A Climate of Crisis Patrick Allitt, 2014-03-20 A provocative history of the environmental movement in America showing how this rise to political and social prominence produced a culture of alarmism that has often distorted the facts Few issues today excite more passion or alarm than the specter of climate change In A Climate of Crisis historian Patrick Allitt shows that our present climate of crisis is far from exceptional Indeed the environmental debates of the last half century are defined by exaggeration and fearmongering from all sides often at the expense of the facts In a real sense Allitt shows us collective anxiety about widespread environmental danger began with the atomic bomb As postwar suburbanization transformed the American landscape more research and better tools for measurement began to reveal the consequences of economic success A climate of anxiety became a climate of alarm often at odds with reality The sixties generation transformed environmentalism from a set of special interests into a mass movement By the first Earth Day in 1970 journalists and politicians alike were urging major initiatives to remedy environmental harm In fact the work of the new Environmental Protection Agency and a series of clean air and water acts from a responsive Congress inaugurated a largely successful cleanup Political polarization around environmental questions after 1980 had consequences that we still feel today Since then the general polarization of American politics has mirrored that of environmental politics as pro environmentalists and their critics attribute to one another the worst possible motives Environmentalists see their critics as greedy special interest groups that show no conscience as they plunder the earth while skeptics see their adversaries as enemies of economic growth whose plans stifle initiative under an avalanche of bureaucratic regulation There may be a germ of truth in both views but more than a germ of falsehood too America s worst environmental problems have proven to be manageable the regulations and cleanups of the last sixty years have often worked and science and technology have continued to improve industrial efficiency Our present situation is serious argues Allitt but it is far from hopeless Sweeping and provocative A Climate of Crisis challenges our basic assumptions about the environment no matter where we fall along the spectrum reminding us that the answers to our most pressing questions are sometimes found in understanding the past

The Thirteenth Commandment Bruce Marvin, 2004 Congressman Robin Andrews faces stark choices to save the world or to allow the obliteration of the human race He discovers a Russian village totally wiped out by a disease of unknown origins America also faces the destruction of a small town outside of Pittsburgh the cause also unknown Can the mindless genocide perpetrated by some unidentified agent be halted before the whole world perishes Albert Kasdan a brilliant scientist and twin brother of world famous chess grand master Anton Pomerov befriends Robin and shares his knowledge about a plague more deadly than any that had previously ravaged the world Those with the Mark of Barabbas have a natural immunity to this plague a divine judgment on the world for its sins Only the rediscovery of a sacred water supply somewhere in the Holy Land can save the rest of the world Jan Lipski a young doctor and concentration camp inmate at Auschwitz has been forced to work with Hans Hoffmann an evil Nazi doctor involved in inhuman medical experiments During the last days of the war Lipski helps a group of twin boys to escape certain death Lipski also escapes with a sacred copy of The Thirteen Commandments Hoffmann eludes capture on the last German U boat Andrews studies the Bible code and reads The Thirteen Commandments trying to make sense of the plague that has now reached Pennsylvania No one can explain what happened While searching Kasdan's computer Andrews at last receives what he believes to be a divine message He travels to the Masada in Israel where he discovers the healing waters

America's Most Chilling 'Unsolved' Celebrity Deaths Dr. James Carver, 2025-06-24 Discover the dark side of fame in America's Most Chilling Unsolved Celebrity Deaths, a gripping true crime investigation into five iconic stars who died under mysterious, tragic, and unsolved circumstances. From the bloodstained apartment of Hogan's Heroes star Bob Crane to the foggy waters off Catalina Island where Natalie Wood vanished to the bullet-riddled Las Vegas night that silenced rapper Tupac Shakur, this book unearths the secrets, scandals, and shocking twists behind some of the most infamous celebrity deaths in American history. Explore the tangled lives and haunting deaths of Bob Crane, a sitcom star whose secret life leads to a brutal murder; Natalie Wood, glamour, jealousy, and death aboard a yacht; Tupac Shakur, a visionary artist gunned down in a case still open; Brittany Murphy, a young starlet who dies mysteriously followed by her husband David Carradine, a martial arts legend found dead under bizarre global headlines. Each case is a full, deep dive narrative packed with forensic details, psychological insight, and the disturbing cultural forces that shaped their lives and deaths. From crime scene analysis to conspiracy theories and botched investigations, this book lays bare the unsolved mysteries that still captivate millions. If you love celebrity true crime, unsolved mysteries, or Netflix-style deep dives, this is your next can't put it down read. Book 4 of The Unsolved and Unforgotten Series

Faith and Fiction Barbara Pell, 2006-01-01 Is it possible to write an artistically respectable and theoretically convincing religious novel in a non-religious age? Up to now, there has been no substantial application of theological criticism to the works of Hugh MacLennan and Morley Callaghan, the two most important Canadian novelists before 1960. Yet both were religious writers during the period when Canada entered the modern, non-religious era, and both greatly influenced the development of our literature. MacLennan's journey from Calvinism to Christian existentialism is documented in his essays and seven novels, most fully in The Watch that Ends the Night. Callaghan's fourteen novels are marked by tensions in his theology of Catholic humanism, with his later novels defining his theological themes in increasingly secular terms. This tension between narrative and metanarrative has produced both the artistic strengths and the moral ambiguities that characterize his work. Faith and Fiction: A Theological Critique of the Narrative Strategies of Hugh MacLennan and Morley Callaghan is a significant contribution to the relatively new field studying the relation between religion and literature in Canada.

Spiritual Currency in Northeast Brazil Lindsey King, 2014-12-15 This book examines the spiritual community of the followers of St. Francis of Wounds in the town of Canindé in northeast Brazil. Their tradition involves pilgrimage and the practice of crafting unique offerings in payment for healing and reversal of bad fortune a practice predating Christianity and brought to the new world by explorers and early European colonial powers King argues that these marginalized Brazilians living in a region where poverty is endemic use St Francis of Wounds to replace the medical and social services that the government has failed to provide She further illustrates the evolution of the regional practice with photographs documenting all stages of this tradition especially the folk art ex votos used to pay for the saint's intervention

Searching the Law, the States: MI-WY Francis R. Doyle, 2003

Voice of Choice Olivia Erinn, 2013-02-14 Have you ever thought I feel trapped while in a relationship home or work environment While growing up author Olivia Erinn often felt she was caught in a spider web she experienced an abusive childhood and would later be involved in two abusive marriages She came across the following facts about spiders and spider webs and found it quite similar to her feelings of entrapment Spiders do not have teeth and do not chew their victims Instead they fill the bodies of their victims with poisonous juices which dissolve the victims insides This is why you see the spiders victims laying in their webs They are not saving them for later they are in the process of dissolving their insides Once the insides have been dissolved the spider is then able to suck the victim as if it were water The spiders web helps in this process Once the victim is in the web they can't get free Spiders don't actually save their food for later they just take a little while to prepare their meals This is a great analogy of what an abuser or bully does with his or her victims The abuser regardless of the form it takes is the abuser's poison Over time the abuse weakens the victim's self esteem and they eventually find themselves lying in the web the life sucked right out of them Once in the web the victim finds it nearly impossible to get free of the abuser In a sense it's a slow death to our physical verbal emotional mental sexual and spiritual beings our very existence But take heart Olivia shares both her story and the necessary steps to discover and expose these kinds of individuals known as narcissists She provides the knowledge and ways to escape from these types of abusive relationships
