We Miss You Children Postcard Pkg Of 25:

We Miss You Children Postcard (Package of 25), 2013 Postcards from China Sandra Slavin, 2003-11 This book is a compilation of humorous emails written to family and friends during the author's two years living in China. They moved to China in August 2000 hoping to escape the hectic lifestyle of living in San Francisco and allow their adopted Chinese daughter an opportunity to learn the language and culture of her birth country. This book chronicles their life and provides an intimate look into what it is like to live in China as an American family. It reveals how it affected the building of an identity for their Chinese American daughter. The author writes about the numerous friends they made among the Chinese people from Glenn their housekeeper to the couple who sold tofu in the market. She describes shopping at the local market, ordering in local restaurants, and describes how the local Chinese live and work. This book describes their life full of curiosities and adventures. Learn why Chinese men grow long their fifth finger nail, how to avoid disaster when traveling to Mongolia, how to cross the street and the difficulties in purchasing and getting an egg from market to home. After reading the book, you may be inspired to try your own adventure. Children We Miss You Music Postcard (Package of 25), 1994-05 Stay in touch with postcards for all occasions. Important Artifacts and Personal Property from the Collection of Lenore Doolan and Harold Morris, Including Books, Street Fashion, and Jewelry Leanne Shapton, 2009-02-03 A love story told in the form of an auction catalog. Auction catalogs can tell you a lot about a person: their passions and vanities, peccadilloes and aesthetics, their flush years and lean. Think of the collections of Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis, Truman Capote, the Duke and Duchess of Windsor. In Leanne Shapton's marvelously inventive and invented auction catalog, the 325 lots up for auction are what remain from the relationship between Lenore Doolan and Harold Morris, who aren't real people but might as well be. Through photographs of the couple's personal effects, the usual auction items—jewelry, fine art, and rare furniture—and the seemingly worthless pajamas, Post-it notes, worn paperbacks, the story of a failed love affair vividly and cleverly emerges. From first meeting to final separation, the progress and rituals of intimacy are revealed through the couple's accumulated relics and memorabilia. And a love story in all its tenderness and struggle emerges from the evidence that has been left behind, laid out for us to appraise and appreciate. In an earlier work, Was She Pretty? Shapton, a talented artist and illustrator, subtly explored the seemingly simple yet powerfully complicated nature of sexual jealousy. In Important Artifacts and Personal Property from the Collection of Lenore Doolan and Harold Morris, a very different yet equally original book, she invites us to contemplate what is truly valuable and to consider the art we make of our private lives. Primary Plans, 1913 Normal Instructor, 1908 Normal Instructor and Teachers World, 1924 Farm Life, 1917 The Culture of Fear Barry Glassner, 2009 Revised for the first time in ten years, an update of the classic book with new material on the administration of George W. Bush and the use of fear in the war on terror. Monthly Bulletin Indiana State Board of Health, 1923 Deep Blue We Miss You Postcard, Package of
