

TO KILL A MOCKINGBIRD

Chapter Questions

1. The narrator, Scout, discusses her family. List Scout's real name, the names of the people who live in her home and each character's relation to her. (CH 1)

Jean Louise Finch Atticus Finch = father
Jem Finch = brother Calpurnia = the family cook

2. Describe the legend of Boo Radley, as believed by the children. (CH 1)

Boo got in trouble with the law as a child and was imprisoned in the house. 15 years later he stabbed his father with a pair of scissors. He is a "malevolent phantom, six feet tall."

3. List two reasons Miss Caroline is upset with Scout (CH 2):

① She can already read.

② Scout tries to explain Walter's situation to her.

4. Why does Scout get in trouble with Calpurnia when Walter is over for dinner? (CH 3)

She criticized Walter for pouring molasses all over his food. Calpurnia tells her to be a better hostess.

5. Describe Burris Ewell and his family. (CH 3)

His family is large, poor, and dirty. He is rude and has a cootie on his hair. He only comes to school on the first day so his family won't get in trouble with the law.

6. Describe the items Scout and Jem find in the knothole of the tree. From where do you think they came? (CH 4)

Two sticks of chewing gum and two Indian head pennies.
Answers.

7. Describe the game the kids start playing in chapter 4.

They roll in a tire and land in front of the Radley house which inspired the game, "Boo Radley" in a house.

Beyond the Five Paragraph Essay

Kimberly Campbell, Kristi Latimer, 2023-10-10 Love it or hate it the five paragraph essay is perhaps the most frequently taught form of writing in classrooms of yesterday and today But have you ever actually seen five paragraph essays outside of school walls Have you ever found it in business writing journalism nonfiction or any other genres that exist in the real world Kimberly Hill Campbell and Kristi Latimer reviewed the research on the effectiveness of the form as a teaching tool and discovered that the research does not support the five paragraph formula In fact research shows that the formula restricts creativity emphasizes structure rather than content does not improve standardized test scores inadequately prepares students for college writing and results in vapid writing In Beyond the Five Paragraph Essay Kimberly and Kristi show you how to reclaim the literary essay and create a program that encourages thoughtful writing in response to literature They provide numerous strategies that stimulate student thinking value unique insight and encourage lively personal writing including the following Close reading which is the basis for writing about literature Low stakes writing options that support students thinking as they read Collaboration in support of discussion debate and organizational structures that support writing as exploration A focus on students writing process as foundational to content development and structure The use of model texts to write in the form of the literature students are reading and analyzing The goal of reading and writing about literature is to push and challenge our students thinking We want students to know that their writing can convey something important a unique view to share defend prove delight discover and inspire If we want our students to be more engaged skilled writers we need to move beyond the five paragraph essay

Questioning for Classroom Discussion Jackie Acree Walsh, Beth Dankert Sattes, 2015-11-16 What type of questioning invigorates and sustains productive discussions That's what Jackie Acree Walsh and Beth Dankert Sattes ask as they begin a passionate exploration of questioning as the beating heart of thoughtful discussions Questioning and discussion are important components of classroom instruction that work in tandem to push learning forward and move students from passive participants to active meaning makers Walsh and Sattes argue that the skills students develop through questioning and discussion are critical to academic achievement career success and active citizenship in a democratic society They also have great potential to engage students at the highest levels of thinking and learning The extent to which this potential is realized of course depends on individual teachers who embrace these practices make them their own and realize that this process requires a true partnership with students With that in mind Questioning for Classroom Discussion presents and analyzes the DNA of productive discussions teacher guided small group and student driven

Power Tools Jeanne Dyches,Ashley S. Boyd,Katherine Baker,Alex Kaulfuss,2023-10-11 Virtually all national standards now require students and teachers to understand the particulars of disciplinary literacy But recently emerging scholarship suggests that disciplinary literacy is by itself an incomplete and potentially problematic approach to secondary literacy instruction By asking students to think like or even be like experts students may receive implicit messaging about whose knowledge is and isn't valued Critical disciplinary literacy CDL creates space for and highlights connections between critical literacies and disciplinary literacies CDL acknowledges disciplines as unique communities with their own specialized and often exclusionary skills norms practices and discourses but deviates from conventional applications of disciplinary literacy by responding to the ways in which power systems and the analytic skills needed to understand them work differently based on the disciplines at hand A CDL instructional approach acknowledges that applying the critical literacy skills of reading the word and the world to understand the power dynamics of vaccine distributions requires a different skill set and strategy approach than looking at textual representations of masculinity in Romeo and Juliet Written by a team of educators with over 70 combined years of classroom experience Power Tools 30 Critical Disciplinary Literacy Strategies for 6-12 Classrooms offers readers research-based multidisciplinary ready-to-implement disciplinary literacy strategies from critical literacy lenses The book sets itself apart from other strategy textbooks by offering creative strategy implementation that calls attention to power systems Educators can learn for example how they might employ read-alouds to explore the global refugee crisis or use the exit ticket strategy to help students reflect on the relationship between race and COVID statistics experiences Power Tools 30 Critical Disciplinary Literacy Strategies for 6-12 Classrooms provides standards-aligned lessons that both challenge and extend traditional engagement practices to build a more just world Each chapter includes An overview of each strategy situated within the research of best practices Two disciplinary examples for each CDL strategy e.g. an example of a CDL think-aloud in seventh-grade math and tenth-grade ELA classroom Chapters provide resources such as examples of student work discussion prompts dialogue between teacher and students and reprintables Ideas for addressing resistance to CDL instruction Preservice and in-service teachers as well as teacher educators and researchers looking to do and support justice-oriented work in disciplinary spaces will find value in the book Power Tools is an ideal text to implement in courses such as Disciplinary Literacy Secondary Literacy Content Area Literacy Methods Strategies for Teaching Social Justice Multicultural Education ELA methods Science methods Social Studies methods and Mathematics methods
