Andrew Boyd is thrown into a crisis of hope and off on a quest to learn how to live with the impossible news of our climate doom. He searches out eight leading climate thinkers from collapse psychologist Jamey Hecht to grassroots strategist adrienne maree brown, eco philosopher Joanna Macy, and Indigenous botanist Robin Wall Kimmerer, asking them: Is it really the end of the world, and if so, now what? With gallows humor and a broken heart, Boyd steers readers through their climate angst as he walks his own. From storm-battered coastlines to pipeline blockades and hopelessness workshops, he maps out our existential options and tackles some familiar dilemmas: Should I bring kids into such a world? Can I lose hope when others can't afford to? and Why the fuck am I recycling? He finds answers that will surprise, inspire, and maybe even make you laugh in this insightful and irreverent guide for achieving a better catastrophe.
