Arriaga,Stacie L. Stanley,Delores B. Lindsey,2022-12-05 Leading While Female means working with female and male colleagues who are grounded in values for equity to confront and close the gender equity gap Combining the first hand experiences of female leaders with research on feminism intersectionality and leadership Arriaga Stanley and Lindsey support readers to explore their personal and professional cultural proficiencies Readers will find support to identify barriers and formulate methods to overcome them opportunities to record their experiences following a narrative protocol for their Stormy First Draft SFD a writing experience derived from nine chapters of guided reflective journal entries leadership stories and figures to provide guidance and illustrate the need for gender equity and opportunities for males who are mentors and allies to dismantle gender bias

Queen Mothers Rhonda Jeffries, 2019-08-01 Black women's experiences functioning as mothers teachers and leaders are confounding and complex Queen Mothers from Ghanaian tradition are revered as the leaders of their matrilineal families and the teachers of the high chiefs Miller 2013 Stoeltje 1997 Conversely the influence of the British Queen Mother on Black women in the Americas translates as a powerless title of dis-courtesy Characterized as a deviant figure by colonialists the Black Queen Mother's role as disruptive agent was created by White domination of Black life Masenya 2014 and this branding persists among contemporary perceptions of Black women who function as the mother teacher or leader figure in various spaces Nevertheless Black women as cultural anomalies were suitable to mother others for centuries in their roles as chattel and domestic servants in the United States Dill 2014 Lawson 2000 Lewis 1977 and Rodriguez 2016 provide explorations of the devaluation of Black women in roles of power with these effects wide ranging from economic and family security professional and business development healthcare maintenance political representation spiritual enlightenment and educational achievement This text interrogates contexts where Black women function as Queen Mothers and contests the trivialization of their manifold contributions The contributed chapters explore The myriad experiences of Black women mothering teaching and leading their children families and communities how spirituality has influenced the leadership styles of Black women as mothers and teachers and how Black women are uniquely positioned to mother teach and lead in personal and professional spaces

The American Medical Association on the Case for Teaching Racism Francis Kwarteng, 2021-04-26 The public lynching of George Floyd re-exposed the rotten underbelly of America and this together with the disproportionate impact of COVID 19 on Black and Brown communities the global Black Lives Matter protests and the racist xenophobic demagoguery of Donald Trump resurrected the old debates about medical racism race relations implicit bias vaccine nationalism vaccine imperialism structural inequality police brutality vaccine hesitancy unethical human experimentation vaccine diplomacy qualified immunity conspiracy theories and social justice Then in 2020 the American Medical Association formally declared racism a public health crisis defined racism as a social determinant of health and embraced the idea of medical schools teaching medical students about racism Alas the nursing curriculum is somewhat silent on these questions Decolonizing the nursing curriculum long overdue is therefore imperative This book explores the question of decolonizing the nursing curriculum from the angles of postcolonial theory critiquing the Western literary canon American history literary criticism African literature cultural criticism Afrocentric theory democracy African American literature and critical race theory

Cautiously Hopeful Marie Carrière, 2020-10-22 If feminism has always been characterized by its divisions it is metafeminism a term coined by Lori Saint Martin that defines and embraces that disorder As a carefully devised reading practice metafeminism understands contemporary feminist literature and theory as both recalling and extending the tropes and politics of the past In Cautiously Hopeful Marie Carri re brings together seemingly disparate writing by Anglo Canadian Indigenous and Qu b cois women authors under the banner of metafeminism Familiarizing readers with major streams of feminist thought including intersectionality affect theory and care ethics Carri re shows how literary works by such authors as Dionne Brand Nicole Brossard Naomi Fontaine Larissa Lai Tracey Lindberg and Rachel Zolf among others tackle the entanglement of gender with race settler invader colonialism heteronormativity positionality language and the posthuman condition Meanwhile tenable alliances among Indigenous women women of colour and settler feminist practitioners emerge Carri re s tone is personal and accessible throughout in itself a meta feminist gesture that both encompasses and surpasses a familiar feminist form of writing Despite the growing anti feminist backlash across media platforms and in various spheres of political and social life a hopefulness animates this timely work that like metafeminism stands alert to the challenges that feminism faces in its capacity to effect social change in the twenty first century
