The Welcome

There is a processional at the beginning of the ceremony where the groom and groomsmen come in, afterward the bridal party and then the bride. After this, the officiant asks the guests to be seated and welcomes them to the wedding/joining of the couple.

The Readings

The welcome is usually followed by the reading or readings. A reading by the officiant or friends and family. It could also be pre-agreed upon religious verses read by any one of the guests.

The Vows

The couple exchanges their vows. Either standard vows in line with their denomination or original vows were written by them from scratch.

The Rings

After the vows, the couple exchange rings, usually repeating the required sentences and saying their I Do's after the officiant.

The Pronouncement

The couple is pronounced husband and wife by the officiant.

The Kiss!

The joining is sealed by a kiss after which the recessional follows and all the fun begin.

Wedding Vows Susan Lee Smith, 2001-05-01. This book is a comprehensive and unique guide on how to write one's own wedding vows. In the U.S. alone, there are over 2.4 million weddings every year, and no two will be exactly alike. Yet whatever the differences, the exchanging of vows is often the most anticipated and memorable moment in the ceremony. Personalizing one's wedding vows is a growing trend in America, but it can be a very stressful experience. This book will help couples by answering some essential questions in preparing for their ceremony: How much of your religion's traditional vows should you include? Is your favorite poem appropriate for the setting you are in, or should you just memorize a couple of lines? Are you stuck on what to say after "I knew you were the one the moment we met"? Are your favorite Led Zeppelin song lyrics an appropriate expression of how you feel about your fiancé? Should you share your vows at the rehearsal?
