The way communities of human beings structure themselves in a manner that is different from that of other species on the planet. Like Albert Einstein Sigmund Freud mile Durkheim Martin Buber or others who have changed the way we think in the humanities or in the human sciences Girard has put forth a set of ideas that have altered our perceptions of the world in which we function. We will never be able to think the same way again about mimetic desire about the scapegoat mechanism and about the role of Jewish and Christian scripture in explaining sacrifice violence and the crises from which our culture has been born. The contributions fall into roughly four areas of interpretive work religion and religious study literary study the philosophy of social science and psychological studies. The essays presented here are offered as essays in the older French sense of attempts essayer or trials of ideas as indeed Girard has tried out ideas with us.
