China's Borderlands Steven Parham, 2017-02-27 This region which marks the meeting of China and post Soviet Central Asia is increasingly important militarily economically and geographically Yet we know little of the people that live there beyond a romanticised Silk Road sense of fraternity In fact relations between the people of this region are tense and border violence is escalating even as the identity and nationality of the people on the ground shifts to meet their new geopolitical realities As Steven Parham shows many of the world's Soviet borders have proved to be deeply unstable and in the end impermanent Meanwhile the looming presence of Modern China and Russia who are funneling money and military resources into the region partly to fight what they see as a growing Islamic activism are adding fuel to the fire This lyrical intelligent book functions as part travelogue part sociological exploration and is based on a unique body of research five months trekking through the checkpoints of the border regions As China continues to grow and become more assertive as it has been recently in Africa and in the South China Seas as well as in Xinjiang China's borderlands have become a battleground between the Soviet past and the Chinese future

Moscow's Heavy Shadow Isaac McKean Scarborough, 2023-08-15 Moscow's Heavy Shadow tells the story of the collapse of the USSR from the perspective of the many millions of Soviet citizens who experienced it as a period of abjection and violence Mikhail Gorbachev and the leaders of the USSR saw the years of reform preceding the collapse as opportunities for rebuilding perestroika rejuvenation and openness glasnost For those in provincial cities across the Soviet Union however these reforms led to rapid change economic collapse and violence Focusing on Dushanbe Tajikistan Isaac McKean Scarborough describes how this city experienced skyrocketing unemployment a depleted budget and streets filled with angry young men unable to support their families Tajikistan was left without financial or military resources unable and unprepared to stand against the wave of populist politicians of all stripes who took advantage of the economic collapse and social discontent to try to gain power By May 1992 political conflict became violent and bloody and engulfed the whole of Tajikistan in war Moscow's Heavy Shadow tells the story of how this war came to be and how it was grounded in the reform and collapse of the Soviet economy that came before

Sovietistan Erika Fatland, 2020-01-07 Turkmenistan Kazakhstan Tajikistan Kyrgyzstan and Uzbekistan became free of the Soviet Union in 1991 But though they are new to modern statehood this is a region rich in ancient history culture and landscapes unlike anywhere else in the world Traveling alone Erika Fatland is a true adventurer in every sense In Sovietistan she takes the reader on a compassionate and insightful journey to explore how their Soviet heritage has influenced these countries with governments experimenting with both democracy and dictatorships In Kyrgyzstani villages she meets victims of the tradition of bride snatching she visits the huge and desolate nuclear testing ground Polygon in Kazakhstan she meets shrimp gatherers on the banks of the dried out Aral Sea she travels incognito through Turkmenistan as it is closed to journalists and she meets German Mennonites that found paradise on the Kyrgyzstani plains 200 years ago We learn how ancient customs clash with gas production and witness the underlying conflicts in new countries building their futures in nationalist colors Once the frontier of the Soviet Union life follows another pace of time Amidst the treasures of Samarkand and the brutalist Soviet architecture Sovietistan is a rare and unforgettable travelogue Security in Shared two fundamentally modern phenomena but how have films shaped our understanding of the creation the imagining of Central Asian nations Here Rico Isaacs uses cinema as an analytical lens to explore how the Kazakh national identity has been constructed and contested Drawing on an analysis of Kazakh films from the last century and featuring new interviews with directors and critics involved in the Central Asian film industry his book traces the construction of nationalism within Kazakh cinema from the country's inception as a Soviet Republic to a modern independent nation Isaacs identifies four narratives since the collapse of the Soviet Union a warrior like ethnic narrative rooted in the 18th Century struggles against the Mongolian Oirat tribes a civic inspired narrative cemented in the Stalinist deportations of the 1930s and 40s a religious narrative founded within the mystic and philosophical religion of Tengrism and the cult of the Sky God and a socio economic narrative which roots Kazakh nationhood and identity in contemporary social divisions the lived day to day experiences of ordinary citizens and the struggles they face with authority These last two tropes demonstrate how cinema has emerged as a site of dissent against the country's authoritarian regime under President Nazarbayev Film and Identity in Kazakhstan advances our understanding of Kazakhstan and nationalism by demonstrating the multiple and inessential character of each and illustrates the important role of cinema in contesting political power in the post Soviet space Bandung, Global

History, and International Law Luis Eslava,Michael Fakhri,Vasuki Nesiah,2017-11-30 In 1955 a conference was held in Bandung Indonesia that was attended by representatives from twenty nine nations Against the backdrop of crumbling European empires Asian and African leaders forged new alliances and established anti imperial principles for a new world order The conference came to capture popular imaginations across the Global South and as counterpoint to the dominant world order it became both an act of collective imagination and a practical political project for decolonization that inspired a range of social movements diplomatic efforts institutional experiments and heterodox visions of the history and future of the world In this book leading international scholars explore what the spirit of Bandung has meant to people across the world over the past decades and what it means today It analyzes Bandung s complicated and pivotal impact on global history international law and most of all justice struggles after the end of formal colonialism Authoritarian Gravity Centers Marianne Kneuer,Thomas Demmelhuber,2020-05-19 Autocracies not only resist the global spread of democracy but are sources of autocratic influence and pressure This book presents a conceptual model to understand assess and explain the promotion and diffusion of authoritarian elements Employing a cross regional approach leading experts empirically test the concept of authoritarian gravity centers AGCs defined as regimes that constitute a force of attraction and contagion for countries in geopolitical proximity With an analysis extending across Latin America the Middle East Eastern Europe Central Asia and Asia these AGCs are shown to be effective as active promoters push or as neutral sources of attraction pull The authors contend that the influence of exogenous factors along with international and regional contexts for the transformation of regime types is vital to understanding and analyzing the transmission of autocratic institutional settings ideas norms procedures and practices thus explaining the regional clustering of autocracies It is the regional context in which external actors can influence authoritarian processes most effectively Authoritarian Gravity Centers is a vibrant and comprehensive contribution to the growing field of autocratization which will be of great interest to undergraduate and postgraduate students of comparative area studies illiberalism international politics and studies of democracy International Organizations and Internal Conditionality R. Fawn,2013-11-12 This book explores how norms based international organizations namely the Council of Europe and the OSCE are still able to win in world politics Fawn uses the concept of internal conditionality to explain how these organizations have been able to respond to members with a lack of material incentives or instruments of coercion Surviving Everyday Life von Boemcken, Marc,Bagdasarova, Nina,2020-07-23 Moving beyond state centric and elitist perspectives this volume examines everyday security in the Central Asian country of Kyrgyzstan Based on ethnographic fieldwork and written by scholars from Central Asia and beyond it shows how insecurity is experienced what people consider existential threats and how they go about securing themselves It concentrates on individuals who feel threatened because of their ethnic belonging gender or sexual orientation It develops the concept of securityscapes which draws attention to the more subtle means that people take to secure themselves practices bent on invisibility and avoidance on disguise and trickery and on continually adapting to shifting circumstances By broadening the concept of security practice this book is an important contribution to debates in Critical Security Studies as well as to Central Asian and Area Studies Theorizing Central Asian Politics Rico Isaacs,Alessandro Frigerio,2018-10-26 This book brings together a series of innovative contributions which provide an eclectic view of how theorizing politics plays out in Central

Internet and Gender in

Media Representation of Migrants and Refugees Kir Elitaş, Serpil, 2024-06-17

The global narrative surrounding migrants refugees and people on the move is often fraught with biases misunderstandings and misrepresentations While crucial for informing public opinion media coverage can inadvertently perpetuate stereotypes fuel discrimination and distort realities This leads to a climate where migrants and refugees are often misunderstood marginalized and even targeted with hate speech Such narratives hinder efforts for inclusive societies and contribute to the polarization of public debates on migration Media Representation of Migrants and Refugees offers a comprehensive solution by bringing together interdisciplinary perspectives to examine and challenge prevailing media narratives critically By inviting scholars and practitioners from diverse fields such as Social Sciences Humanities Media Communications and Government

the book aims to provide a nuanced understanding of the complex interplay between media representations and the lived experiences of migrants This book is a vital resource for academics researchers policymakers and media professionals seeking to understand and address the challenges of media representation in the context of migration Being Muslim in Central Asia ,2018-01-03 This volume explores the changing place of Islam in contemporary Central Asia understanding religion as a societal shaper a roadmap for navigating quickly evolving social and cultural values Islam can take on multiple colors and identities from a purely transcendental faith in God to a cauldron of ideological ferment for political ideology via diverse culture community and history based phenomena The volumes discusses what it means to be a Muslim in today s Central Asia by looking at both historical and sociological features investigates the relationship between Islam politics and the state the changing role of Islam in terms of societal values and the issue of female attire as a public debate Contributors include Aur lie Biard Tim Epkenhans Nurgul Esenamanova Azamat Junisbai Barbara Junisbai Marlene Laruelle Marantha Miles Emil Nasritdinov Shahnoza Nozimova Yaacov Ro i Wendell Schwab Manja Stephan Emmrich Rano Turaeva Alon Wainer Alexander Wolters Galina M Yemelianova Baurzhan Zhussupov Regional Organisations and Security Stephen Aris,Andreas Wenger,2013-10-30 This book aims to examine the conceptions and practices of security adopted by Regional Organisations ROs across the globe Since the end of the Cold War there has been an increased focus on regions as a relevant realm for security with actors within regional contexts identifying a significant degree of interdependency between one another As a consequence international security has taken on a distinct regionally institutionalised character as seen by the increase in calls for greater utilisation of Chapter VIII Regional Arrangements of the UN in order to create a devolved UN led system of global security management However the idea of a system of global security management is a remote prospect because divergence seems to be as important as commonality in terms of regional security In light of the above Regional Organisations and Security analyses the primary ROs that are active in Africa Asia Eurasia the Middle East and South America The findings of individual case studies are compiled to highlight disparities and similarities in how security is seen prioritised understood practised managed and implemented across regions On this basis the authors reach conclusions about whether we live in an increasingly globalised or regionally distinct world and go on to assess the prospects for a globalised system of security management and consider how this might be developed and organised This book will be of interest to students of comparative regionalism international organisations international security and IR Russia Abroad Anna Ohanyan,2018-10-01 While we know a great deal about the benefits of regional integration there is a knowledge gap when it comes to areas with weak dysfunctional or nonexistent regional fabric in political and economic life Further deliberate un regioning applied by actors external as well as internal to a region has also gone unnoticed despite its increasingly sophisticated modern application by Russia in its peripheries This volume helps us understand what Anna Ohanyan calls fractured regions and their consequences for contemporary global security Ohanyan introduces a theory of regional fracture to explain how and why regions come apart consolidate dysfunctional ties within the region and foster weak states Russia Abroad specifically examines how Russia employs regional fracture as a strategy to keep states on its periphery in Eurasia and the Middle East weak and in Russia's orbit It argues that the level of regional maturity in Russia's vast vicinities is an important determinant of Russian foreign policy in the emergent multipolar world order Many of these fractured regions become global security threats because weak states are more likely to be hubs of transnational crime havens for militants or sites of protracted conflict The regional fracture theory is offered as a fresh perspective about the post American world and a way to broaden international relations scholarship on comparative regionalism
