Indigenous Knowledges for social work and related professions Furthermore they recognize that the colonial structures that are in place throughout the globe can only be dismantled through reliance on Indigenous knowledges and practices This book makes a leading and impactful contribution to these anti colonial and Indigenous efforts

Reclaiming Indigenous Voice and Vision Marie Battiste, 2011-11-01 This book seeks to clarify postcolonial Indigenous thought beginning at the new millennium It represents the voices of the first generation of global Indigenous scholars and converges those voices their analyses and their dreams of a decolonized world Marie Battiste Author The essays in Reclaiming Indigenous Voice and Vision spring from an International Summer Institute held in 1996 on the cultural restoration of oppressed Indigenous peoples The contributors primarily Indigenous unravel the processes of colonization that enfolded modern society and resulted in the oppression of Indigenous peoples The authors among them Gregory Cajete Erica Irene Daes Bonnie Duran and Eduardo Duran James Youngblood Henderson Linda Hogan Leroy Little Bear Ted Moses Linda Tuhiwai Te Rina Smith Graham Hingangaroa Smith and Robert Yazzie draw on a range of disciplines professions and experiences Addressing four urgent and necessary issues mapping colonialism diagnosing colonialism healing colonized Indigenous peoples and imagining postcolonial visions they provide new frameworks for understanding how and why colonization has been so pervasive and tenacious among Indigenous peoples They also envision what they would desire in a truly postcolonial context In moving and inspiring ways Reclaiming Indigenous Voice and Vision elaborates a new inclusive vision of a global and national order and articulates new approaches for protecting healing and restoring long oppressed peoples and for respecting their cultures and languages

Decolonizing Literacies Towani Duchscher, Kimberly Lenters, 2023-09-27 This volume examines the ways in literacy has been used as a weapon and a means for settler colonialism challenging colonized definitions of literacy and centring relationships as key to broadening understandings It begins by confronting the multiple ways that settler colonialism has used literacy and definitions of literacy as a gatekeeper to participation in society In response to settler colonialism's violent acts of extraction displacement and replacement enacted upon the land the resources the people and understandings of literacy the editors propose a unique approach to decolonizing understandings of literacy through a triangulation of disruption reclamation and remembering relationships This is enacted and explored through a range of diverse chapter contributions written in the form of stories poems artworks theatres and essays allowing the authentic voices of the authors to shine through and opening up the English Language Arts as a space for engagement and interpretation with diverse racialized understandings of literacy Disrupting Eurocentric colonized understandings that narrowly define literacy as reading and writing the colonial word and advancing the movement to decolonize education it will be of key interest to scholars researchers and educators with interest in literacy education decolonizing education anti racist education inclusive education land based literacy and arts based literacy

Our Voices Alberto González, Yea-Wen Chen, 2016 Brief original essays teach students about particular cultures through the perspective of someone within that culture promoting greater understanding of others

Decolonizing Equity Billie Allan, Rhonda Hackett, 2022-05-15T00:00:00Z Institutions everywhere seem to be increasingly aware of their roles in settler colonialism and anti Black racism As such many racialized workers find themselves tasked with developing equity plans for their departments associations or faculties This collection acknowledges this work as both survival and burden for Black Indigenous and racialized peoples It highlights what we already know and are already doing in our respective areas and offers a vision of what equity can look like through a decolonial lens What helps us to make this work possible How do we take care with ourselves and each other in this work What does solidarity collaboration or allyship look like in decolonial equity work What are the implicit and explicit barriers we face in shifting equity discourse policy and practice and what strategies skills and practices can help us in creating environments and lived realities of decolonial equity This edited collection centres the voices of Indigenous Black and other racialized peoples in articulating a vision for decolonial equity work Specifically the focus on decolonizing equity is an invitation to re articulate what equity work can look like when we refuse to separate ideas of equity from the historical and contemporary realities of colonialism in the settler colonial nation states known as Canada and the United States and when we insist on linking an equity agenda to the work of decolonizing our shared realities

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Student Voice in Higher Education Jerusha Conner, Rille Raaper, Carolina Guzmán-Valenzuela, Launa Gauthier, 2023-11-30 This handbook brings together scholarship from various subfields disciplinary traditions and geographic and geopolitical contexts to understand how student voice is operating in different higher education dimensions and contexts around the world The handbook helps not only to map the range of student voice practices in college and university settings but also to identify the common core elements enabling conditions constraints and outcomes associated with student voice work in higher education It offers a broad understanding of the methodologies current debates history and future of the field identifying avenues for future research
