Timothy Heinmiller, Matthew A. Hennigar, 2022-06-29 Firearms policy has periodically dominated Canadian politics since the late 1960s Compared to the United States however there is little scholarship on firearms policy to the neighbouring north Using Canadian firearms policy Aiming to Explain examines five prominent policy process theories employed during the period from the 1989 Montreal Massacre to the 2012 cancellation of the universal firearms registry Throughout B Timothy Heinmiller and Matthew A Hennigar present rigorous applications of rational choice institutionalism social constructivism the advocacy coalition framework the multiple streams framework and punctuated equilibrium The investigations draw on method based best practices while also making use of a wide range of data collection and analysis techniques including inferential statistics descriptive statistics process tracing congruence analysis and qualitative content analysis The goal of Aiming to Explain is not to select a single best theory but to compare their relative strengths and weaknesses in an effort to direct future research and theoretical development efforts in the study of Canadian public policy Medium Law Daithí Mac Síthigh, 2017-09-13 Why should anyone care about the medium of communication today especially when talking about media law In today s digital society many emphasise convergence and seek new regulatory approaches In Medium Law however the medium theory insights of Harold Innis Marshall McLuhan and the Toronto School of Communication are drawn upon as part of an argument that differences between media and technological definitions continue to play a crucial role in the regulation of the media Indeed Mac S thigh argues that the idea of converged cross platform medium neutral media regulation is unattainable in practice and potentially undesirable in substance This is demonstrated through the exploration of the regulation of a variety of platforms such as films games video on demand and premium rate telephone services Regulatory areas discussed include content regulation copyright tax relief for producers and developers new online services conflicts between regulatory systems and freedom of expression This timely and topical volume will appeal to postgraduate students and postdoctoral researchers interested in fields such as Law Policy Regulation Media Studies Communications History and Cultural Studies Paperbound Books in Print ,1991 Guernsey Breeders' Journal ,1988 Fiction, Folklore, Fantasy & Poetry for Children, 1876-1985: Authors, illustrators ,1986 The New Republic ,1942 Bowker's Guide to Characters in Fiction
