We Need To Talk About Kevin :

We Need To Talk About Kevin Lionel Shriver, 2010-07-09 WINNER OF THE WOMEN S PRIZE FOR FICTION 2010 ONE MILLION COPIES SOLD Eva never really wanted to be a mother certainly not the mother of a boy named Kevin who murdered seven of his fellow high school students a cafeteria worker and a teacher who had tried to befriend him Now two years after her son s horrific rampage Eva comes to terms with her role as Kevin s mother in a series of startlingly direct correspondences with her absent husband Franklyn about their son s upbringing Fearing that her own shortcomings may have shaped what her son has become she confesses to a deep long standing ambivalence about motherhood How much is her fault In Lionel Shriver s hands this sensational chilling and memorable story of a woman who raised a monster becomes a metaphor for the larger tragedy the tragedy of a country where everything works nobody starves and anything can be bought but a sense of purpose

We Need to Talk about Kevin Lionel Shriver, 2005 WINNER OF THE ORANGE PRIZE read more Interactive online message board now live visit here Reading group questions here but don t spoil the plot Read an extract Two years ago Eva Khatchadourian s son Kevin murdered seven of his fellow high school students a cafeteria worker and a popular algebra teacher Because he was only fifteen at the time of the killings he received a lenient sentence and is now in a prison for young offenders in upstate New York Telling the story of Kevin s upbringing Eva addresses herself to her estranged husband through a series of letters Fearing that her own shortcomings may have shaped what her son has become she confesses to a deep long standing ambivalence about both motherhood in general and Kevin in particular How much is her fault Lionel Shriver tells a compelling absorbing and resonant story while framing these horrifying tableaux of teenage carnage as metaphors for the larger tragedy the tragedy of a country where everything works nobody starves and anything can be bought but a sense of purpose

We Need to Talk About Kevin Lionel Shriver, 2011-05-01 The inspiration for the film starring Tilda Swinton and John C Reilly this resonant story of a mother s unsettling quest to understand her teenage son s deadly violence her own ambivalence toward motherhood and the explosive link between them remains terrifyingly prescient Eva never really wanted to be a mother And certainly not the mother of a boy who murdered seven of his fellow high school students a cafeteria worker and a much adored teacher in a school shooting two days before his sixteenth birthday Neither nature nor nurture exclusively shapes a child s character But Eva was always uneasy with the sacrifices and social demotion of motherhood Did her internalized dislike for her own son shape him into the killer he s become How much is her fault Now two years later it is time for her to come to terms with Kevin s horrific rampage all in a series of startlingly direct correspondences with her estranged husband Franklin A piercing unforgettable and penetrating exploration of violence and responsibility a book that the Boston Globe describes as impossible to put down is a stunning examination of how tragedy affects a town a marriage and a family

Rampage Violence Narratives Kathryn E. Linder, 2014-04-24 Springfield Columbine Sandy Hook Each school shooting in the United States is followed by a series of questions Why does this happen Who are the shooters How can this be prevented Along with parents school officials media outlets and scholars popular culture has also attempted to respond to these questions through a variety of fictional portrayals of rampage violence Rampage Violence Narratives What Fictional Accounts of Rampage Violence Say about the Future of America's Youth offers a detailed look at the state of youth identity in American cultural representations of youth violence through an extended analysis of over forty primary sources of fictional narratives of urban and suburban rural school violence Representations of suburban and rural school shootings that are modeled after real life events serve to shape popular understandings of the relationship between education and American identity the liminal space between childhood and adulthood and the centrality of white heterosexual masculinity to definitions of social and political success in the United States Through a series of case studies that offer in depth examinations of fictional depictions of school shootings in film and literature it becomes clear that these stories are representative of a larger social narrative regarding the future of the United States The continuing struggle to understand youth violence is part of an ongoing conversation about what it means to raise future citizens within a cultural moment that views youth through a lens of anxiety rather than optimism

Edinburgh Companion to Atlantic Literary Studies Leslie Eckel, 2016-09-20 New and original collection of scholarly essays examining the literary complexities of the Atlantic world system This Companion offers a critical overview of the diverse and dynamic field of Atlantic literary studies with contributions by distinguished scholars on a series of topics that define the area The essays focus on literature and culture from first contact to the present exploring fruitful Atlantic connections across space and time across national cultures and embracing literature culture and society This research collection proposes that the analysis of literature and culture does not depend solely upon geographical setting to uncover textual meaning Instead it offers Atlantic connections based around migration race gender and sexuality ecologies and other significant ideological crossovers in the Atlantic World The result is an exciting new critical map written by leading international researchers of a lively and expanding field Key Features Offers an introduction to the growing field of Atlantic literary studies by showcasing current work engaged in debate around historical cultural and literary issues in the Atlantic World Includes 26 newly commissioned scholarly essays by leading experts in Atlantic literary studies Fuses breadth of historical knowledge with depth of literary scholarship Considers the full range of intercultural encounters around and across the Atlantic Ocean

We Need to Talk about Kevin, 2012 We Need to Talk About Kevin Lionel Shriver, 2019-06-04 Now a major motion picture starring Tilda Swinton Published in twenty eight countries Over a million copies sold worldwide Two years ago Eva Khatchadourian's son Kevin murdered seven of his fellow high school students a cafeteria worker and a popular teacher Now in a series of letters to her absent husband Eva recounts the story of how Kevin came to be Kevin Fearing that her own shortcomings may have shaped what her son has become she confesses to a deep long standing ambivalence about both motherhood in general and Kevin in particular How much is her fault When did it all start to go wrong Or was it in fact ever right at all Lionel Shriver tells a compelling absorbing and resonant story while framing the horrifying tableau of teenage carnage as a metaphor for the larger tragedy the tragedy of a country where everything works nobody starves and anything can be bought but a sense of purpose By far the best novel I've read in years exquisitely crafted a breathtaking work of art Age Brilliant compulsive Guardian A great read with horrifying twists and turns Marie Claire Harrowing tense and thought provoking this is a vocal challenge to every accepted parenting manual you've ever read Daily Mail
