Caring for the Socially Marginalised in Interwar Europe, 1919-1939 Michele Mioni,Stefano Petrungaro,2024-11-07 This book investigates the mixed economy of welfare that assisted socially marginalised people in interwar Europe namely the state local authorities and a combination of voluntary and informal actors While literature has traditionally emphasised the key role of the state the cooperation between public authorities and private actors has always been a staple of social policy in Europe throughout history The interwar years prominently featured these entanglements between the increased public sphere of action and the voluntary sector Focusing on three thematic areas warfare and its effects boundaries of aid and institutional segregation and gender and religion the authors present case studies from various European countries between 1919 and 1939 All contributions explore the variegated world that composed the so called mixed economy of welfare By shifting the emphasis to the collaborations and frictions between social marginals non state actors and public authorities on a local national and transnational level the book challenges too simplistic distinctions between public and private initiatives and reveals the cultural political and practical common traits that featured in European care for marginals across a variety of geographical variations and socio political contexts Chapter s Rescuing Endangered Girls The Yugoslav Experience in a Comparative View is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License via Springerlink Open Heart Open Arms Alan Hilliard,2016-09-28 The aim of this booklet is to help foster an understanding of the plight of migrants that leads to action in the local faith community Understanding of the role of the Christian towards the ever more present reality of migration and of the great Catholic tradition of hospitality is more important than ever especially if we want or desire to make the appropriate response The actions may not change situations in the homelands from which people migrated in the first place but the action we undertake in our neighborhood where we live together can have amazing impacts for the stranger for us and for our community eventually influencing policy via our mutual understanding of the way our world is functioning or not functioning The information in this booklet will hopefully help nurture the instincts of those who wish to make a difference in the face of the current crisis which brings with it so much tragedy Author interviewed on High Noon on Newstalk with George Hook Welcoming the Stranger ,2004-01-01
