me no pigeon pie is especially made for me no hotel advertisement is personally addressed to me no hotel room tapestried with great coats and railway wrappers is set apart for me no house of public entertainment in the United Kingdom greatly cares for my opinion of its brandy or sherry When I go upon my journeys I am not usually rated at a low figure in the bill when I come home from my journeys I never get any commission I know nothing about prices and should have no idea if I were put to it how to wheedle a man into ordering something he doesn't want As a town traveller I am never to be seen driving a vehicle externally like a young and volatile pianoforte van and internally like an oven in which a number of flat boxes are baking in layers As a country traveller I am rarely to be found in a gig and am never to be encountered by a pleasure train waiting on the platform of a branch station quite a Druid in the midst of a light Stonehenge of samples And yet proceeding now to introduce myself positively I am both a town traveller and a country traveller and am always on the road Figuratively speaking I travel for the great house of Human Interest Brothers and have rather a large connection in the fancy goods way Literally speaking I am always wandering here and there from my rooms in Covent garden London now about the city streets now about the country by roads seeing many little things and some great things which because they interest me I think may interest others These are my chief credentials as the Uncommercial Traveller Dickens began by writing seventeen episodes which were printed in All the Year Round between 28 January and 13 October 1860 and these were published in a single edition in 1861 He sporadically produced eleven more articles between 1863 65 and an expanded edition of the work was printed in 1866 Once more he returned to the persona with some more sketches written 1868 69 and a complete set of these articles was published posthumously in 1875 Gilbert Keith Chesterton KC SG 29 May 1874 14 June 1936 better known as G K Chesterton was an English writer 2 poet philosopher dramatist journalist orator lay theologian biographer and literary and art critic
