Marion Eliza Weir, 1864 Uncovering the Hurt Daniel Brown, 2013-02-28 As Dan starts his new job he is paired up with Tom for on the job training Unfortunately Tom is a bitter old man full of bitterness and rage Follow Dan as he seeks to understand the pain behind Tom s anger and delve into what s really eating at him This Christian fiction short story includes Scripture and inspiration with a little mystery and suspense You ll love it Finding Our Voice Neil Glover, 2024-04-30 Beneath all the anxieties about church decline and strategies to reverse that this book speaks to a problem that has not been addressed why is it that mainstream churches Anglican Methodist Baptist and Presbyterian have been particularly affected by the secular age And how might they be renewed It argues that these churches need to focus less on restructuring and closures and instead recover a sense of authenticity in the gospel they believe in their vision of human flourishing their diversity their passion for justice and their unique ability to connect with local communities Too often mainline churches are perceived as worthy but also profoundly unexciting This book explores the centuries old roots of this perceived boredom and how the church can more often become a place of inspiration and of encounter with God Finding Our Voice calls on all kinds of resources that can help refresh the church s self expression in engagement with the scriptures with art music and poetry in searching for a better language that remains true to the church s core identity and resonates with contemporary culture
