Gleanings of the vintage; or Letters to the spiritual edification of the Church of Christ [ed. by E. Huntington]. William Huntington, 1819

Gleanings of the Vintage, Or Letters to the Spiritual Edification of the Church of Christ William Huntington, 1813

The Intimate Frontier Ignacio Martínez, 2019-10-22 For millennia friendships have framed the most intimate and public contours of our everyday lives In this book Ignacio Mart nez tells the multilayered story of how the ideals logic rhetoric and emotions of friendship helped structure an early yet remarkably nuanced fragile and sporadic form of civil society societas civilis at the furthest edges of the Spanish Empire Spaniards living in the isolated borderlands region of colonial Sonora were keen to develop an ideologically relevant and socially acceptable form of friendship with Indigenous people that could act as a functional substitute for civil law and governance thereby regulating Native behavior But as frontier society grew in complexity and sophistication Indigenous and mixed raced people also used the language of friendship and the performance of emotion for their respective purposes in the process becoming skilled negotiators to meet their own best interests In northern New Spain friendships were sincere and authentic when they had to be and cunningly malleable when the circumstances demanded it The tenuous origins of civil society thus developed within this highly contentious social laboratory in which friendships authentic and feigned set the social and ideological parameters for conflict and cooperation Far from the coffee houses of Restoration London or the lecture halls of the Republic of Letters the civil society illuminated by Mart nez stumbled forward amid the ambiguities and contradictions of colonialism and the obstacles posed by the isolation and violence of the Sonoran Desert

Life of Eleuthère Irénée Du Pont from Contemporary

Correspondence Bessie Gardner Du Pont, 1924 Somebody's Fool Richard Russo, 2024-06-11 NEW YORK TIMES
BESTSELLER The Pulitzer Prize winning author of Empire Falls returns to North Bath in upstate New York and to the characters that captured the hearts and imaginations of millions of readers in his beloved best sellers Nobody's Fool and Everybody's Fool. Sumptuous, spirited Russo paints a shining fresco of a working class community. The New York Times
Another instant classic filled with Russo's witty dialogue and warm understanding of human foibles. People Magazine
Ten years after the death of the magnetic Donald Sully Sullivan, the town of North Bath is going through a major transition as it is annexed by its much wealthier neighbor Schuylers Springs. Peter Sully's son is still grappling with his father's tremendous legacy as well as his relationship to his own son Thomas, wondering if he has been all that different a father than Sully was to him. Meanwhile, the town's newly consolidated police department falls into the hands of Charice Bond after the resignation of Doug Raymer, the former North Bath police chief and Charice's ex-lover. When a decomposing body turns up in the abandoned hotel situated between the two towns, Charice and Raymer are drawn together again and forced to address their complicated attraction to one another. Across town, Ruth Sully's married ex-lover and her daughter Janey struggle to understand Janey's daughter Tina and her growing obsession with Peter's other son, Will. Amidst the turmoil, the town's residents speculate on the identity of the unidentified body and wonder who among their number could have disappeared unnoticed. Infused with all the wry humor and shrewd observations that Russo is known for, Somebody's Fool is another classic from a modern master. The Vintage Book of Contemporary Irish Fiction Dermot Bolger, 1995-11-14
Collects forty-six contemporary Irish short stories featuring contributions by notables including Mary Leland, William Trevor, Mary Dorcey, Patrick McCabe, and Brian Moore.
